

Nichols Biblio. Topog Britt. Vol. 2.
History of Lambeth - p. 82 Cunningham's Lives. Bacon Vol. 3.
p. 200 - and Cecil's Life of Bacon

Things
of ^Koades Artificial Stone Manufacture of Varrow Wall Lambeth near Westminster Bridge

Published only for private circulation

in the years 1777, 1778 & 1779

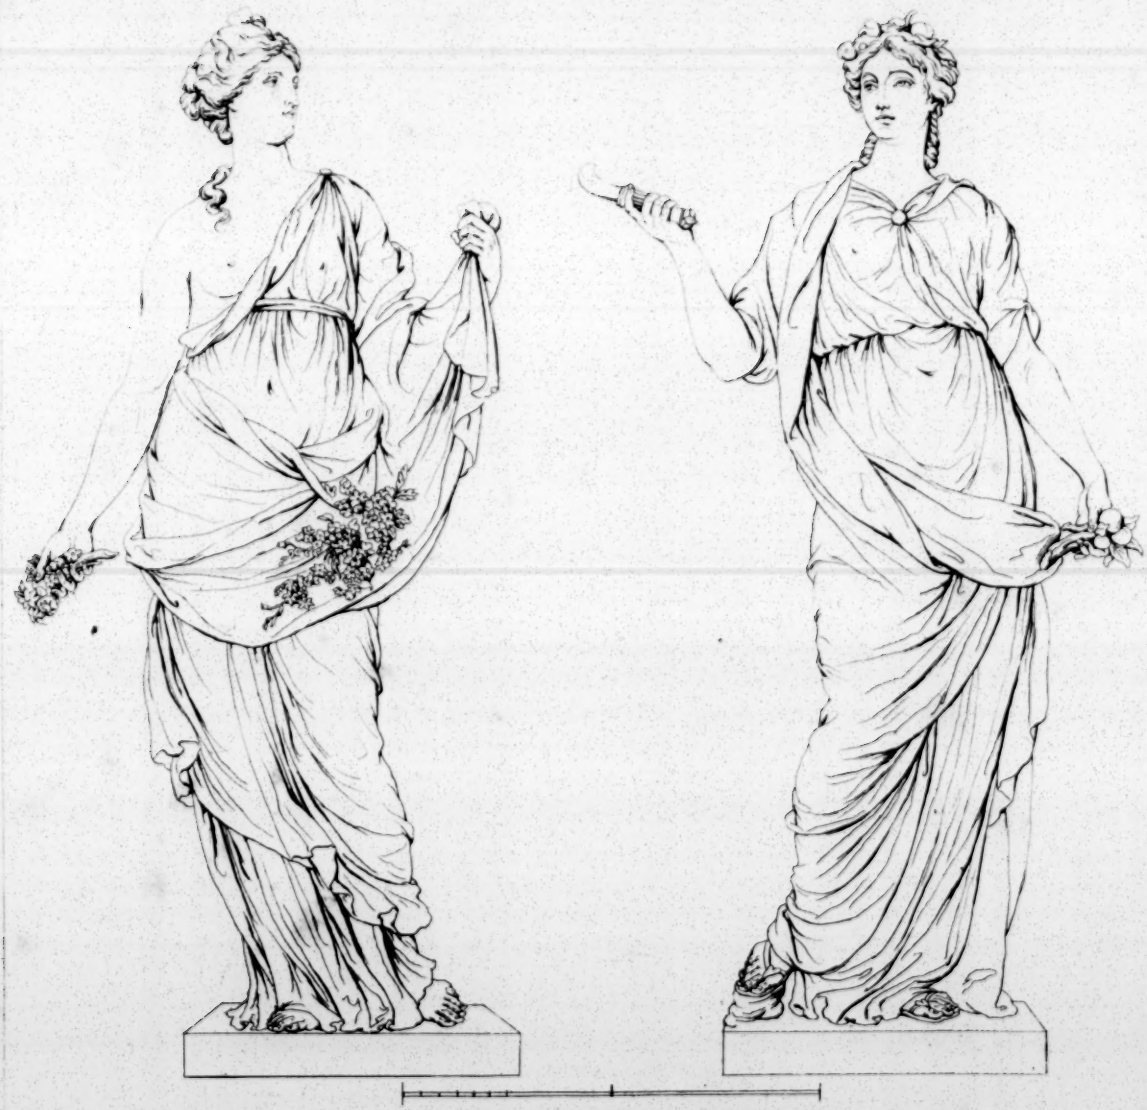

no doubt under the superintendence of John Bacon the Sculptor who was many years the rent proprietor and manager of this artificial manufacture. See Cecil's & Cunningham's Lives of Bacon the River of the Thames in the Book, Topog. Britt. Vol. 2.

it was called by the name of the River of the Thames

THE RIVER GOD, a 9 Feet Figure, at COADES Lythodipya, or Artificial Stone Manufactory, Narrow Wall, LAMBETH.

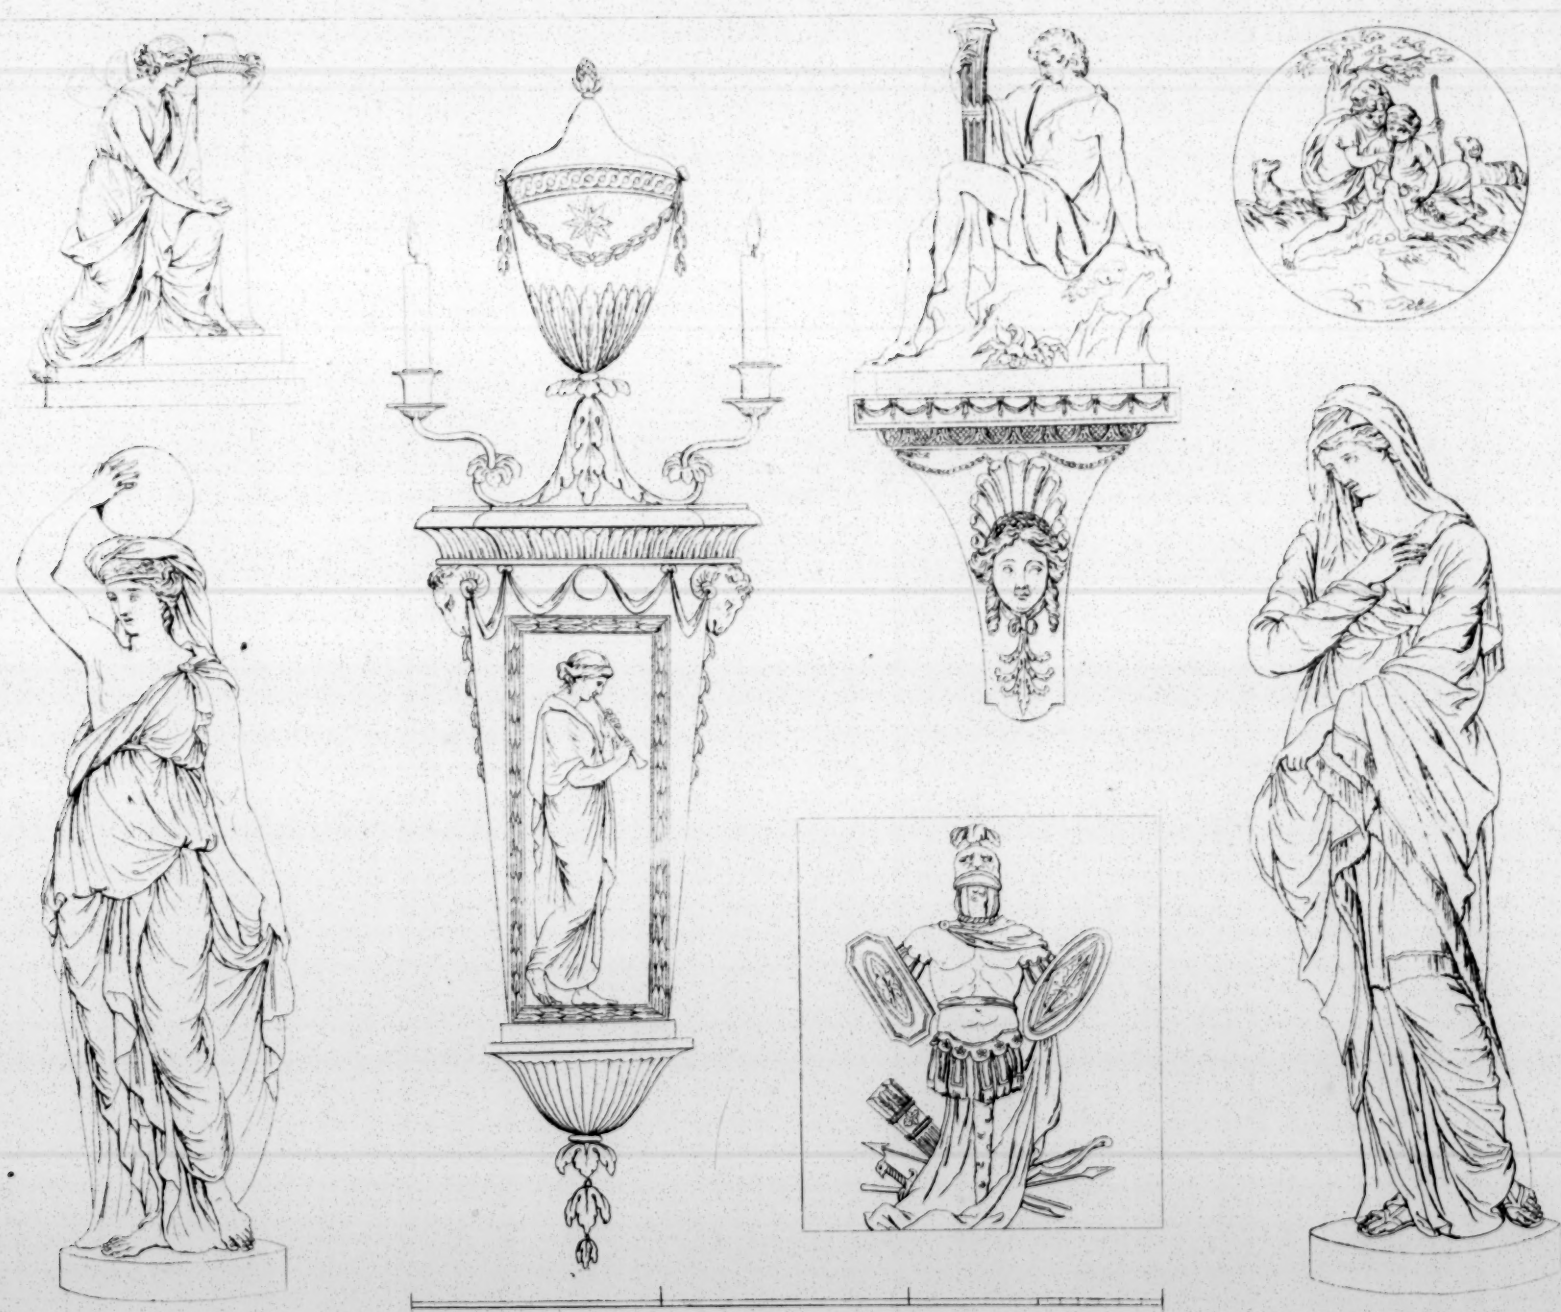

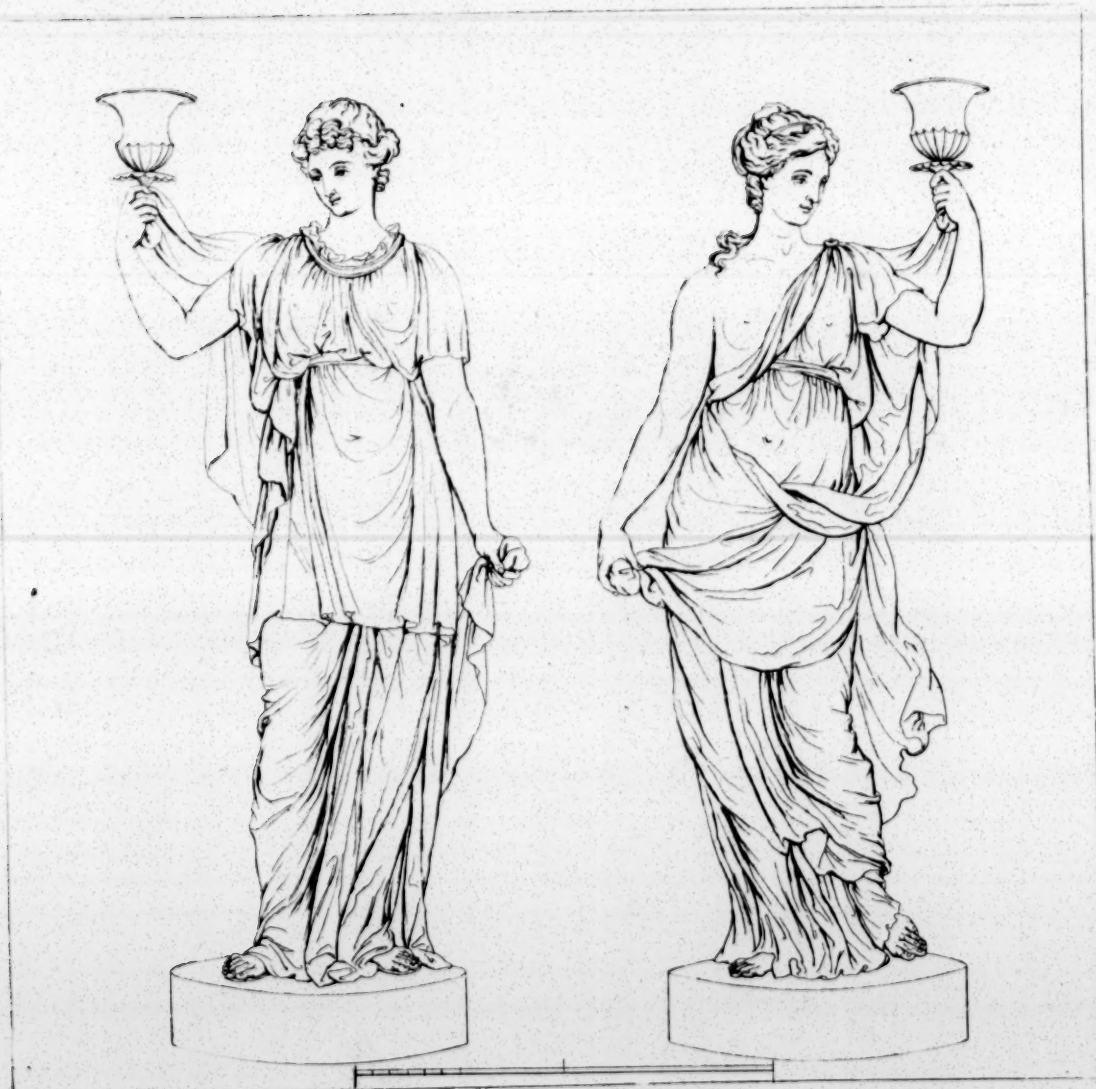

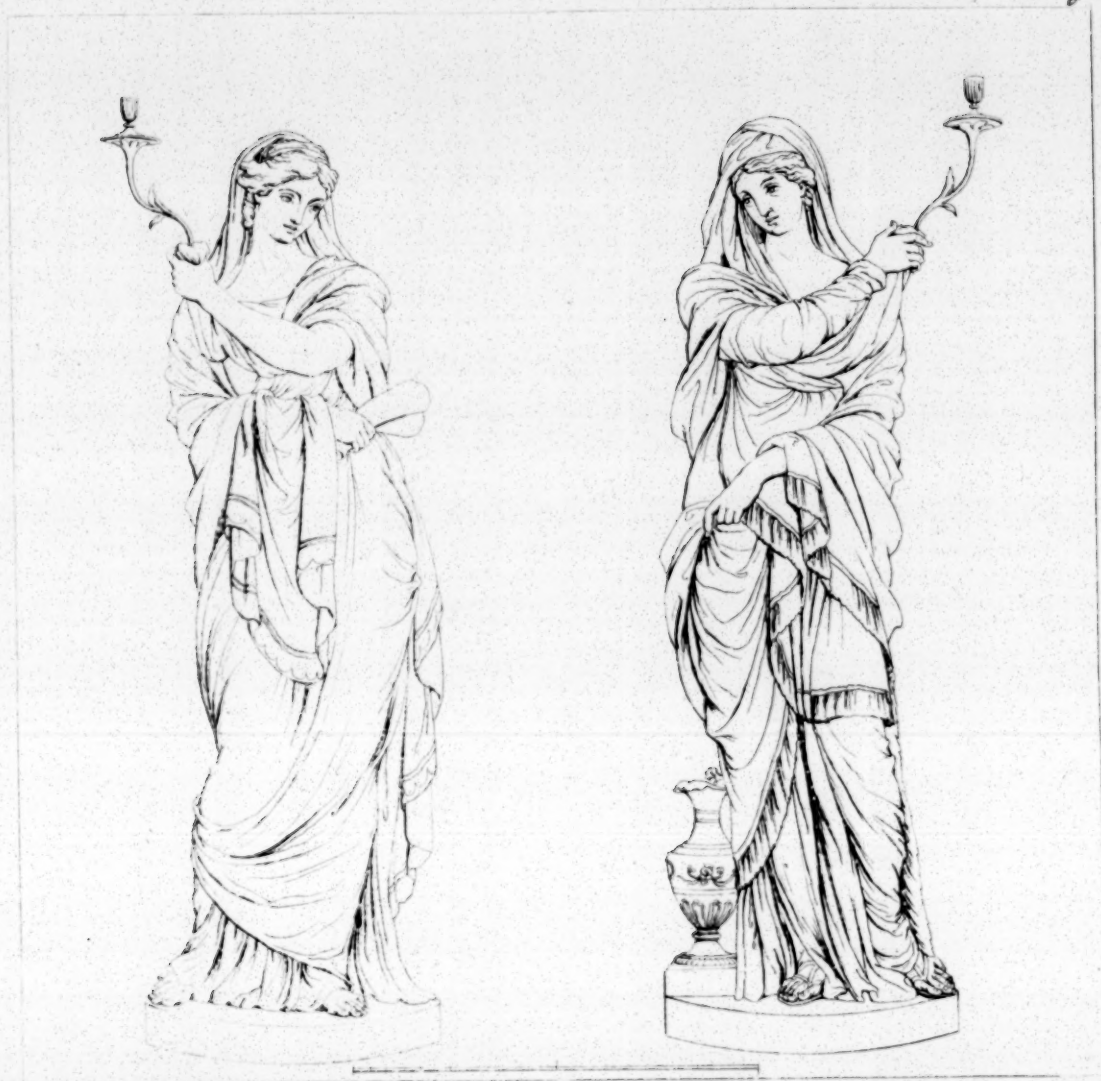

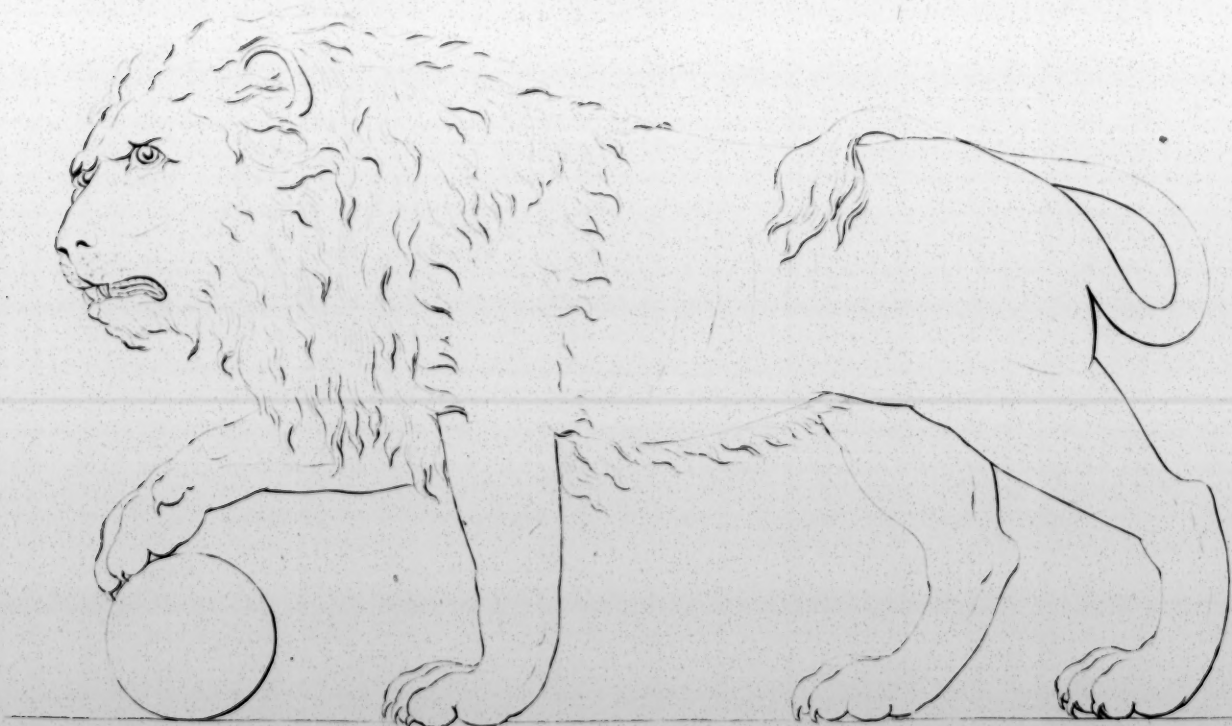

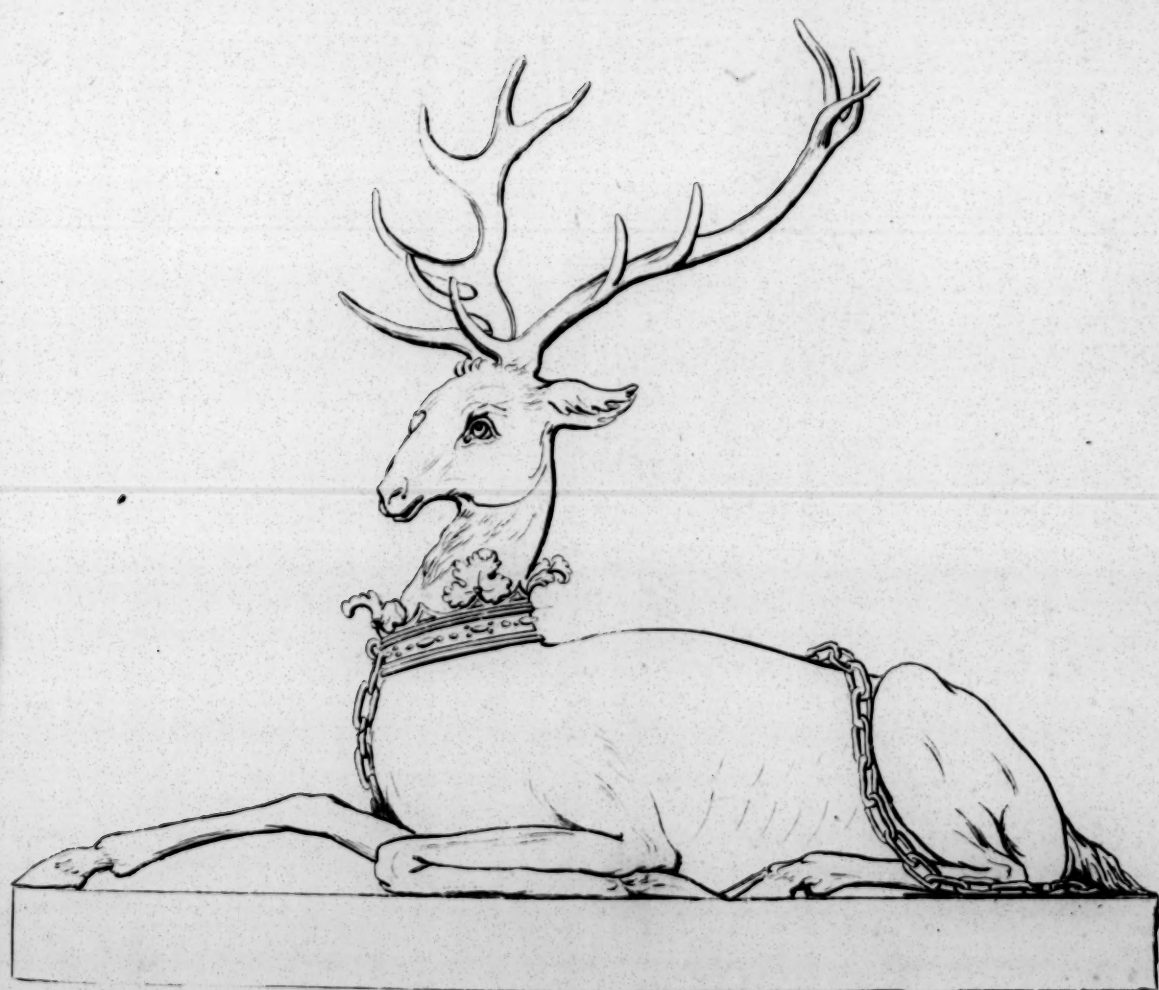

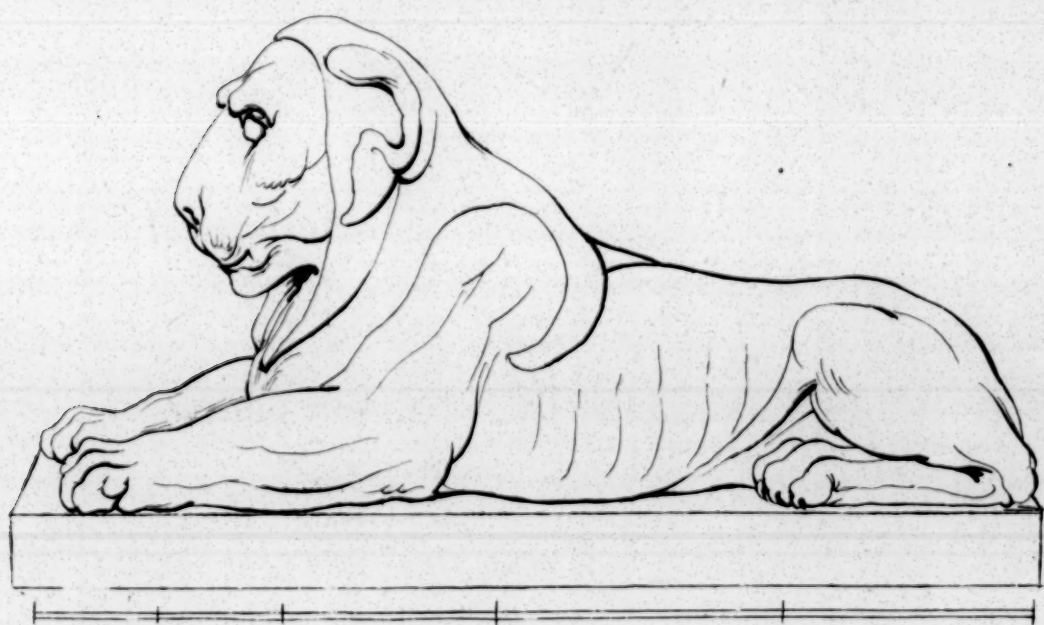

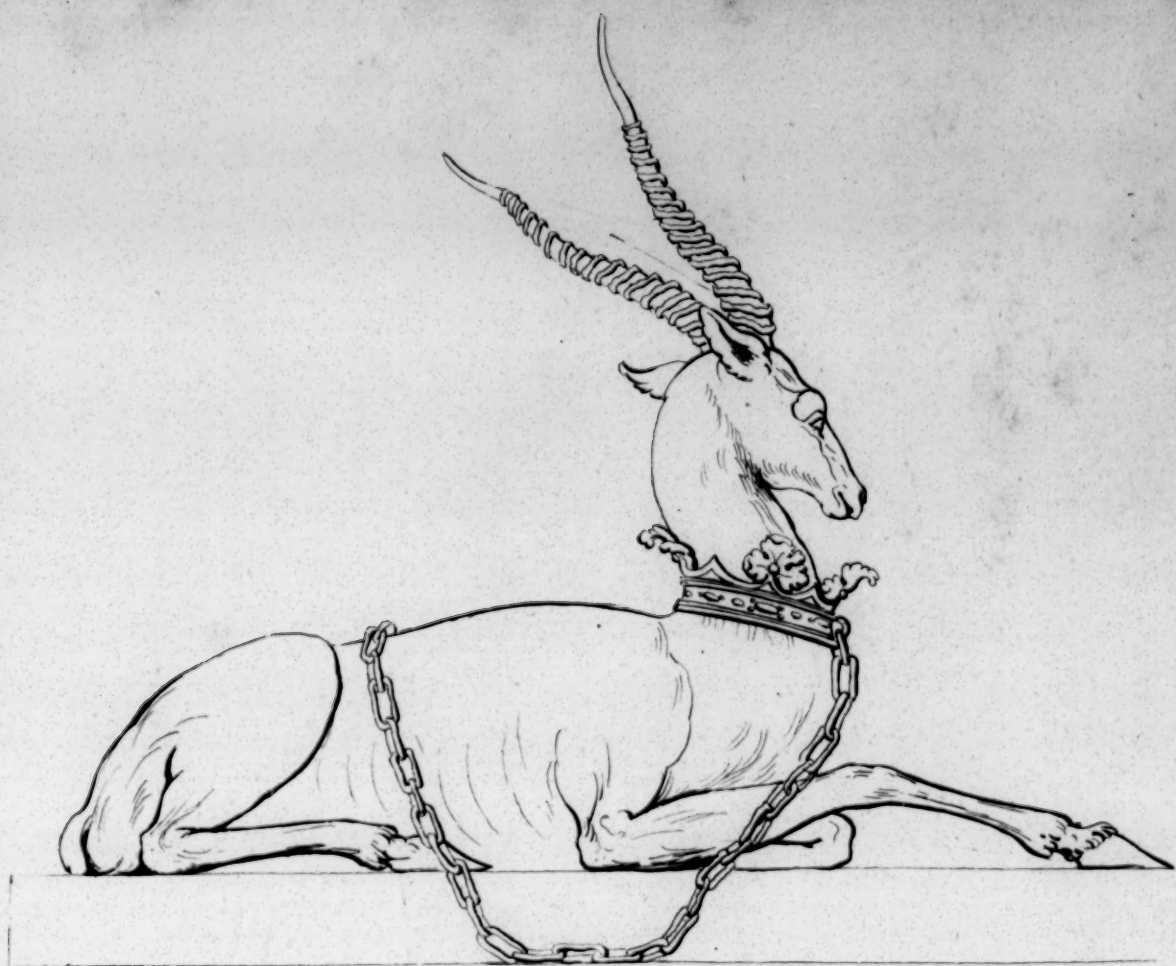

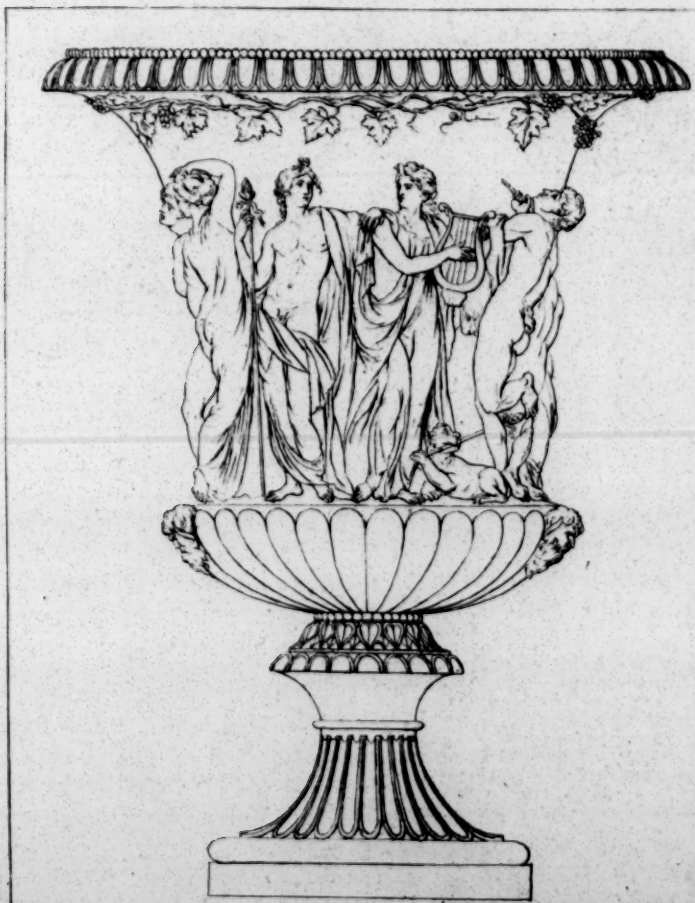

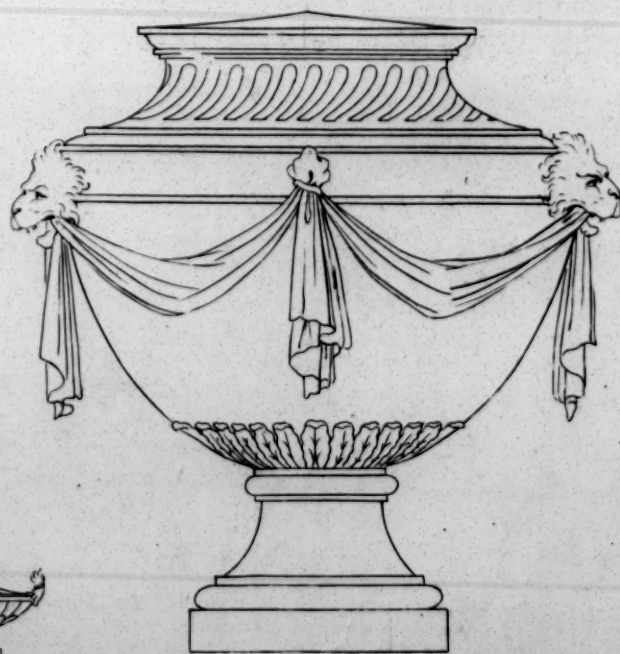

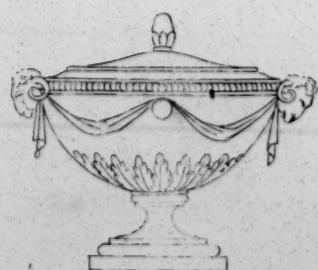

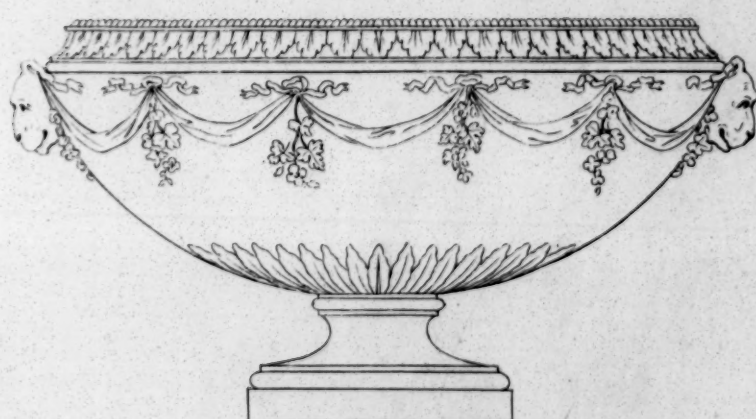

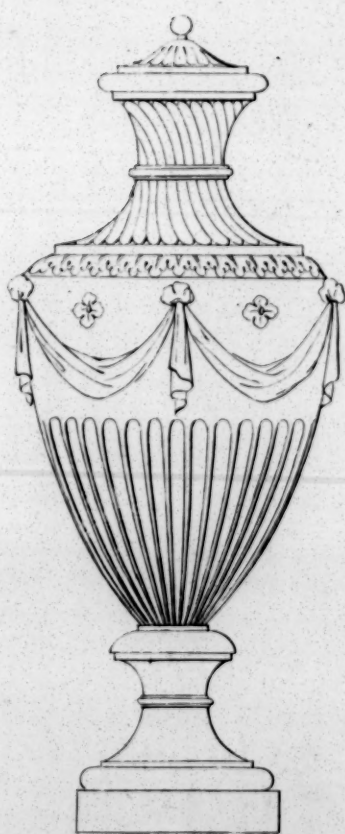

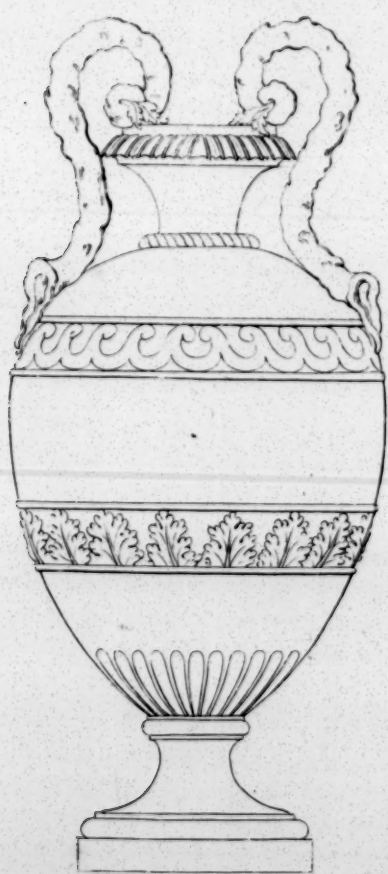

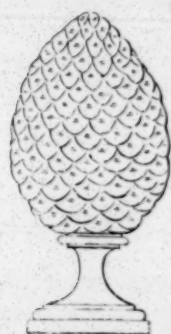

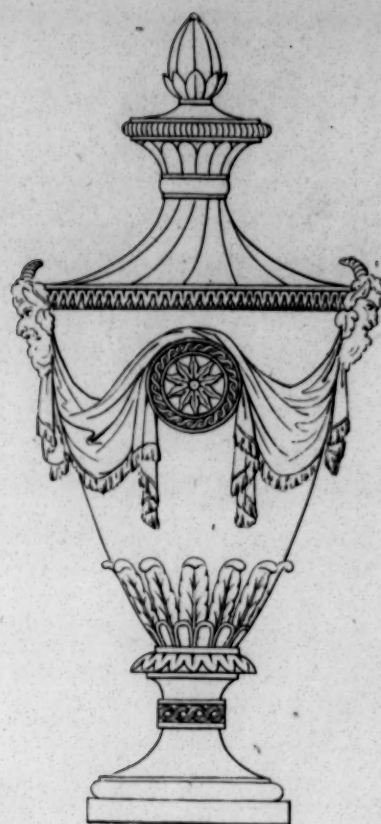

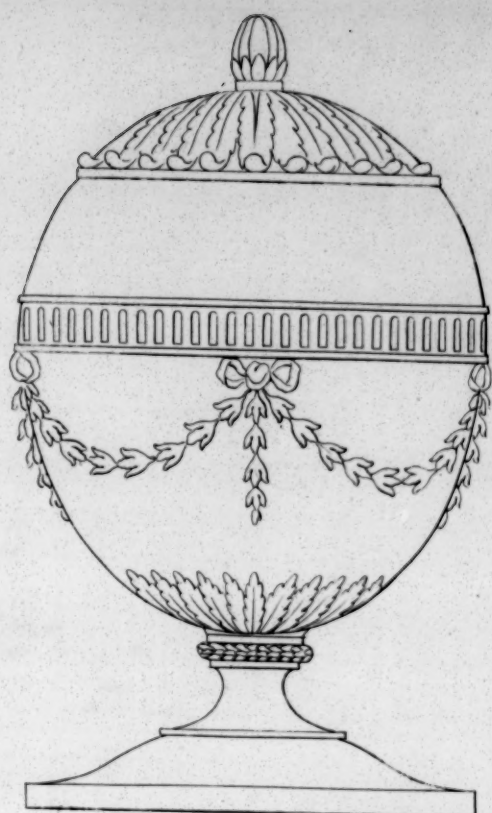

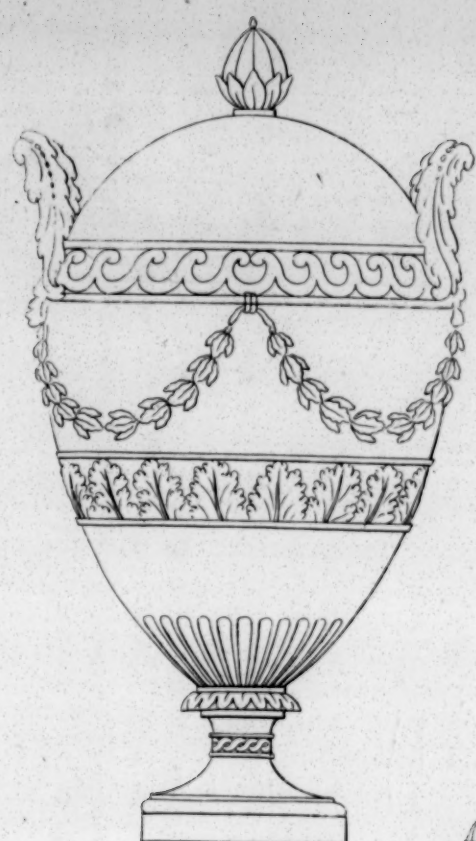

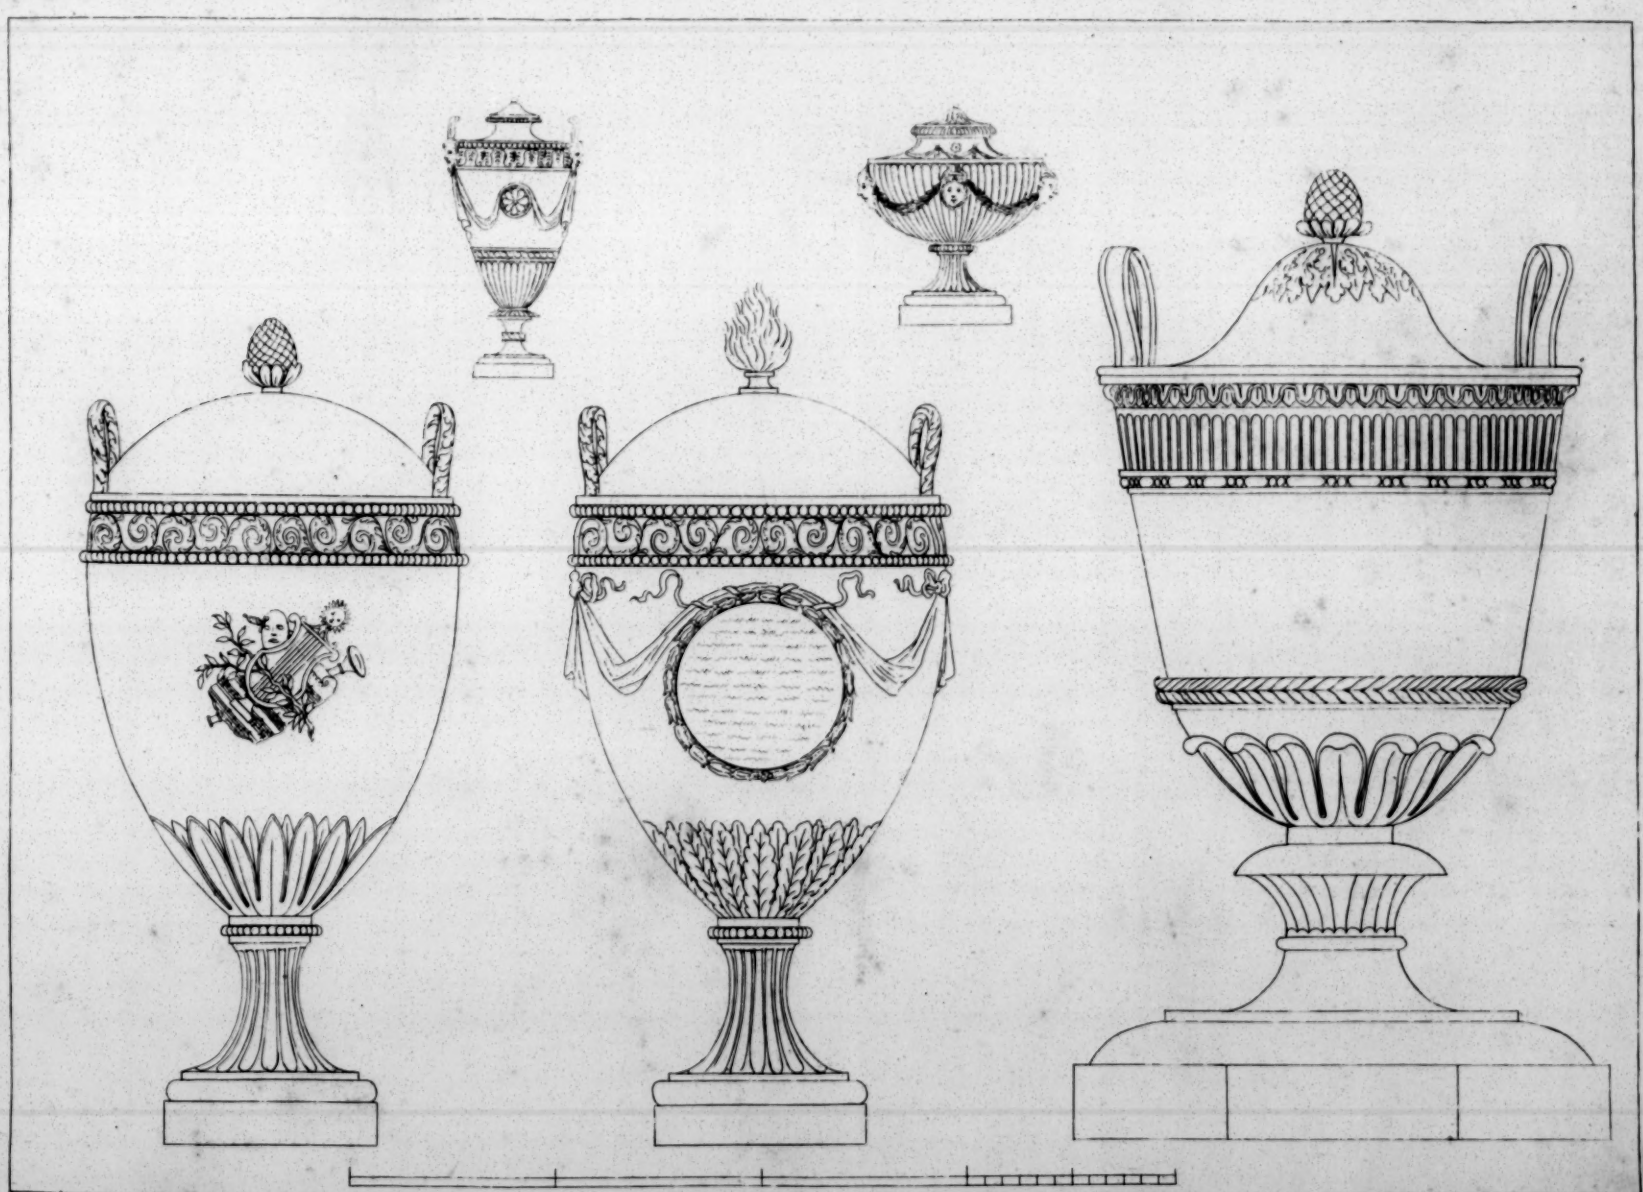

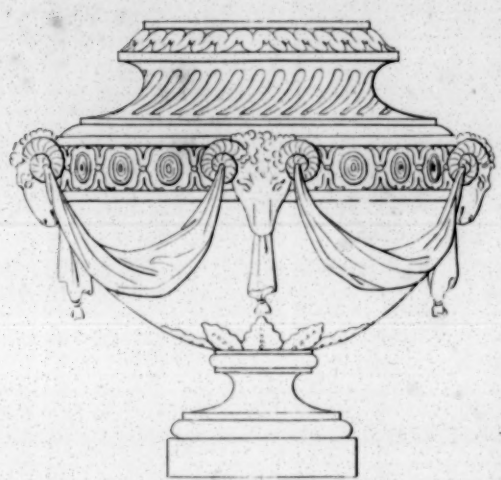

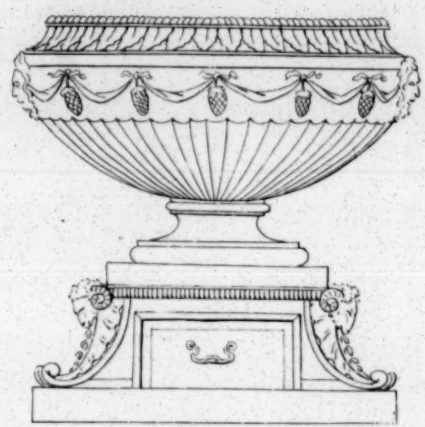

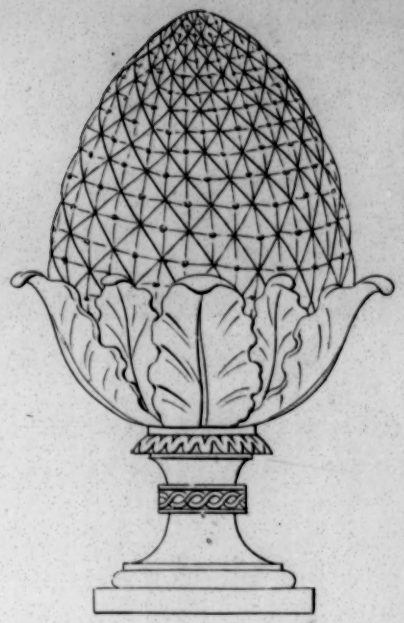

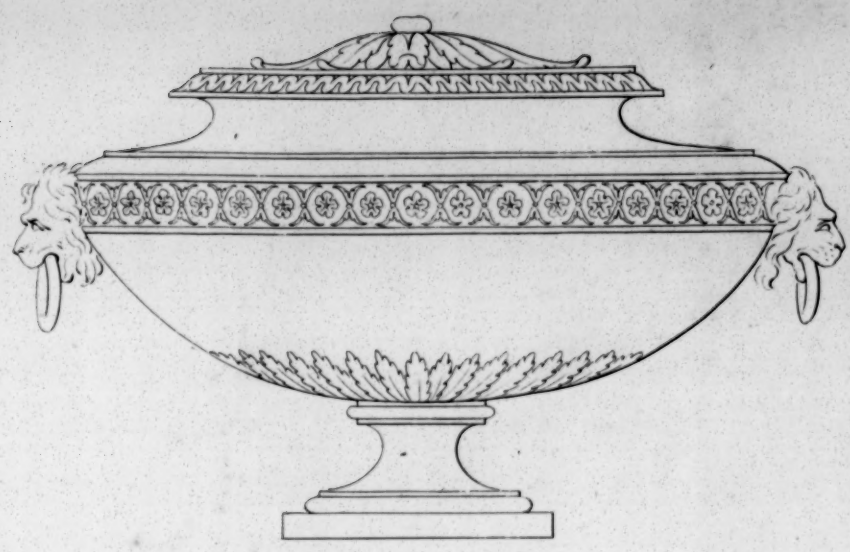

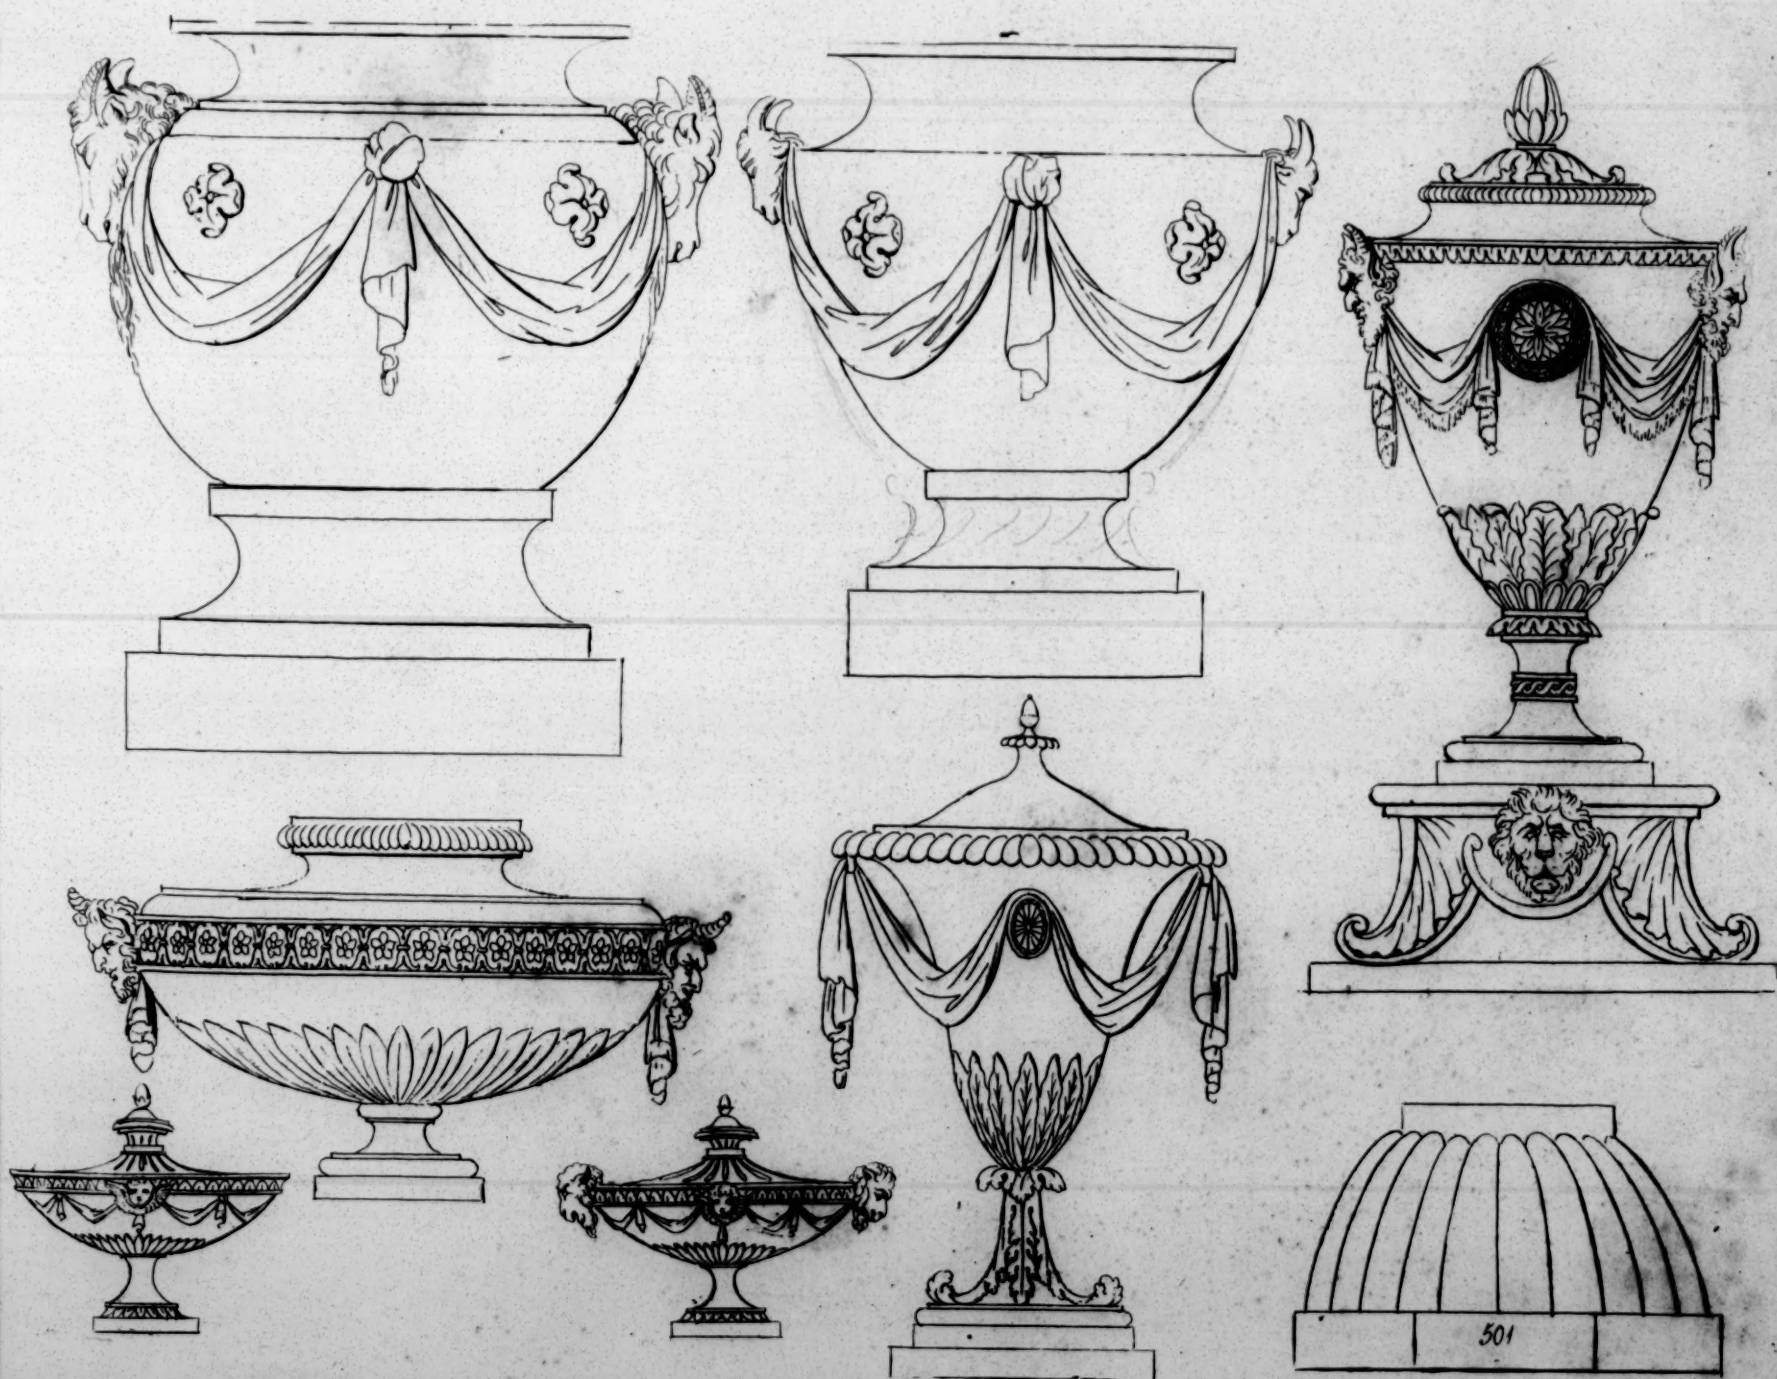

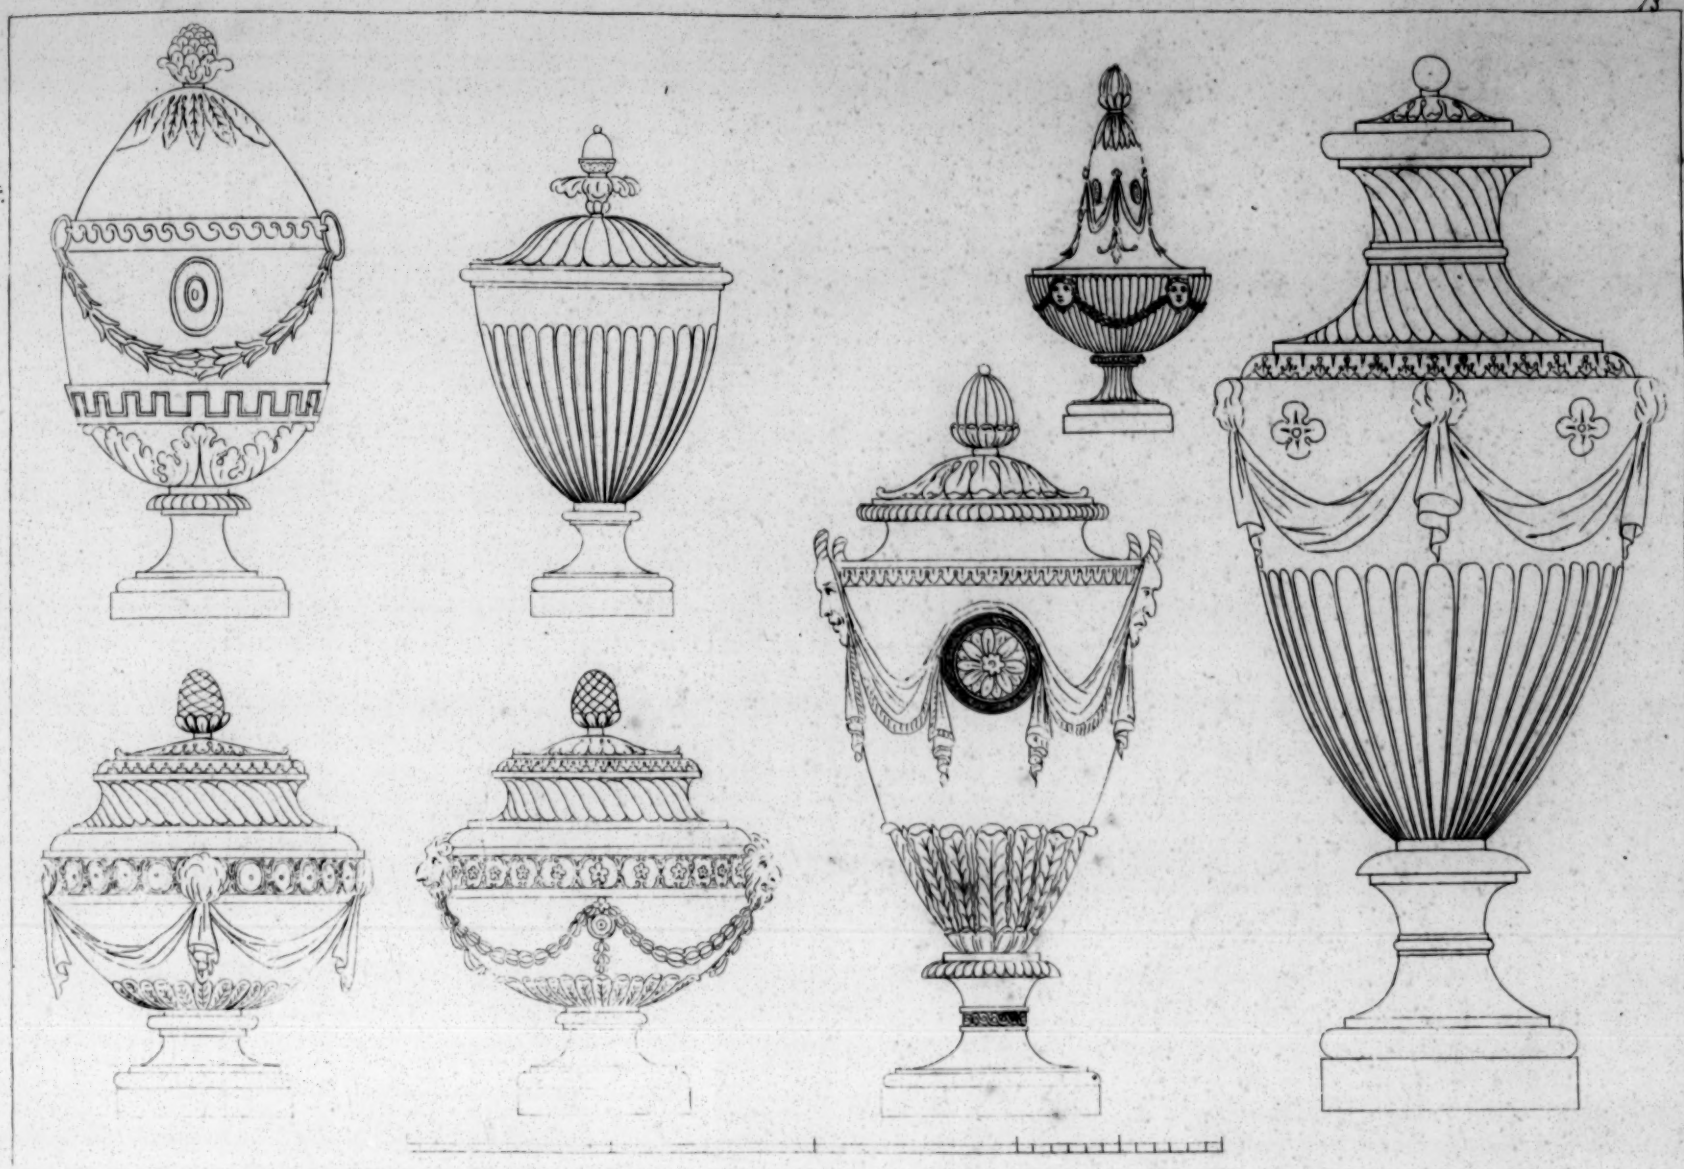

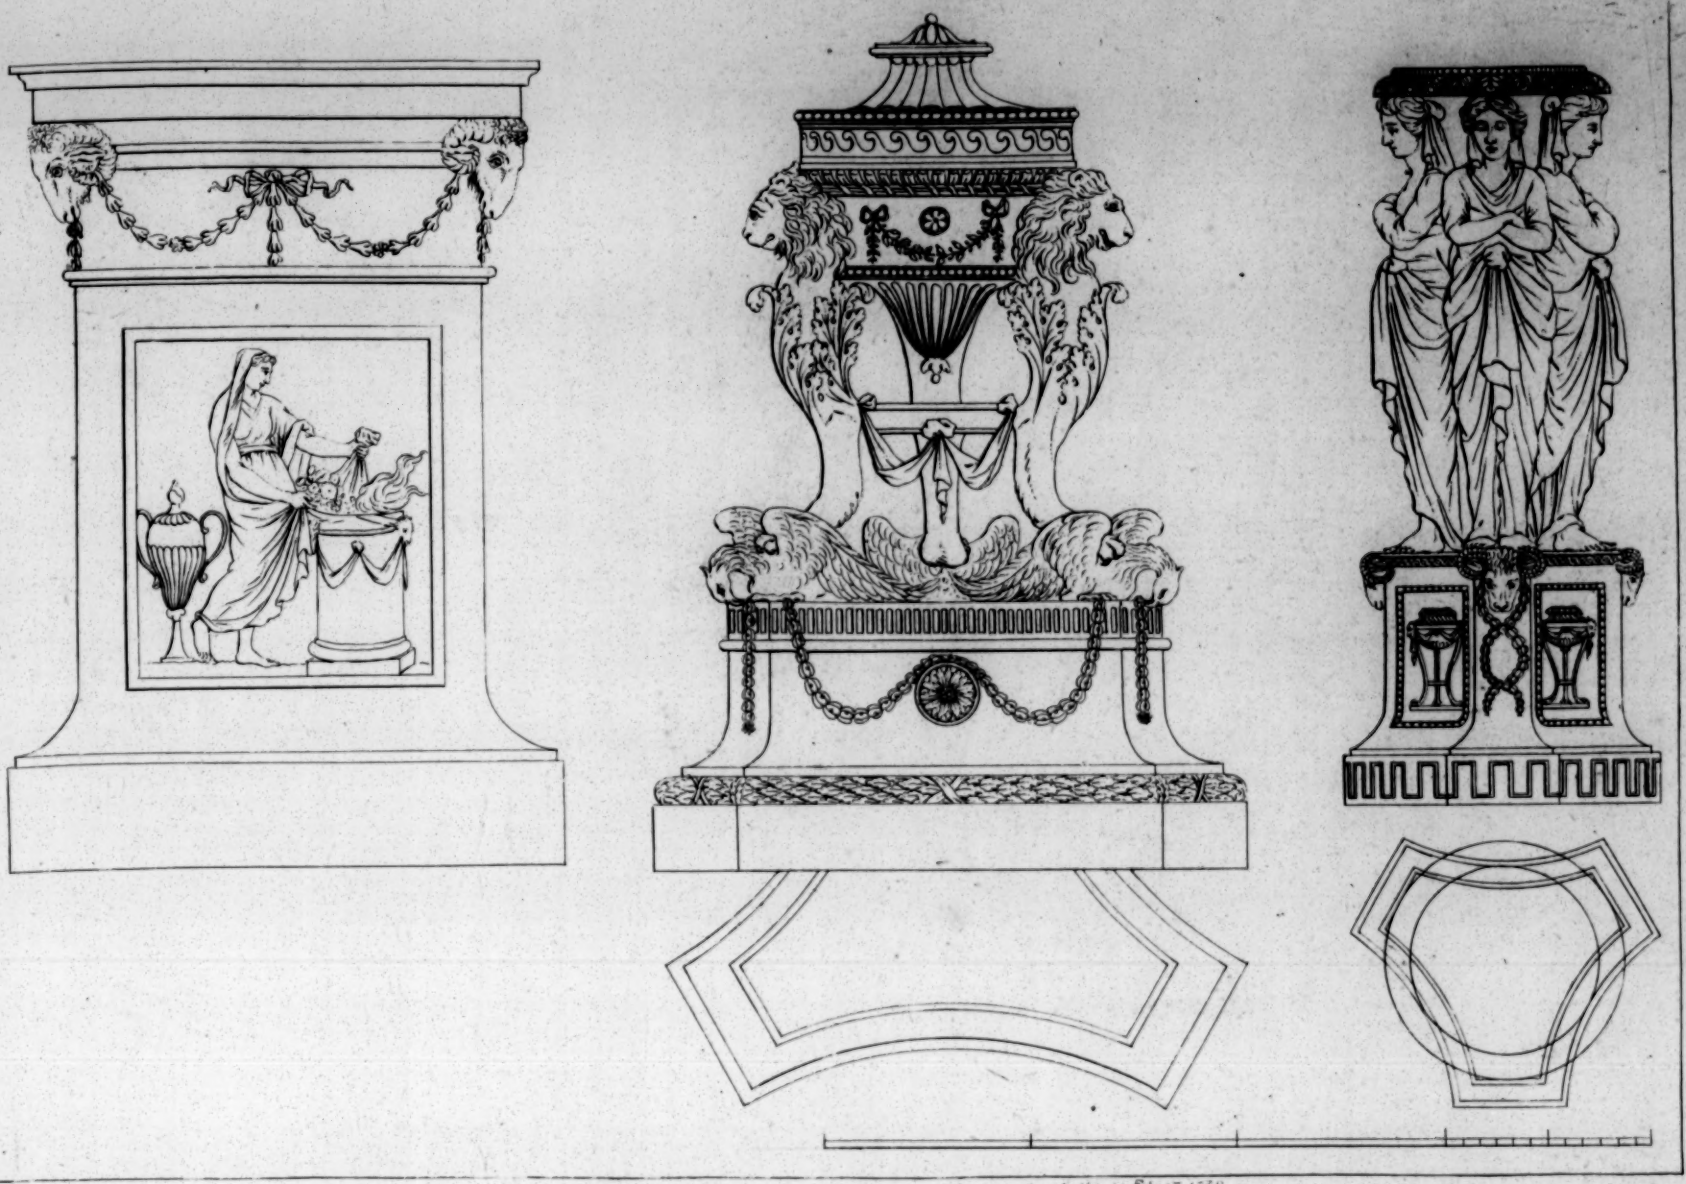

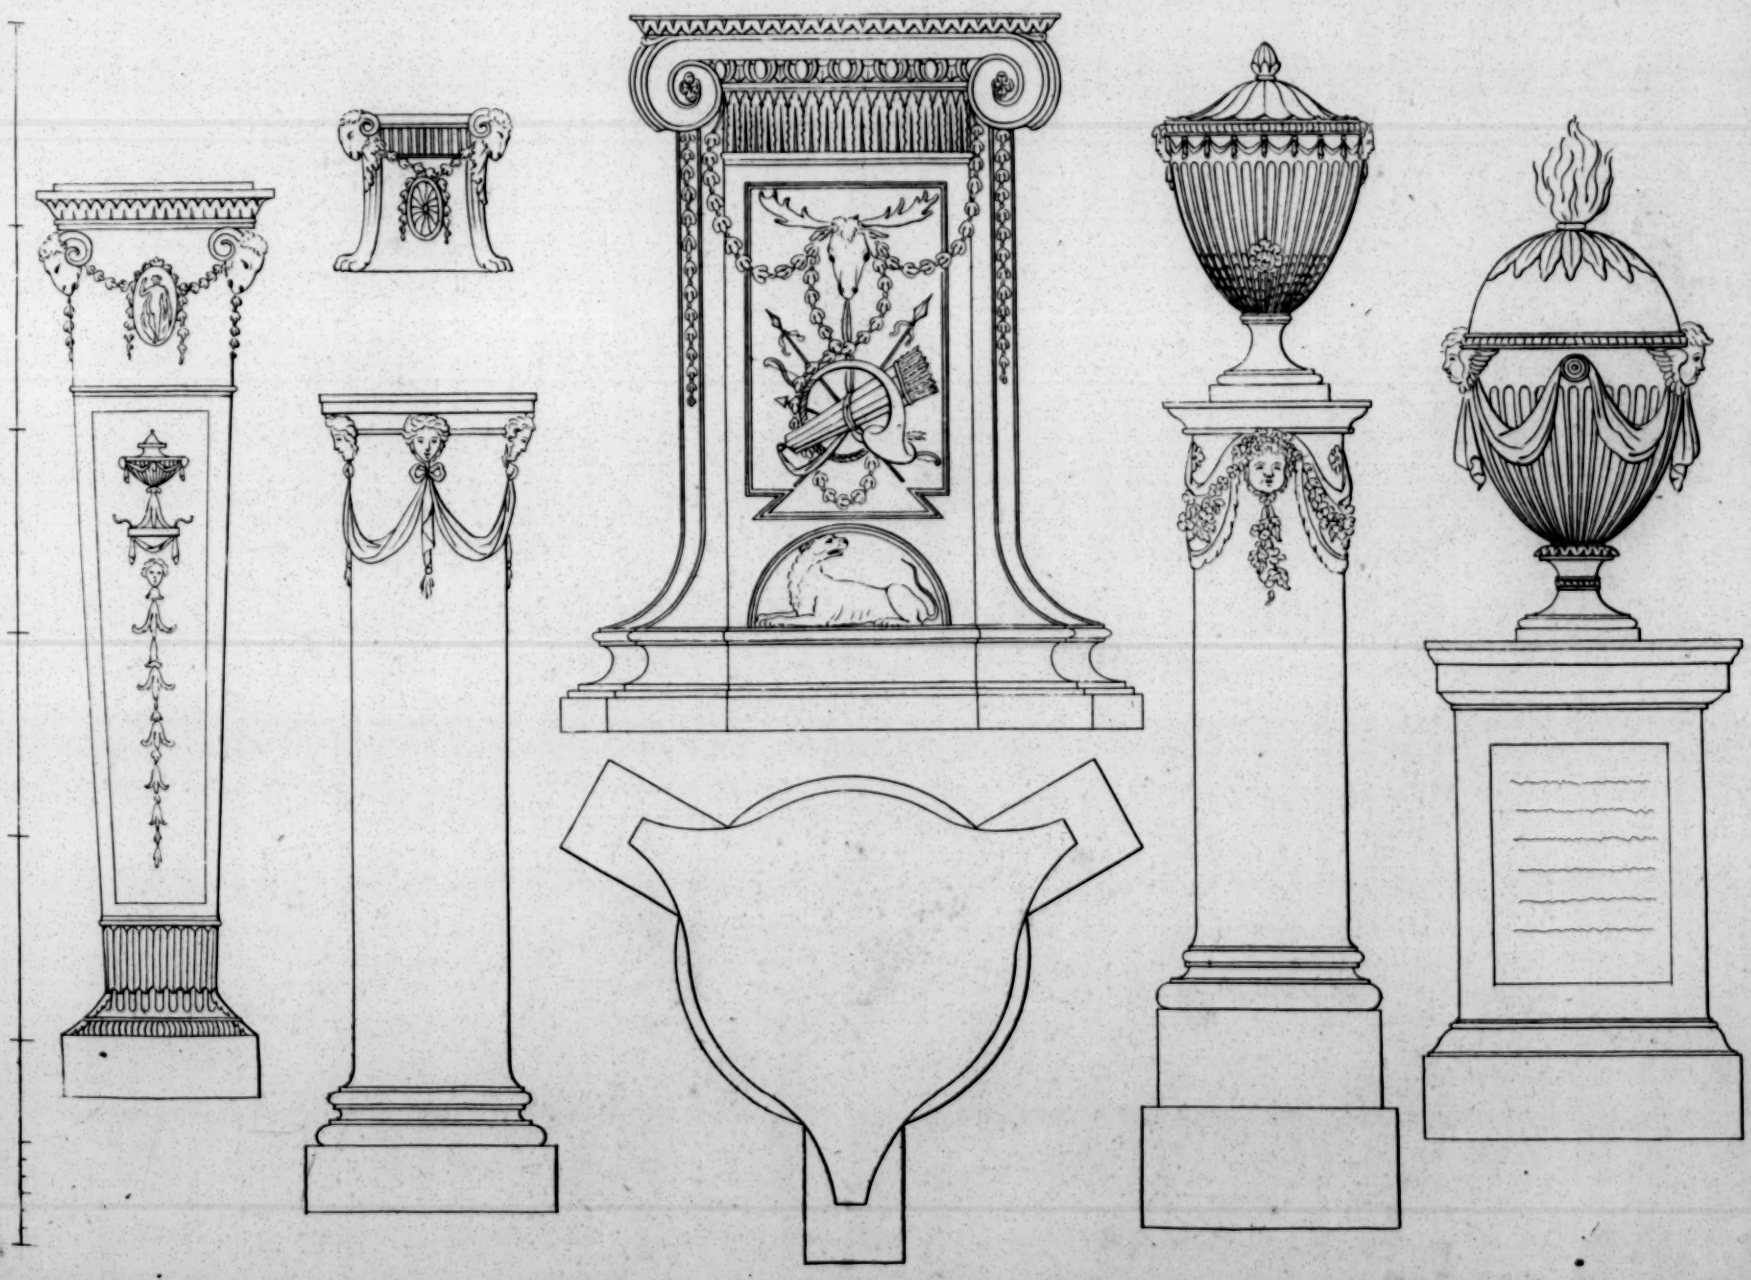

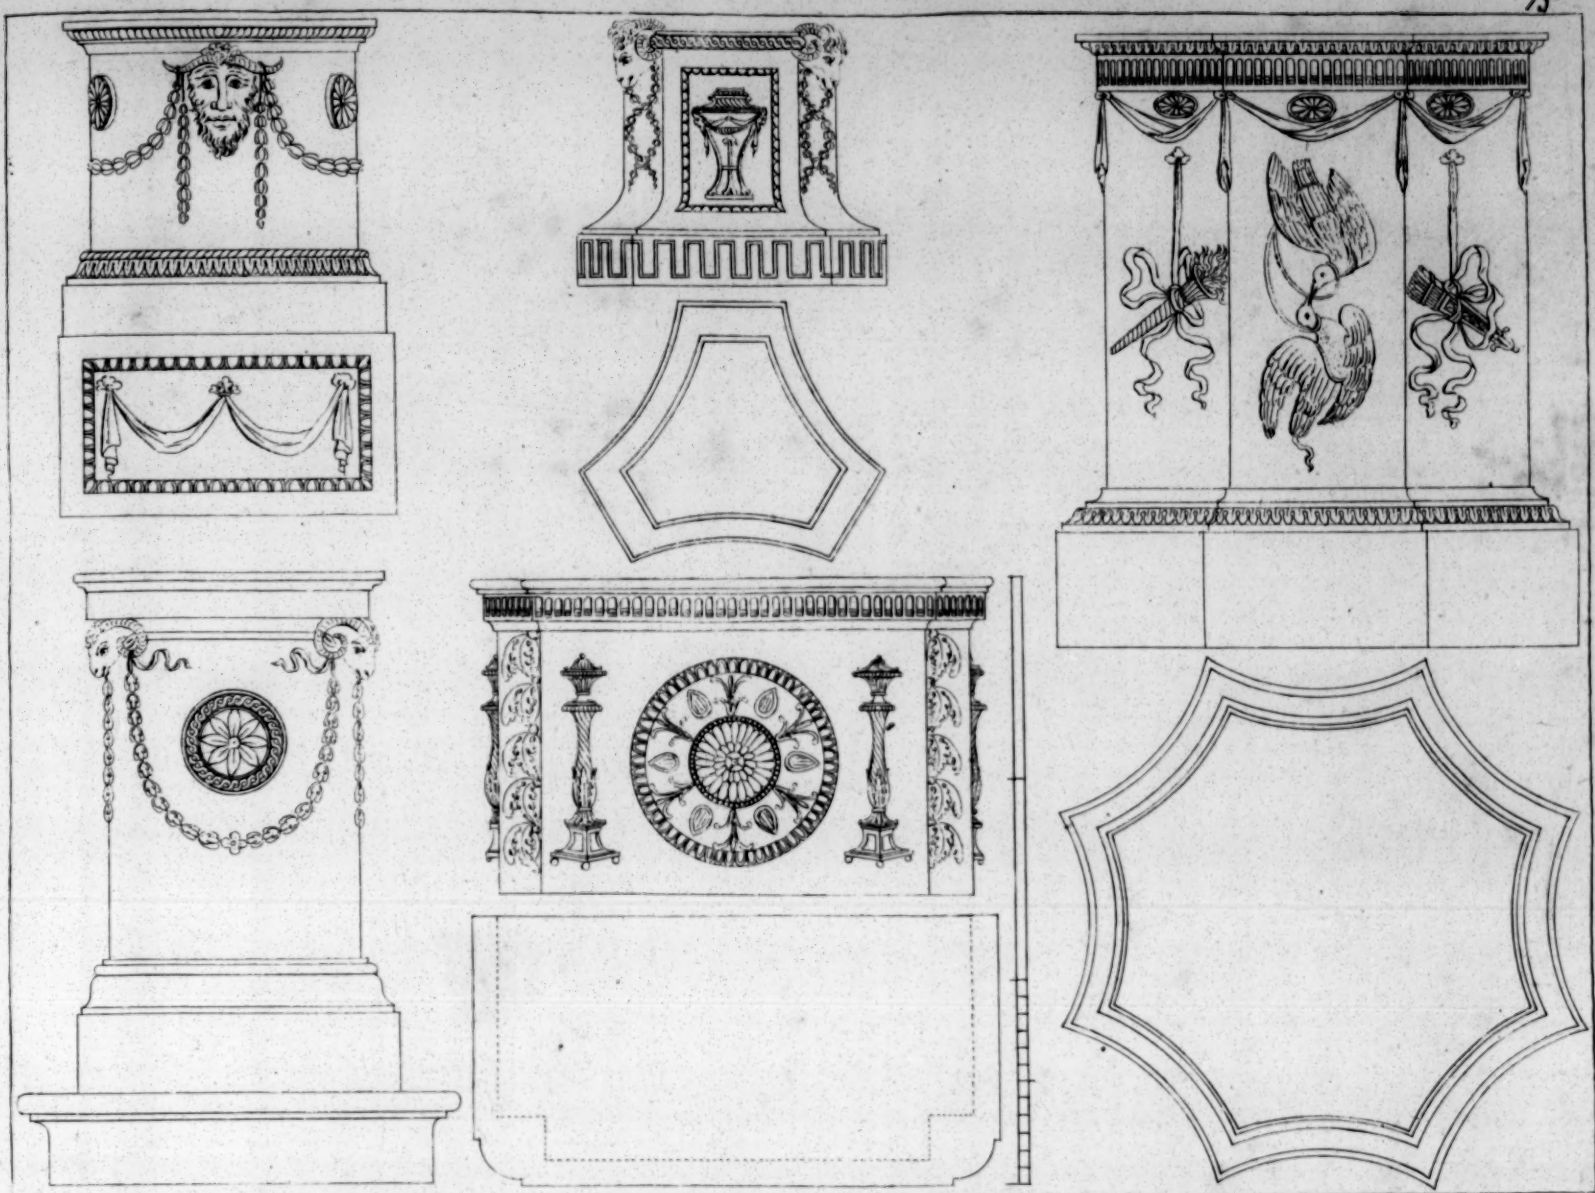

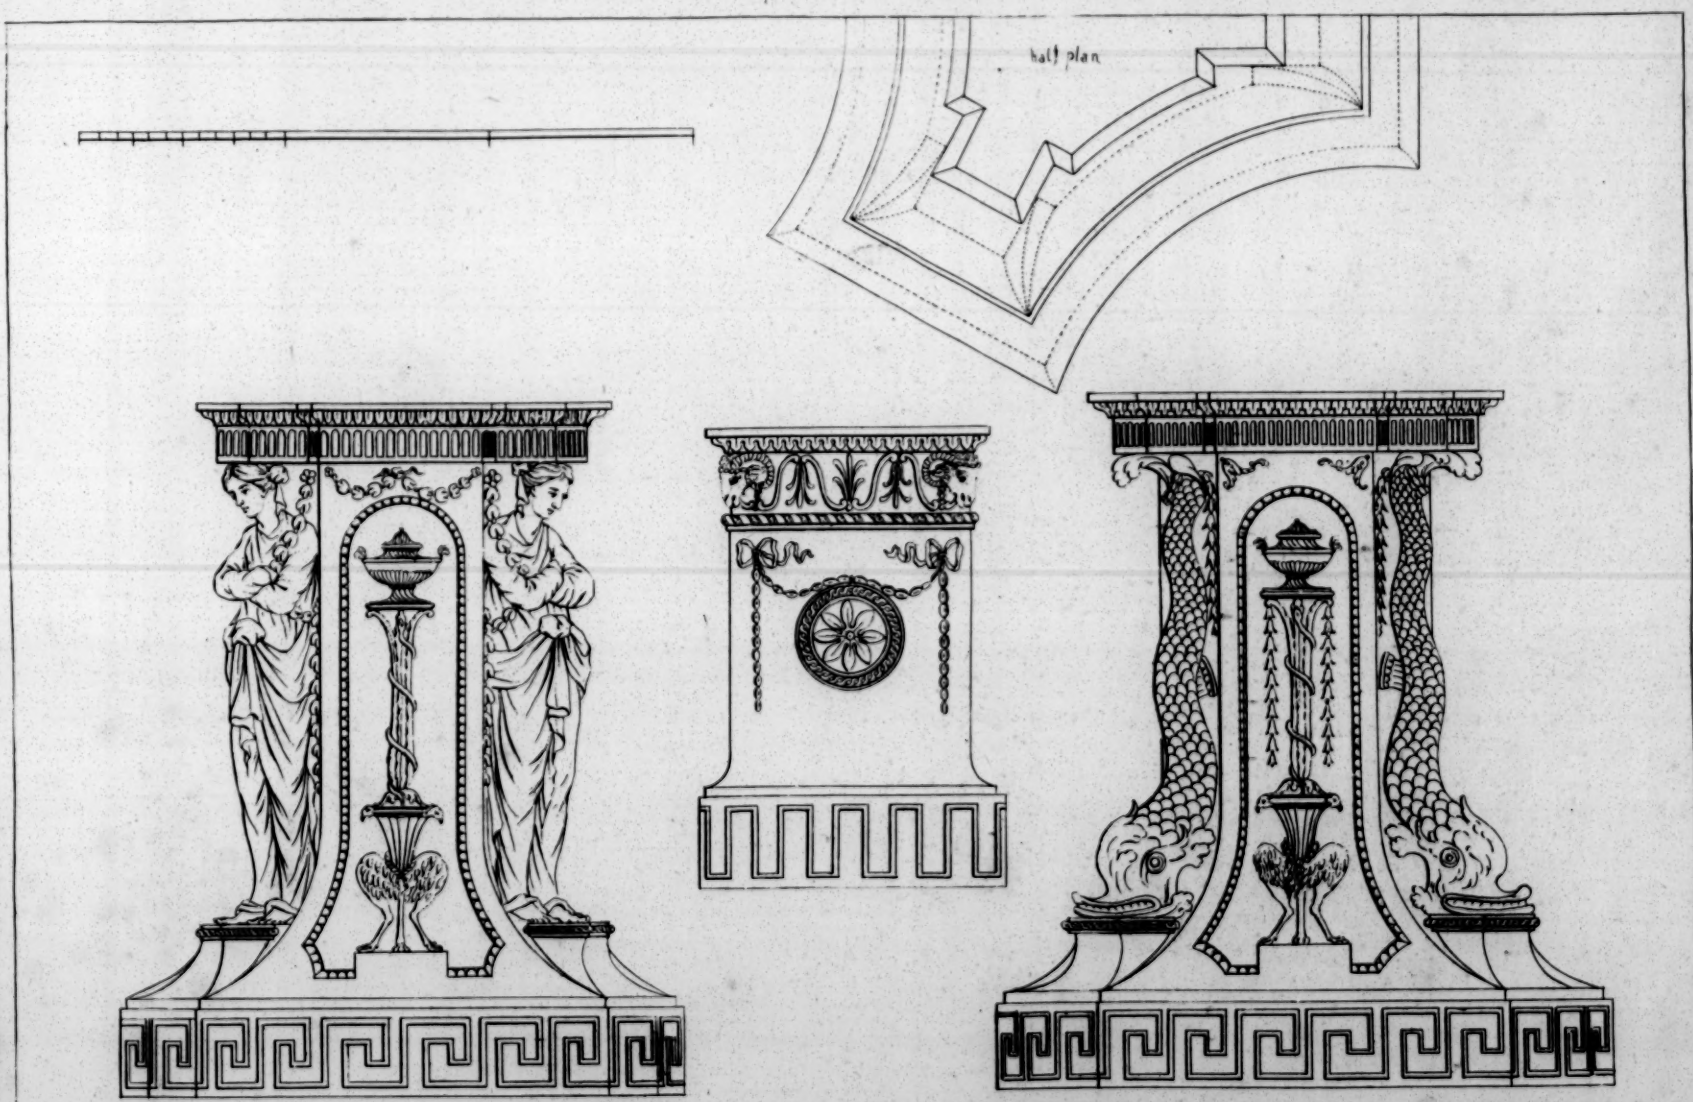

Publischte durch den Directen Pab. 1770

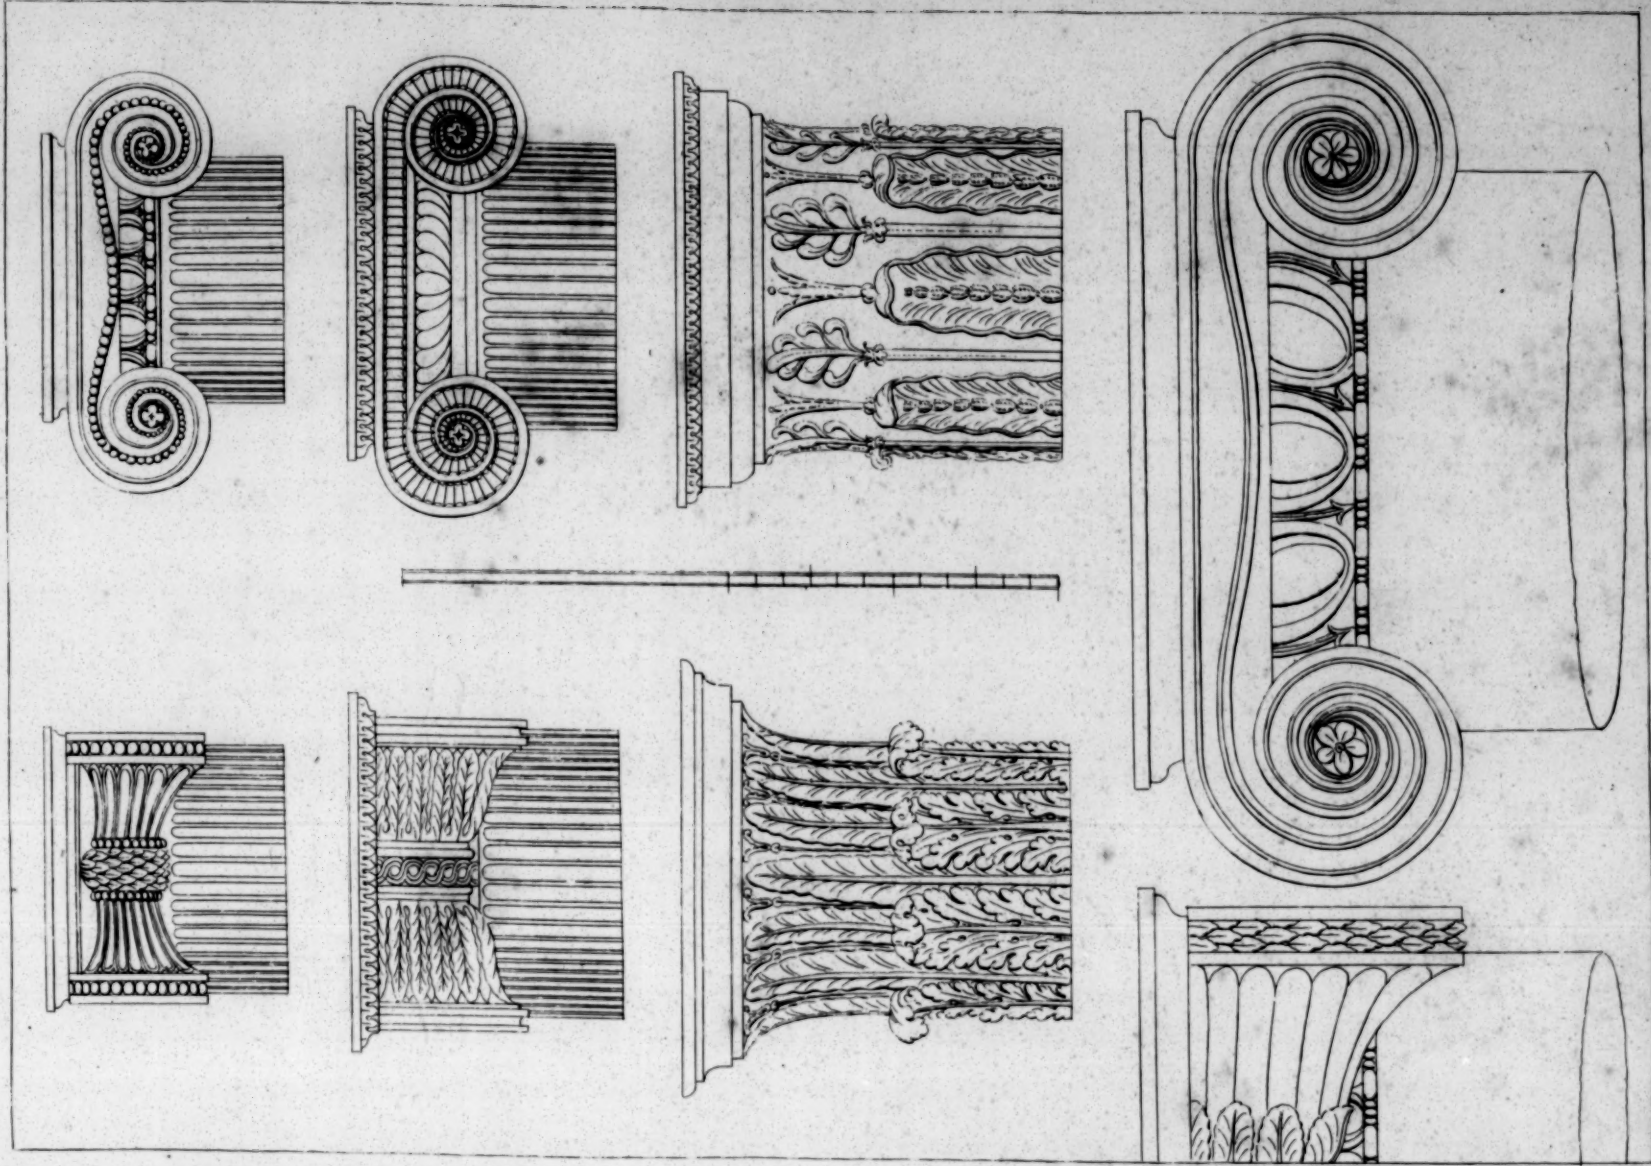

Published at the Art directors London 1778

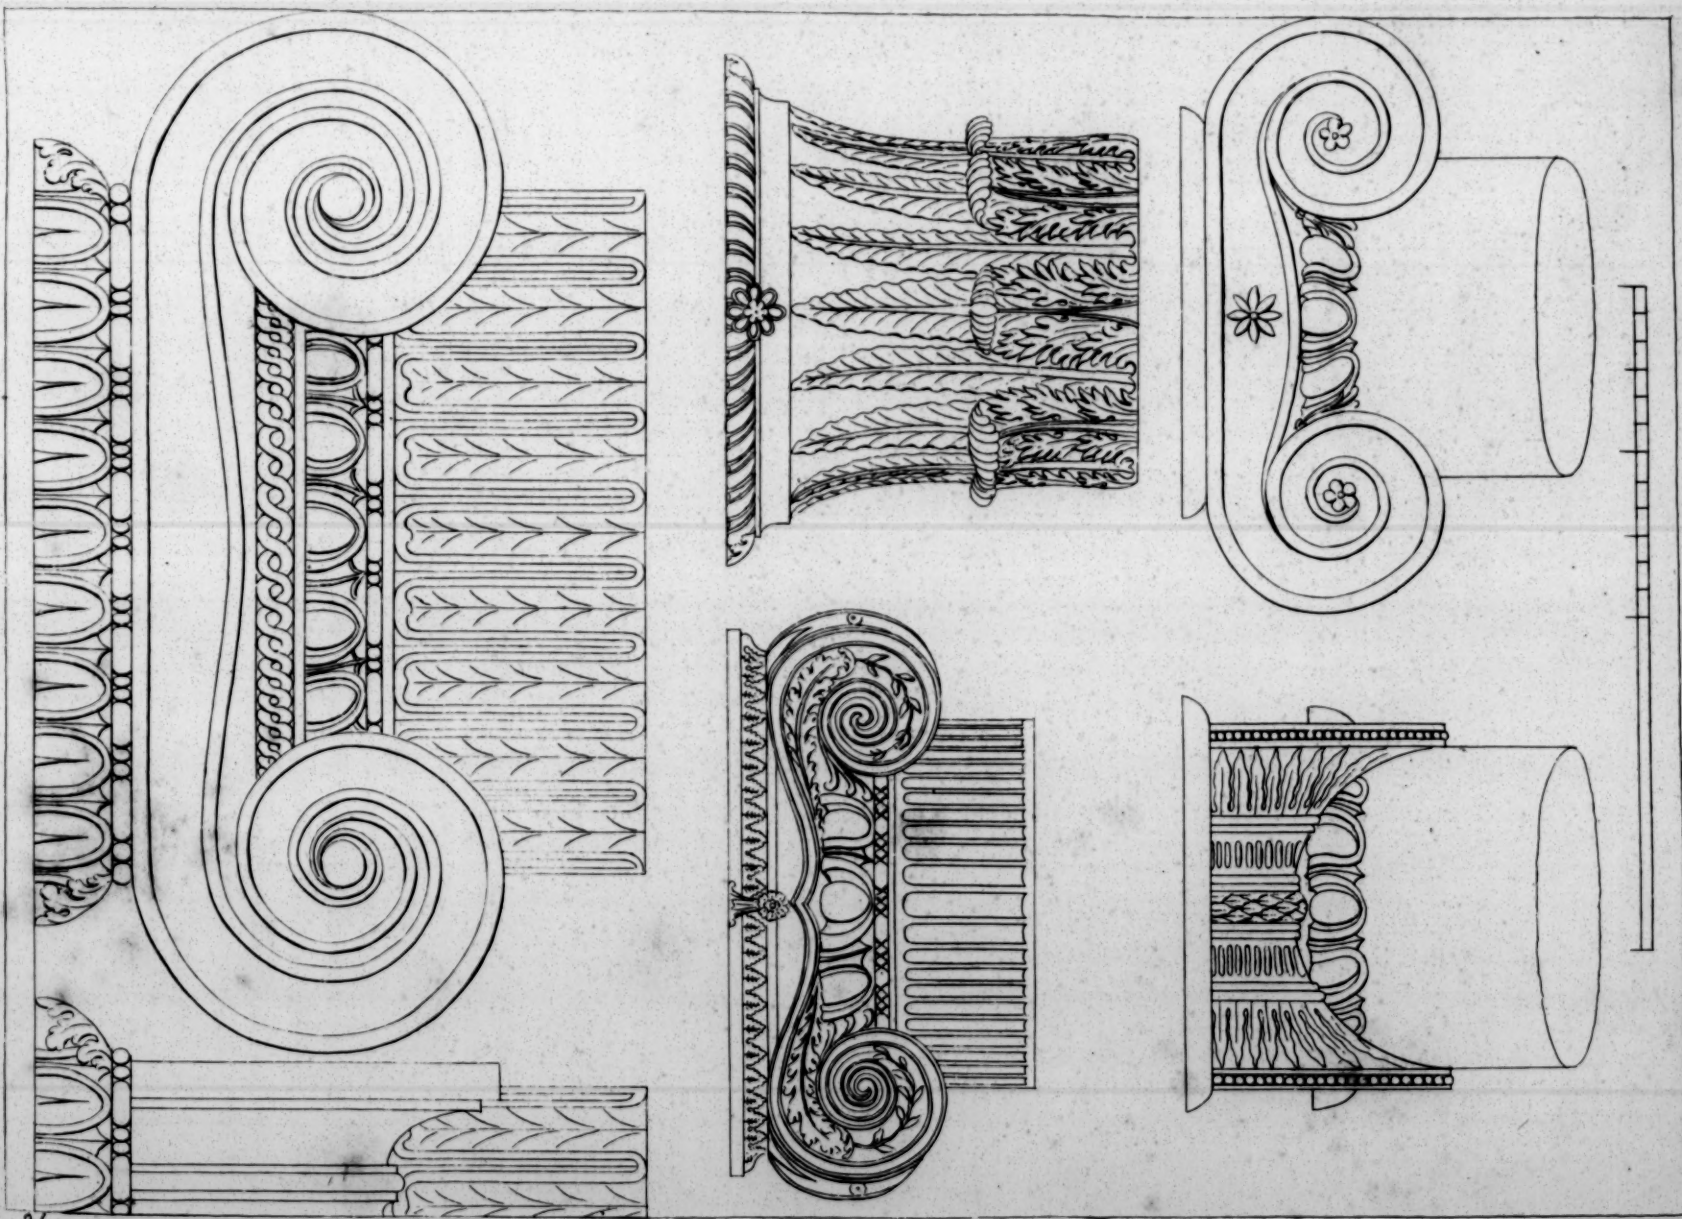

Published at the art directors London 1778

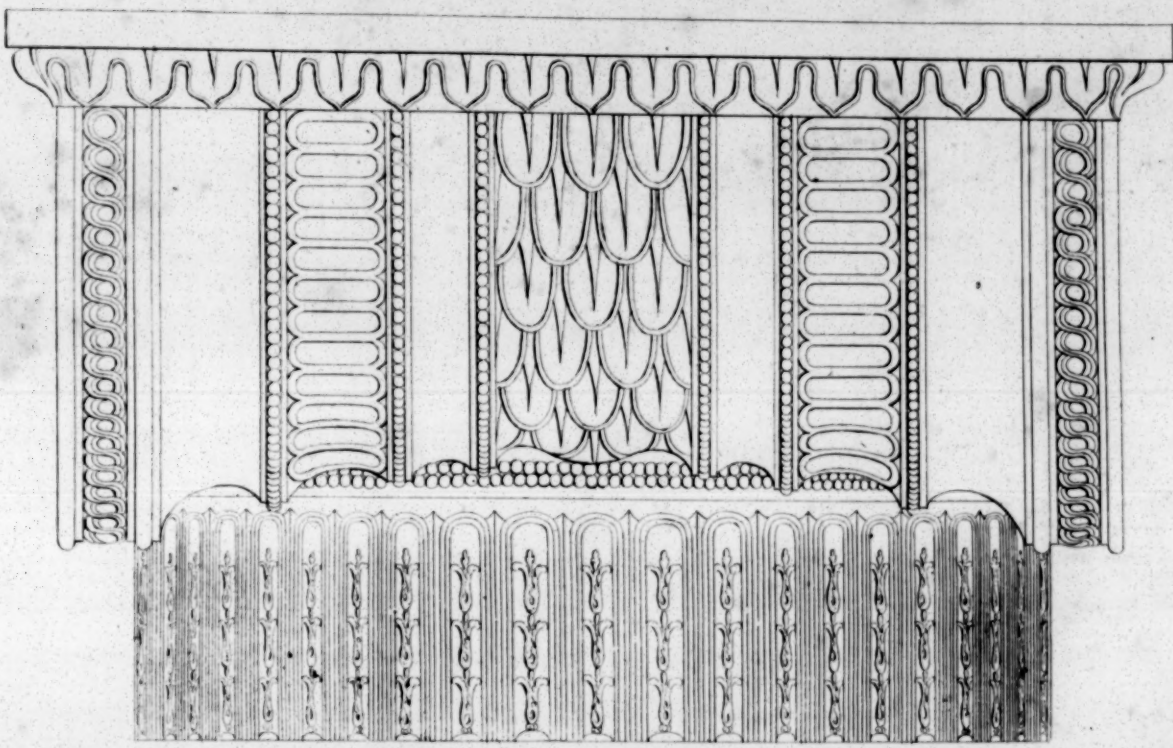

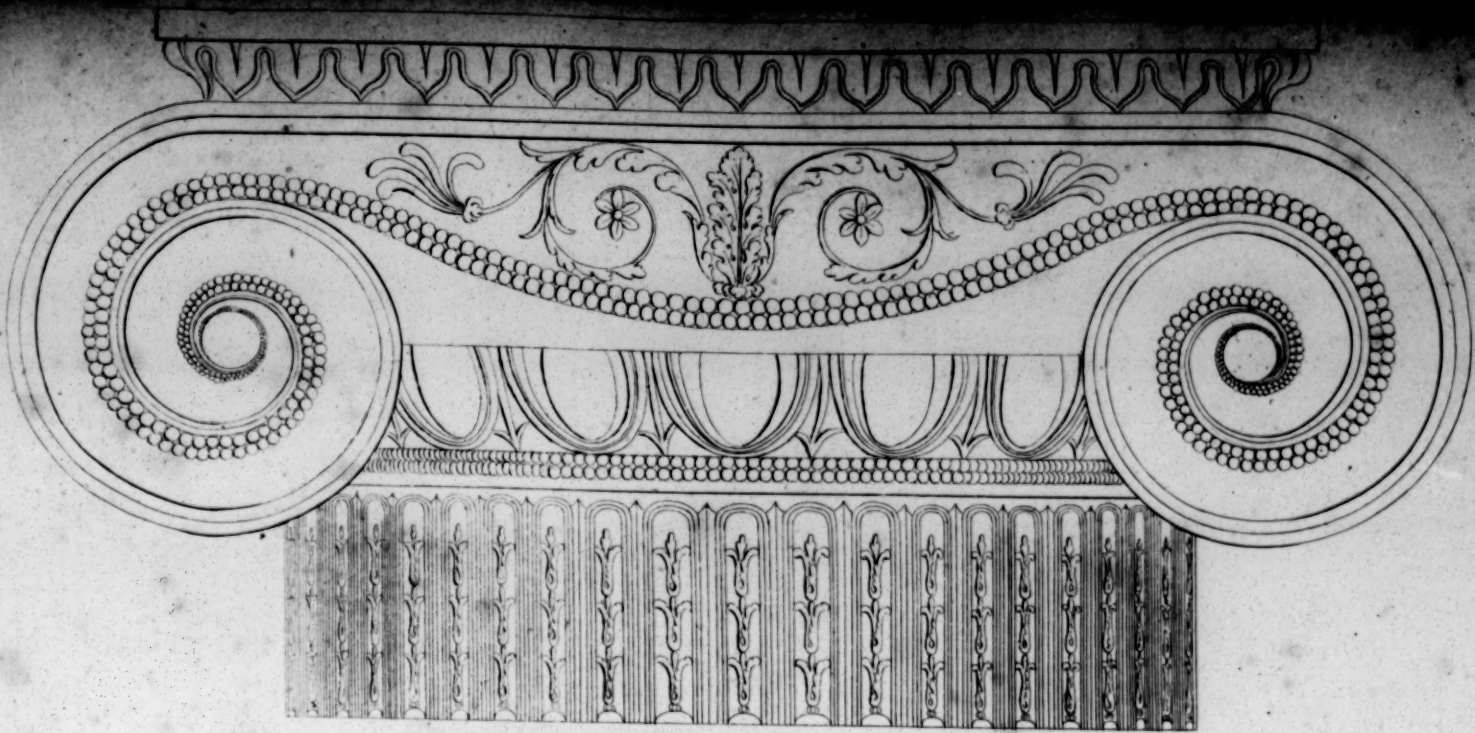

Published as the Act directs Dec. 18 1777

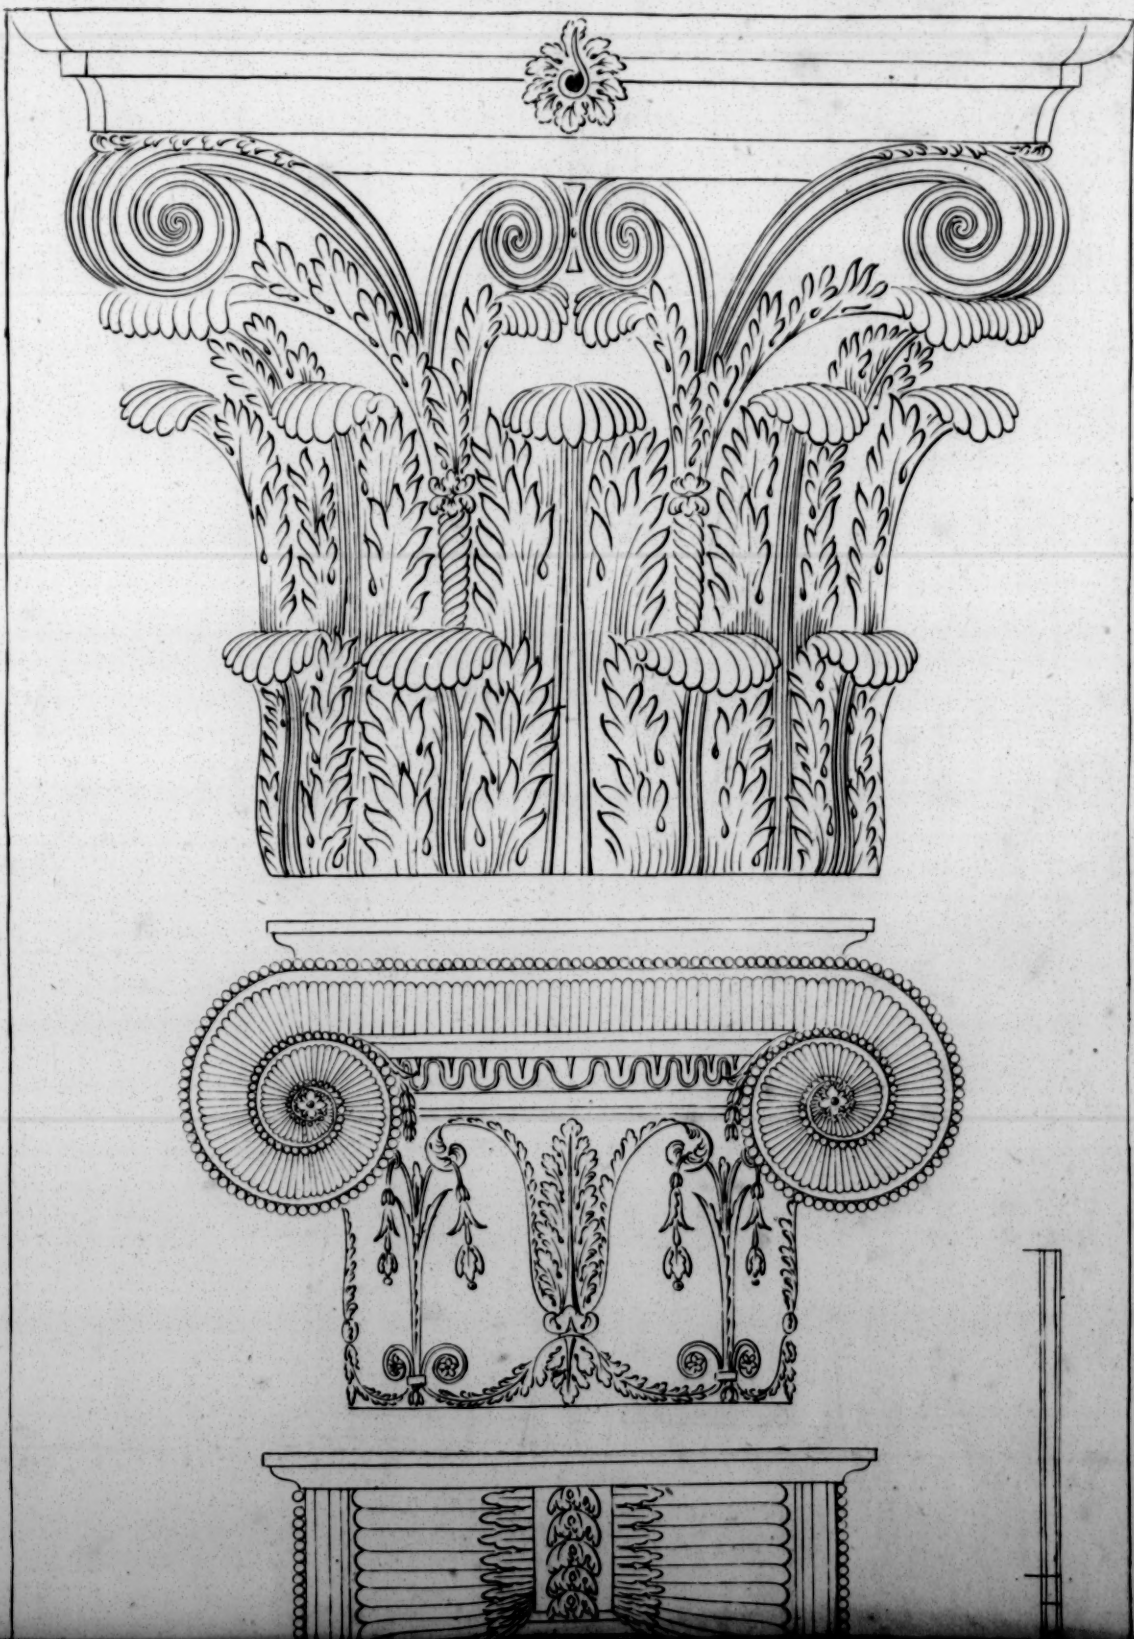

Published as the Act directs Dec. 18 1777

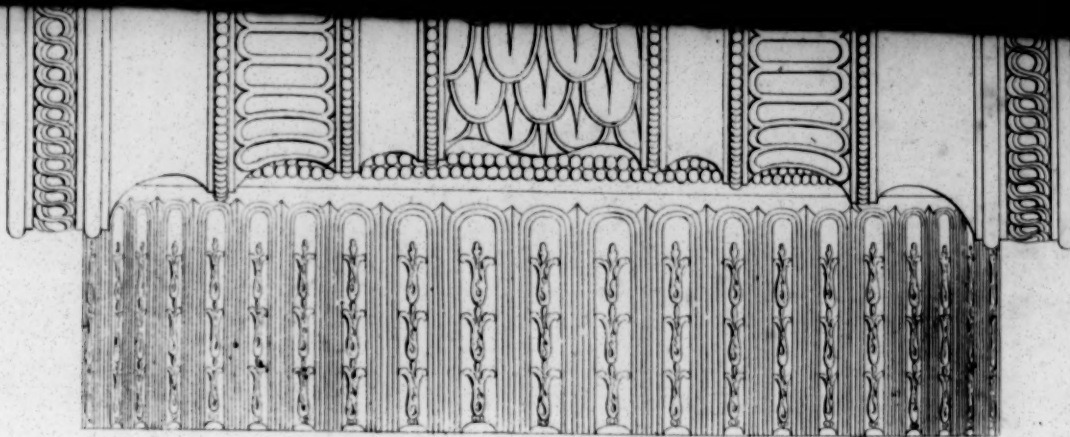

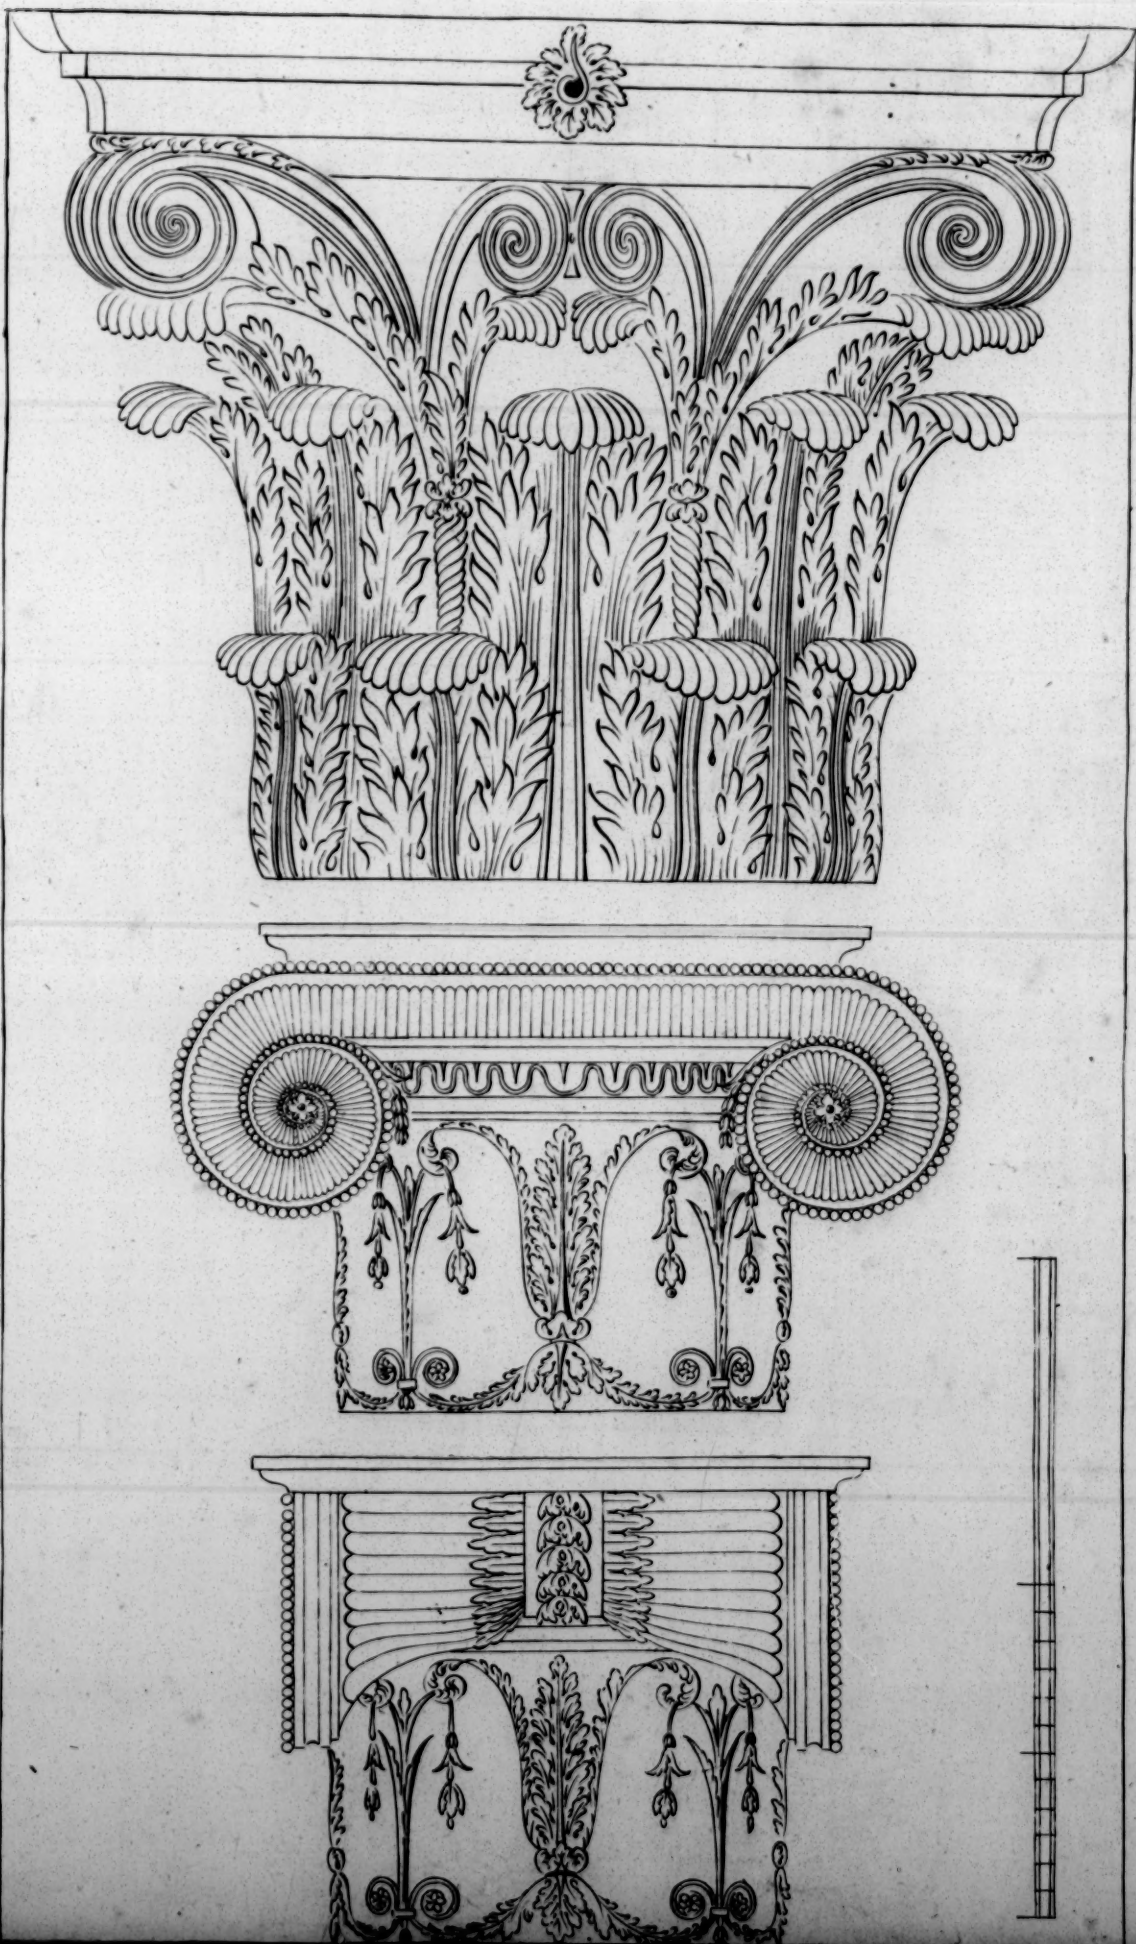

Published by the Architectural Office 1775

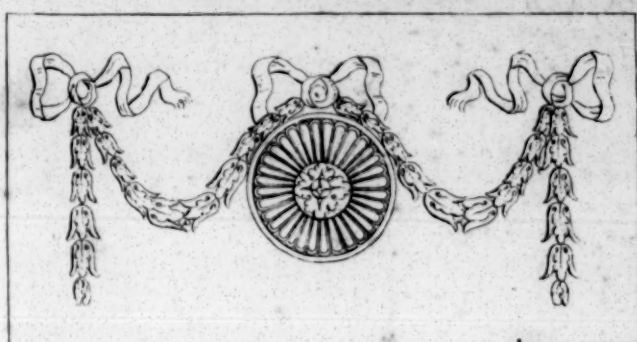

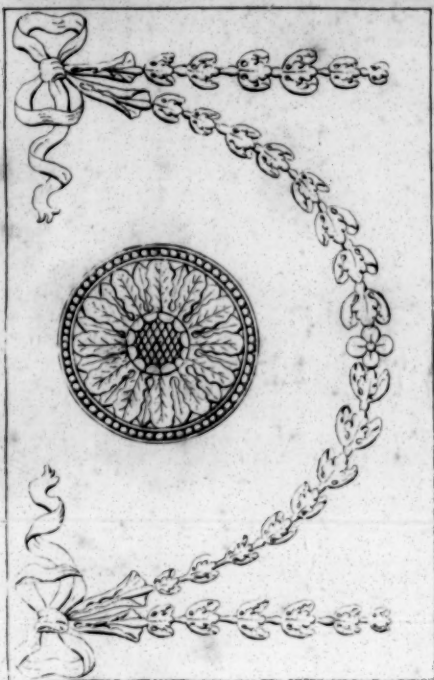

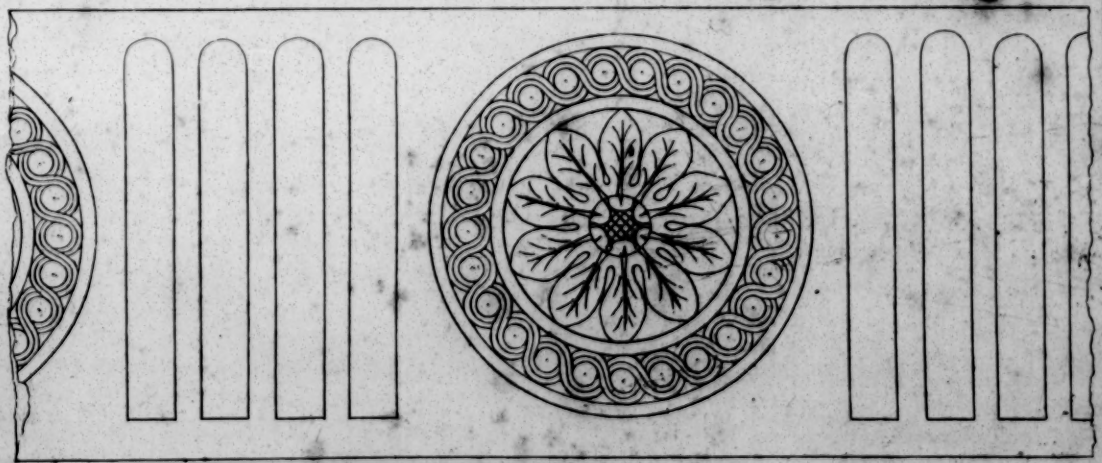

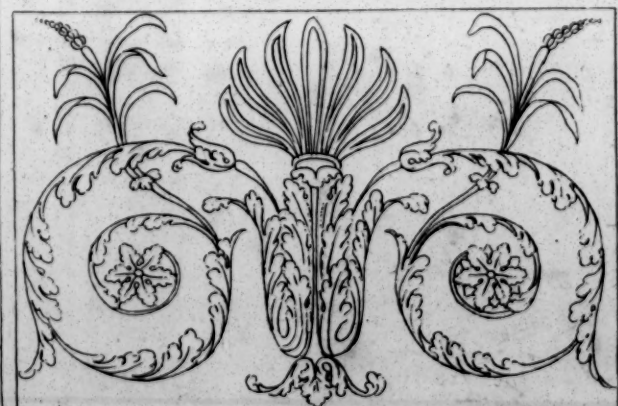

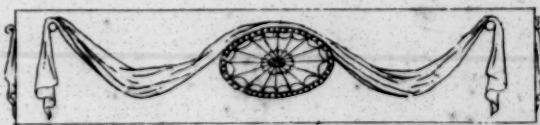

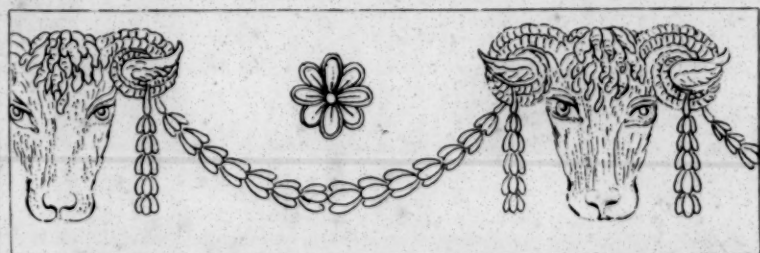

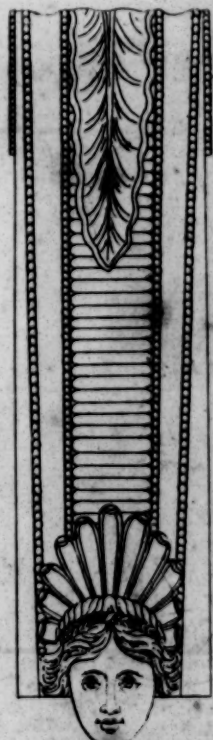

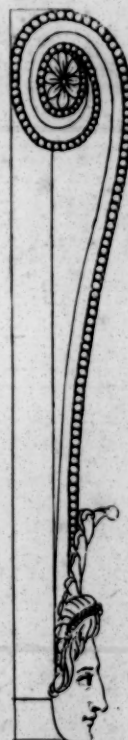

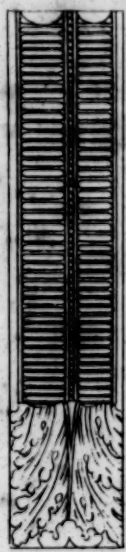

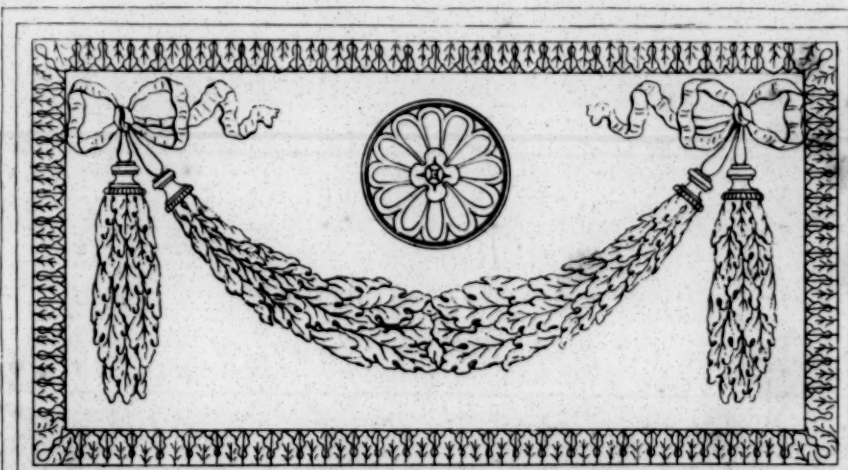

Published by the Architects Jan 18 1778

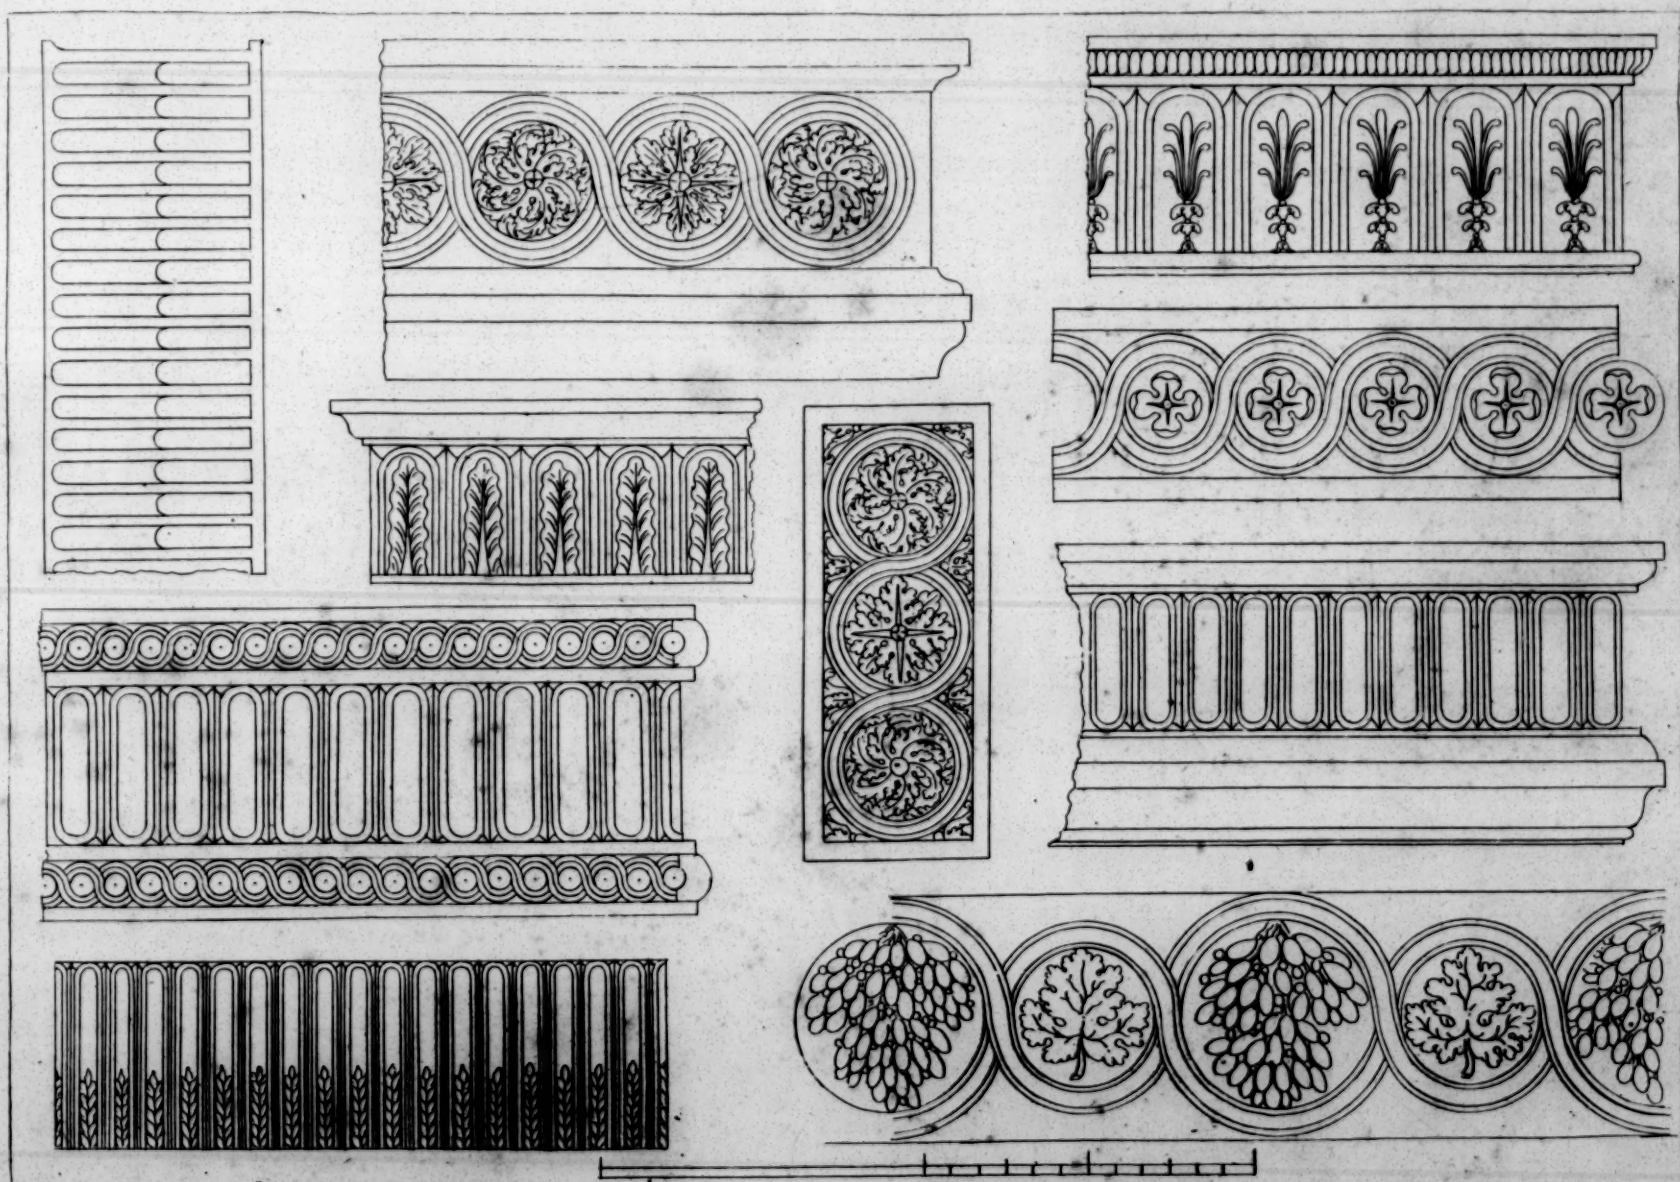

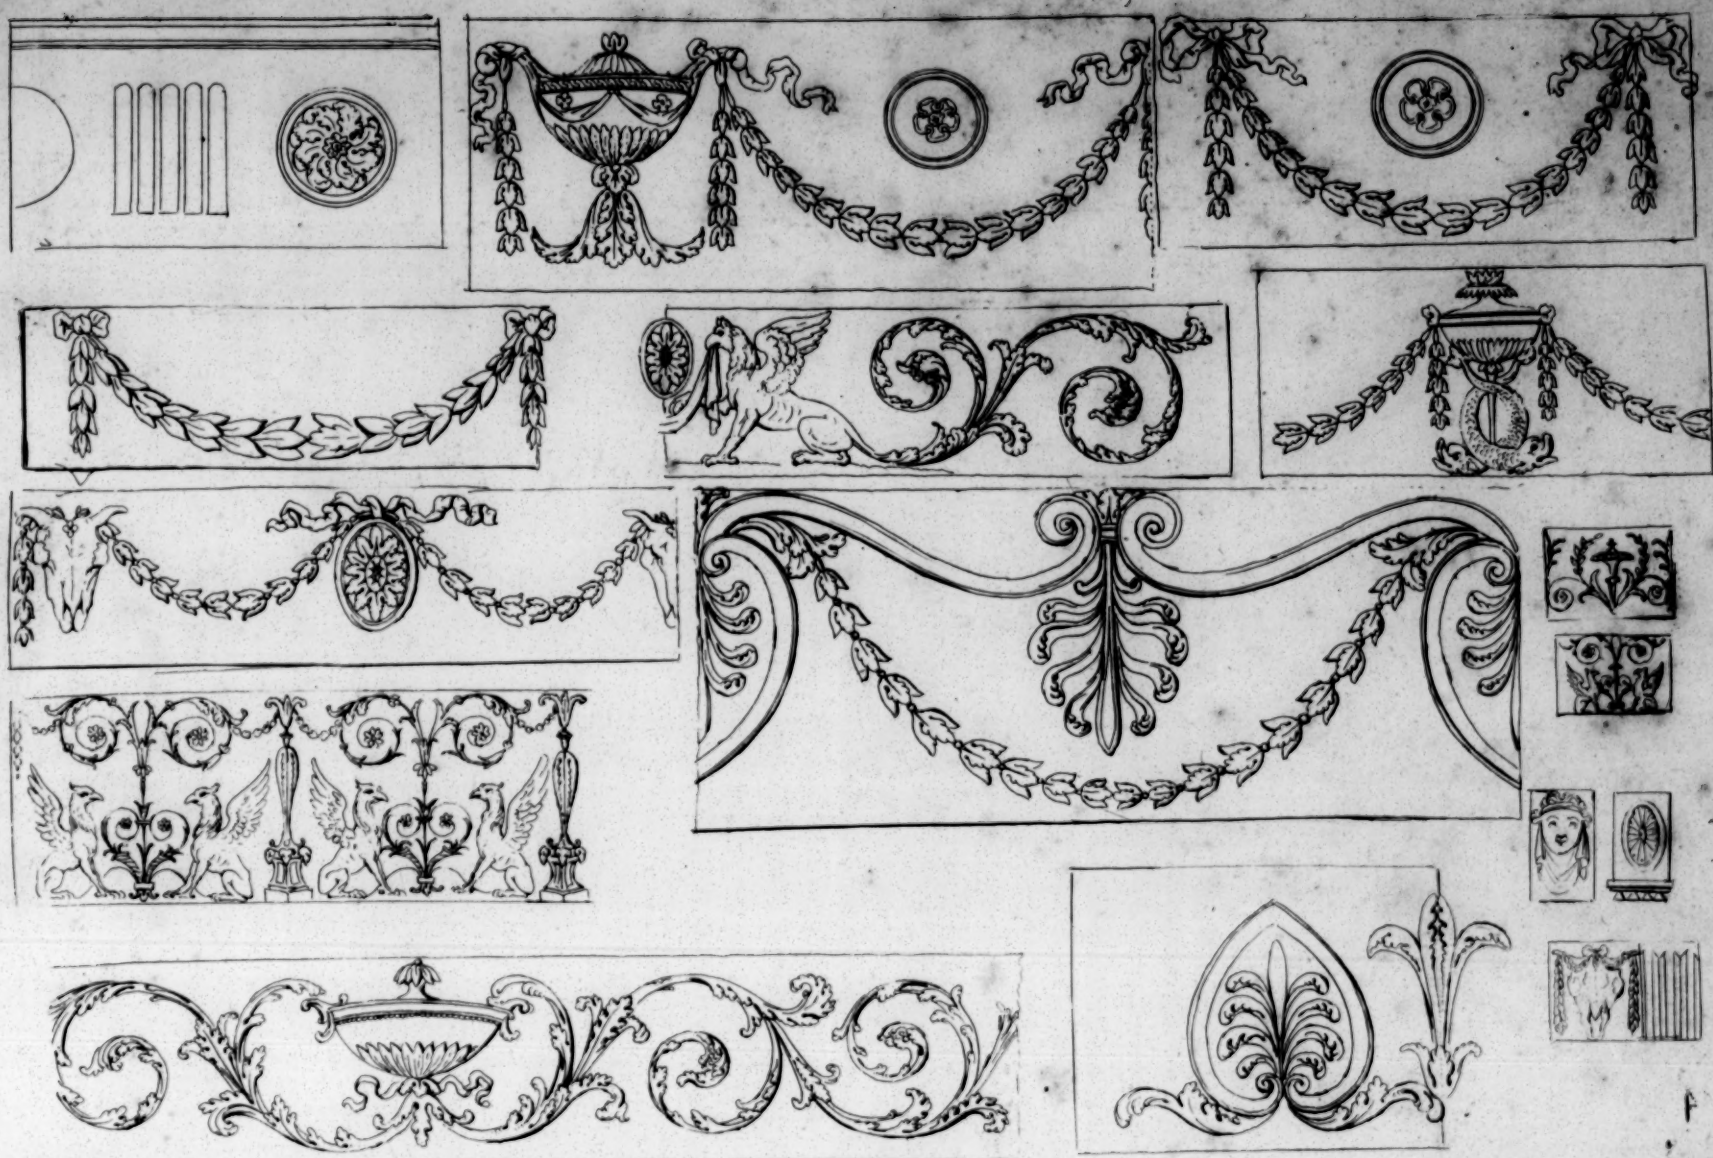

Published as the act directs Jan. 12. 1774

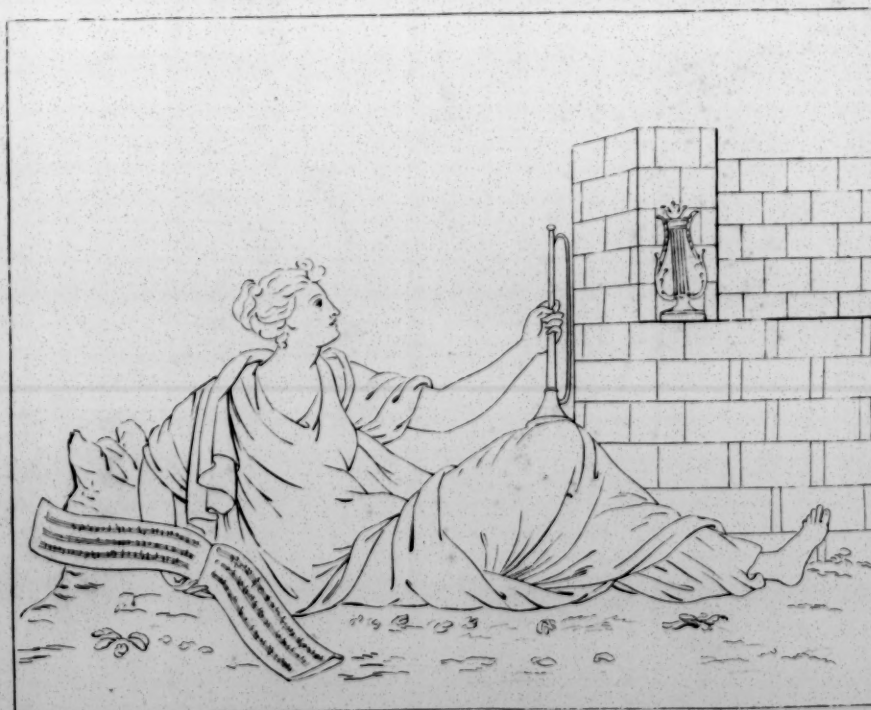

Published as the Act directs Dec. 8. 1777

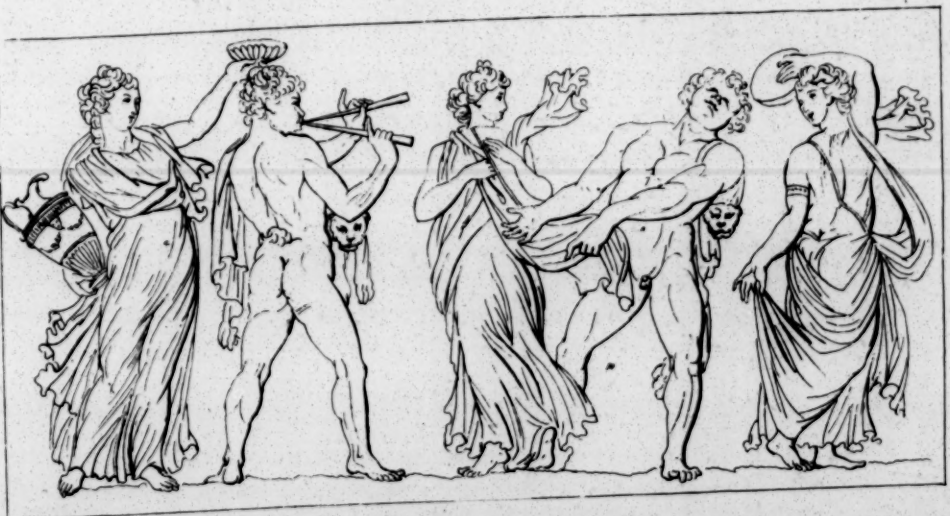

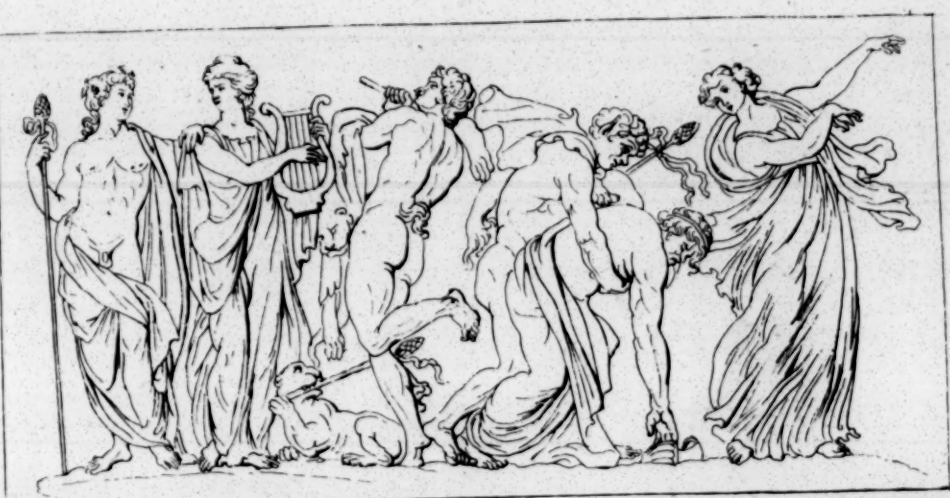

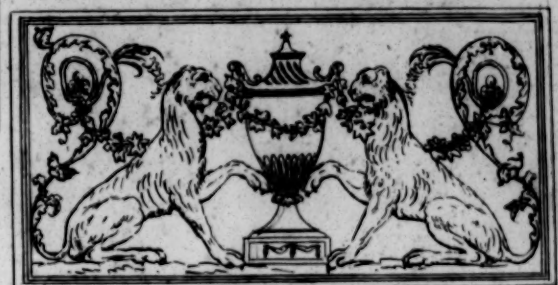

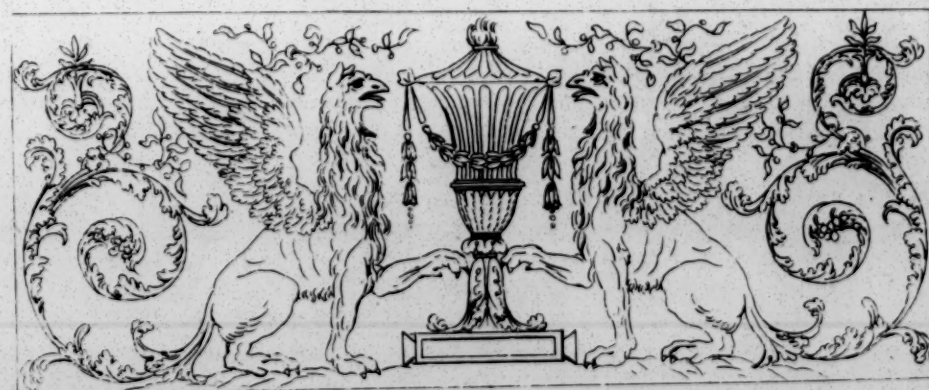

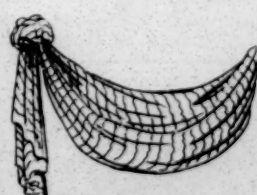

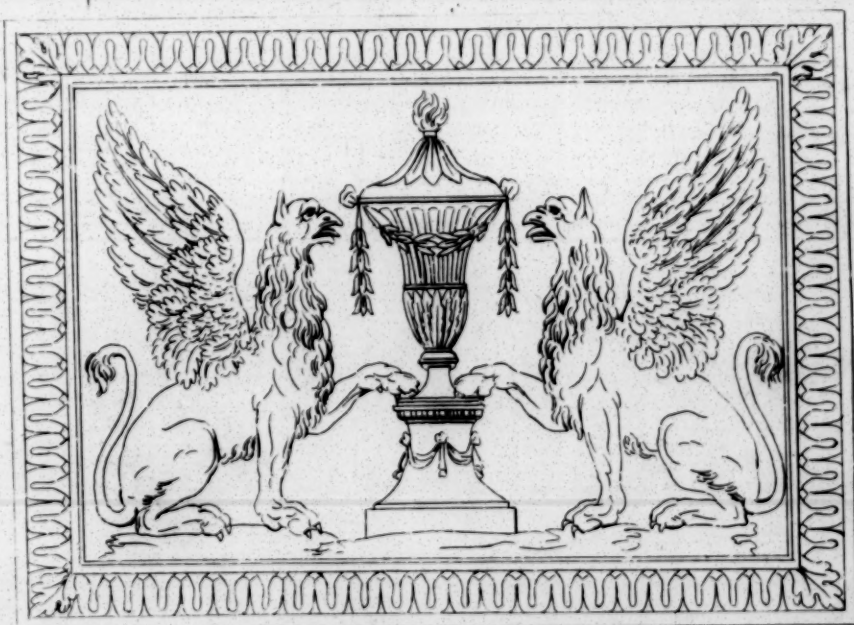

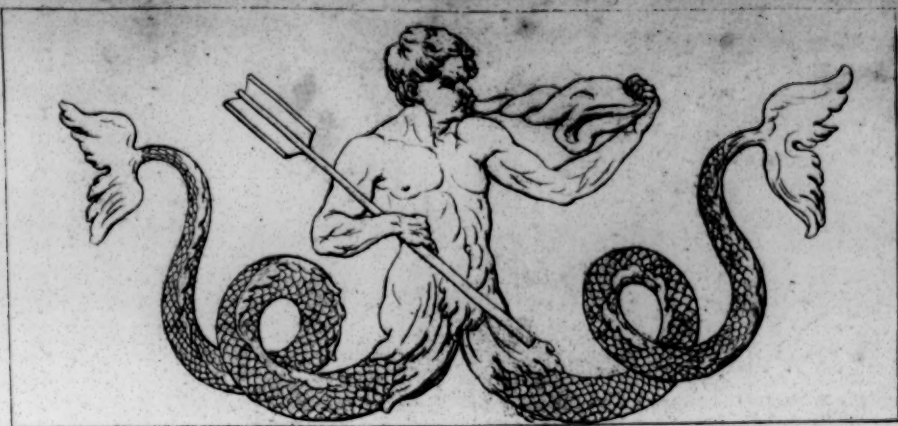

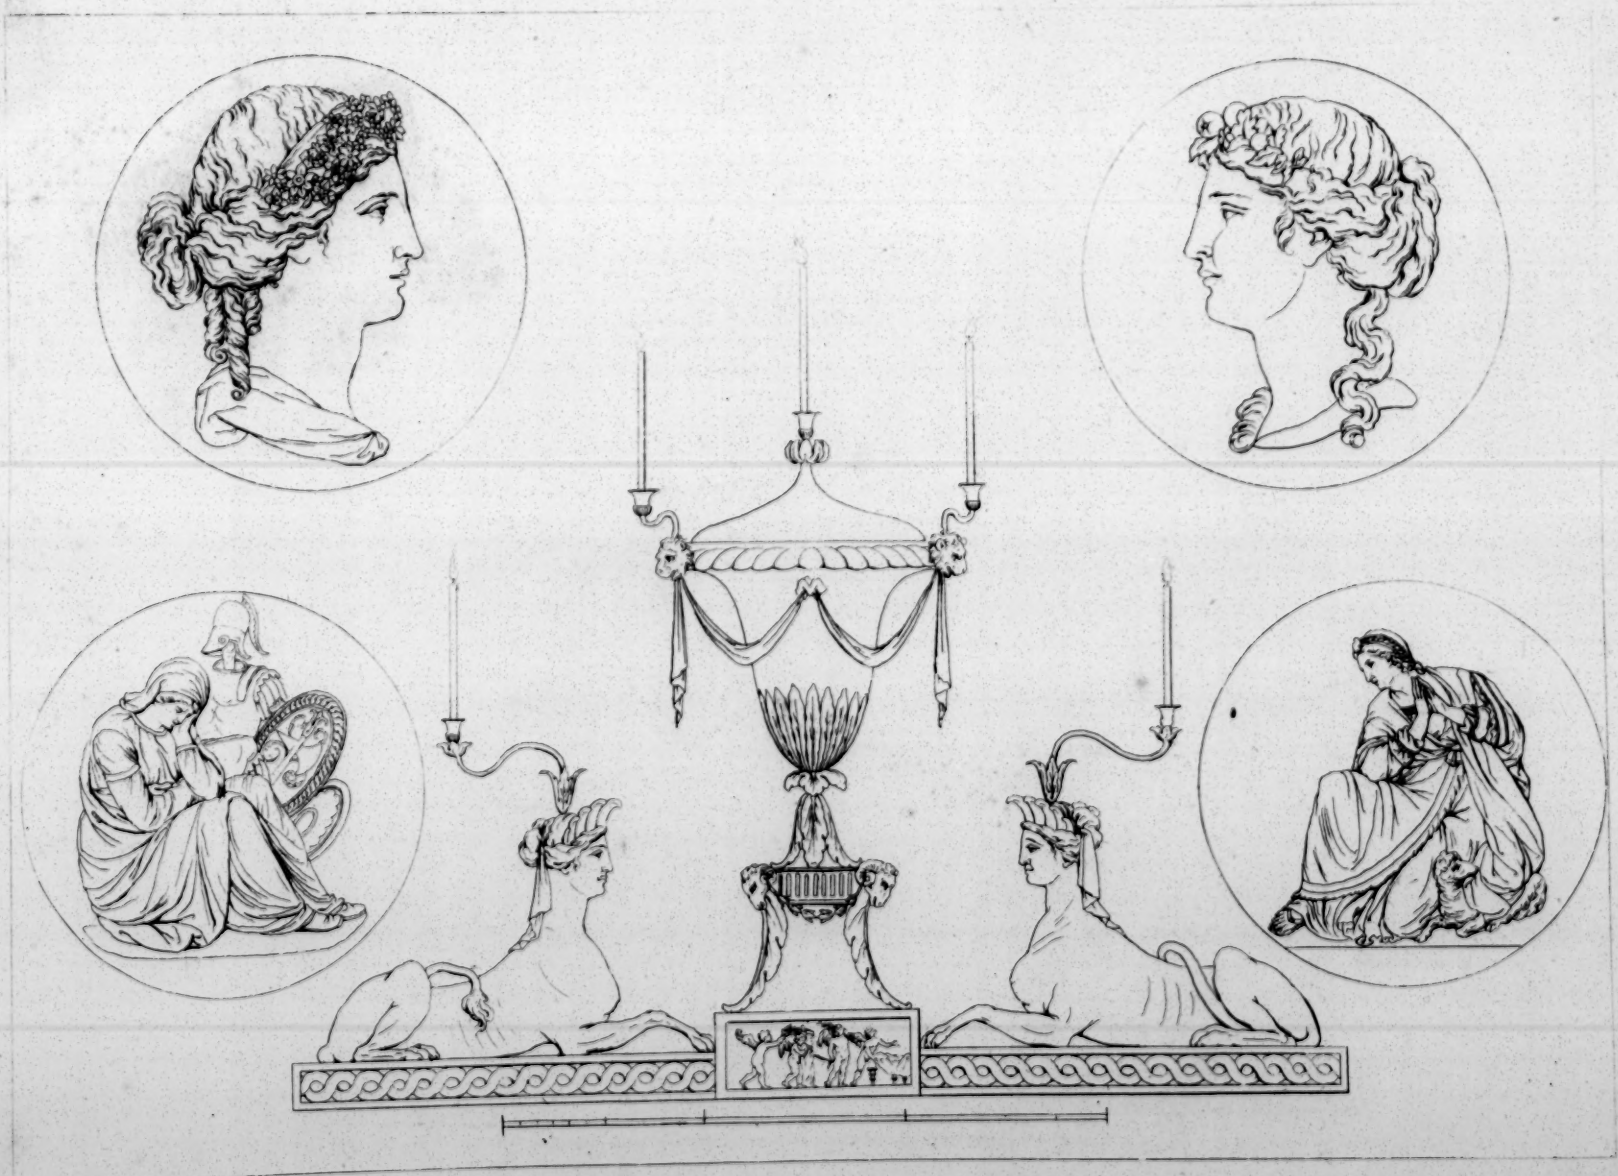

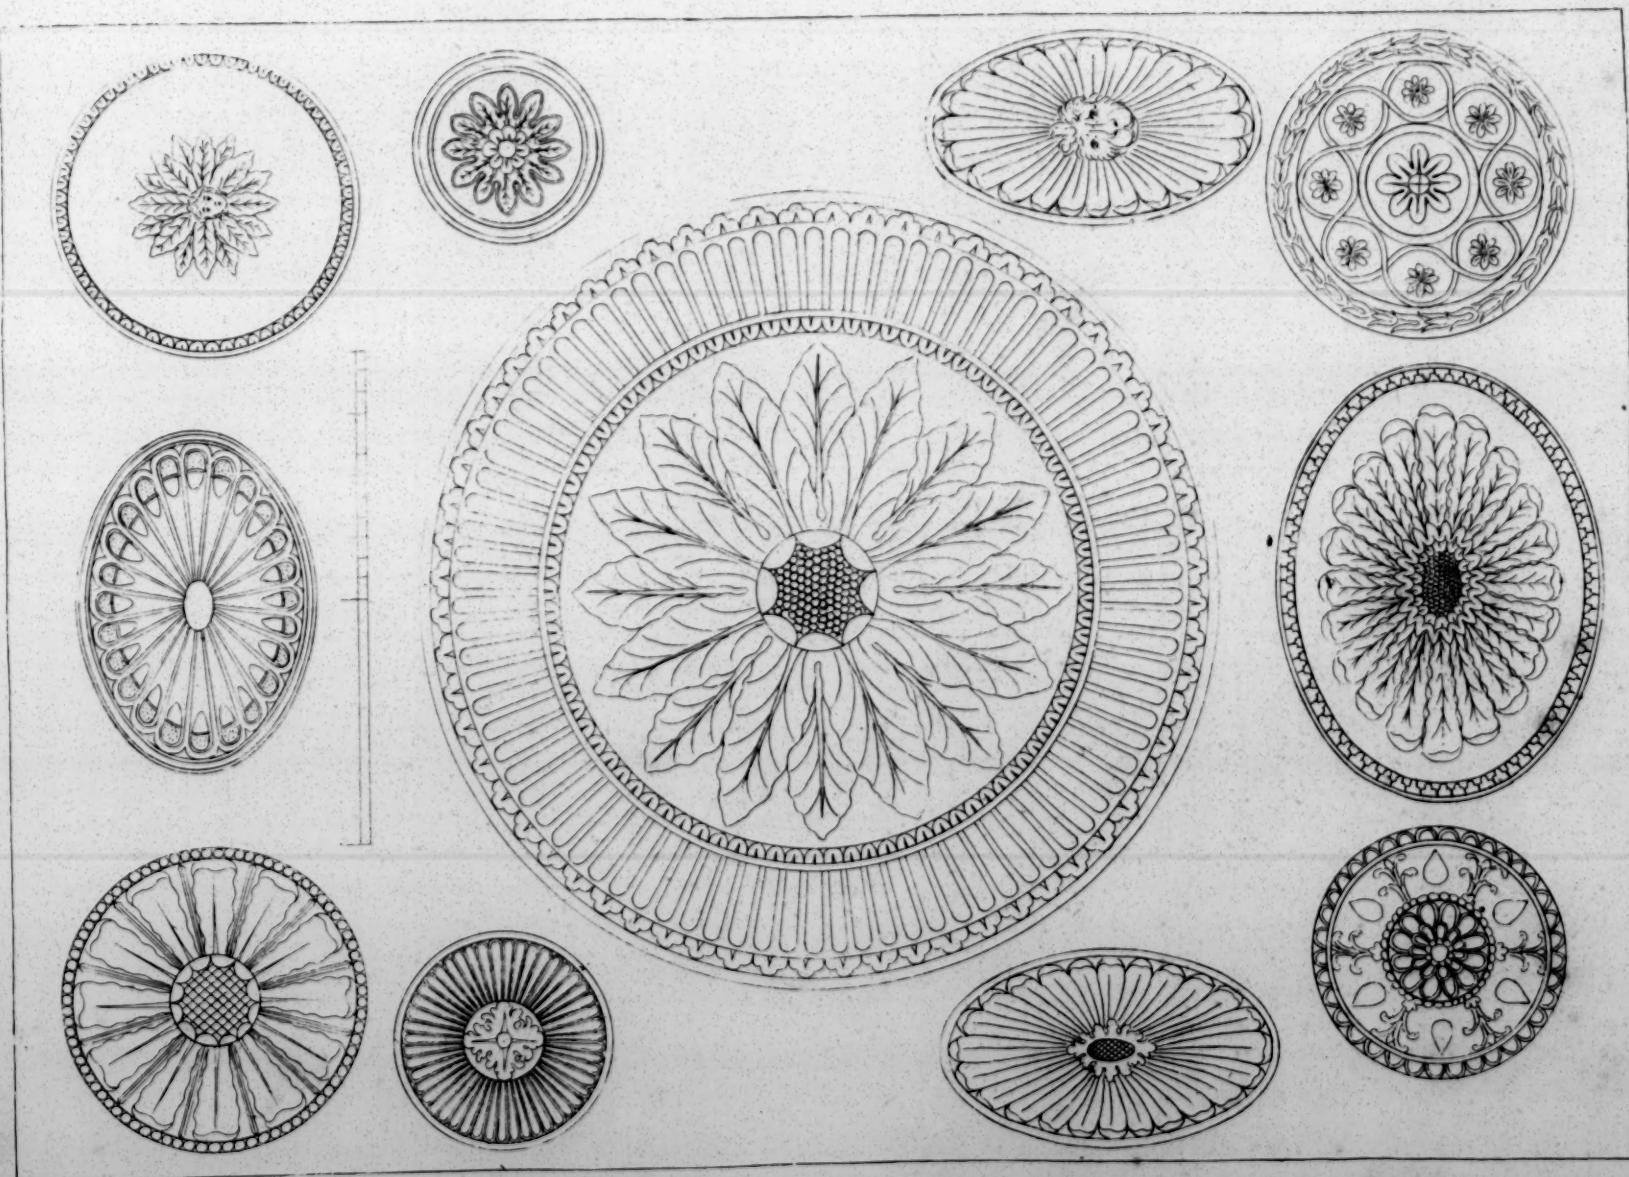

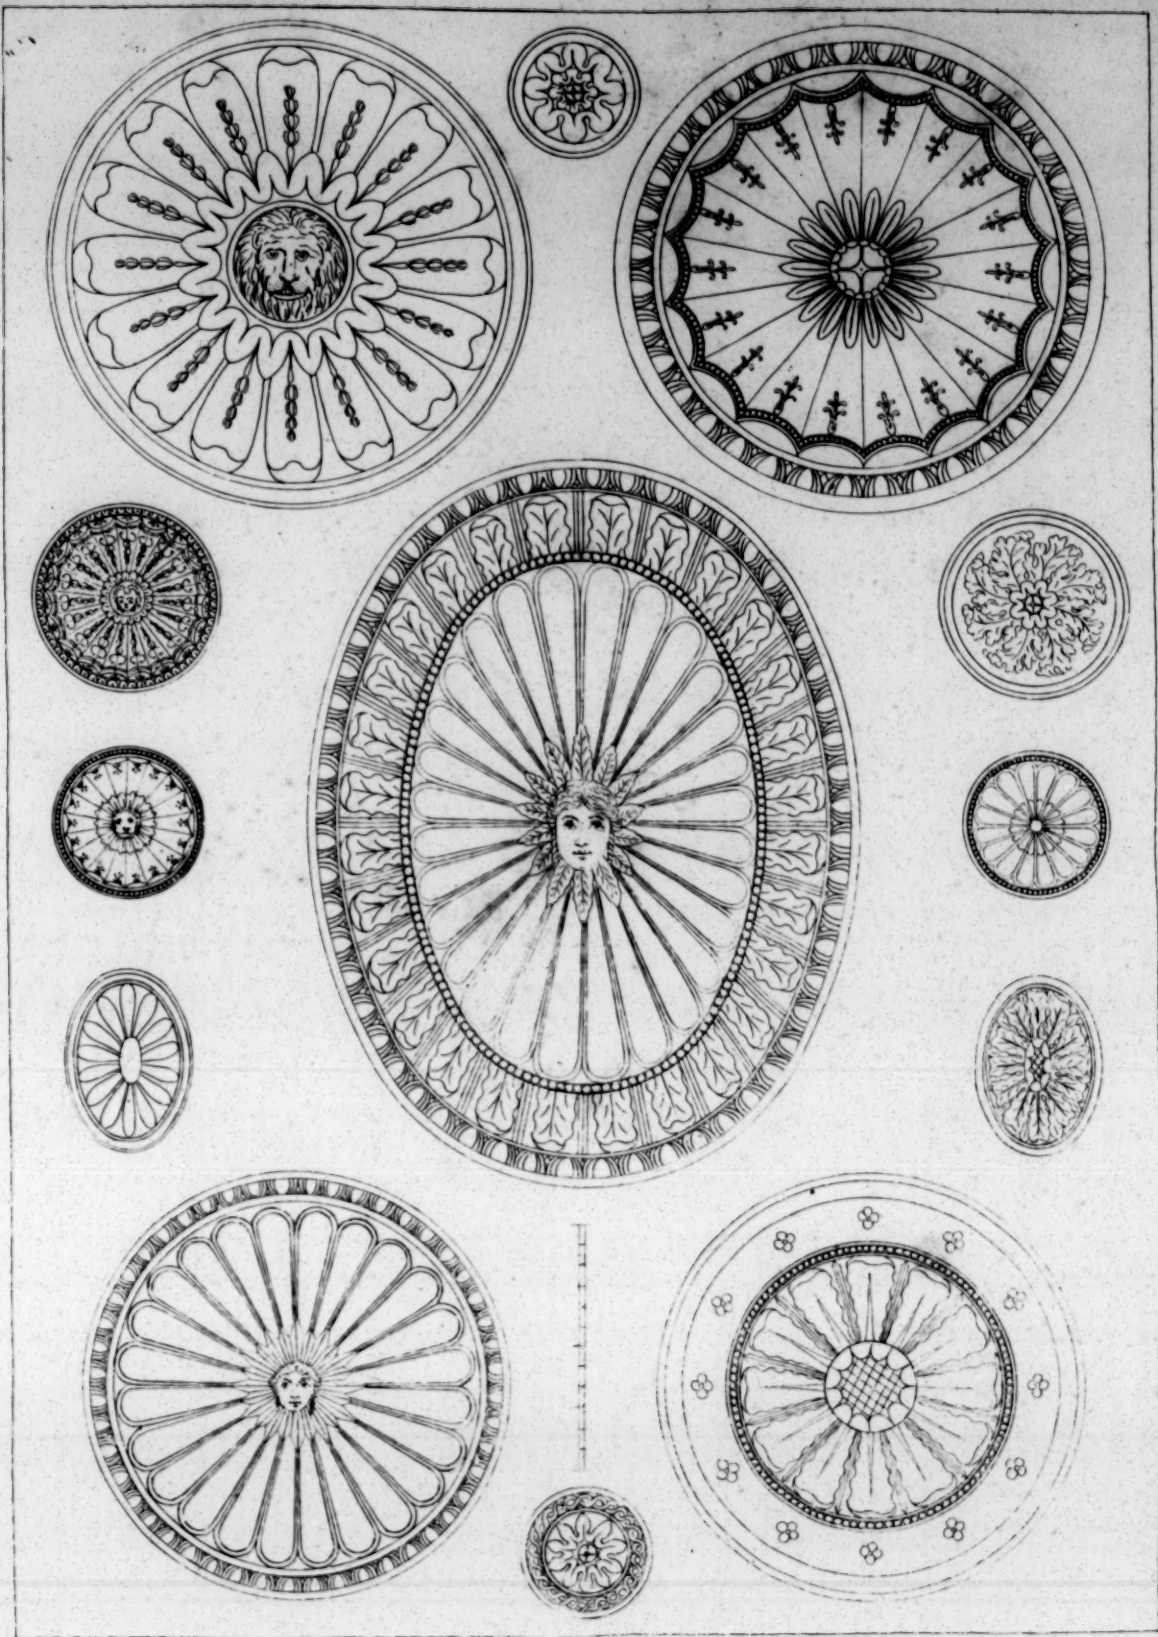

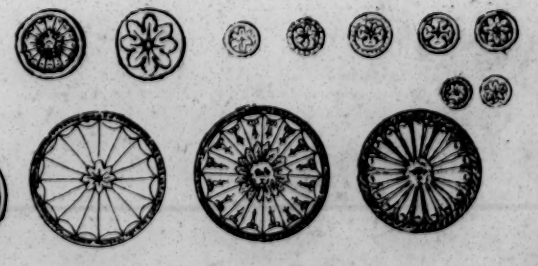

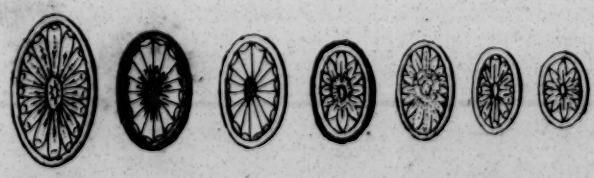

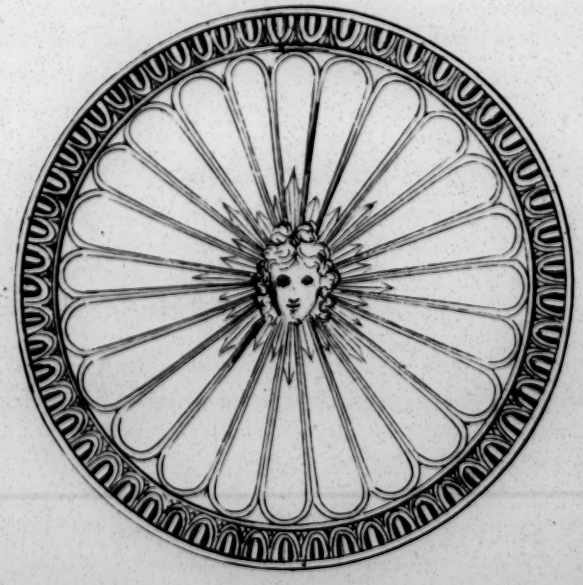

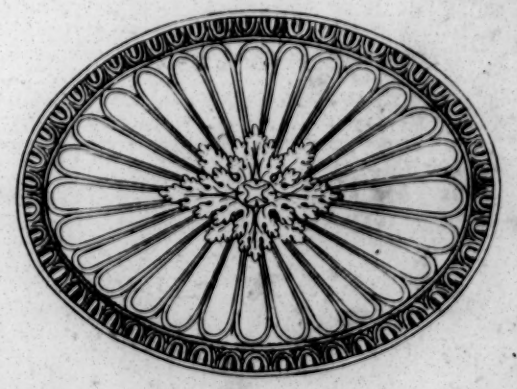

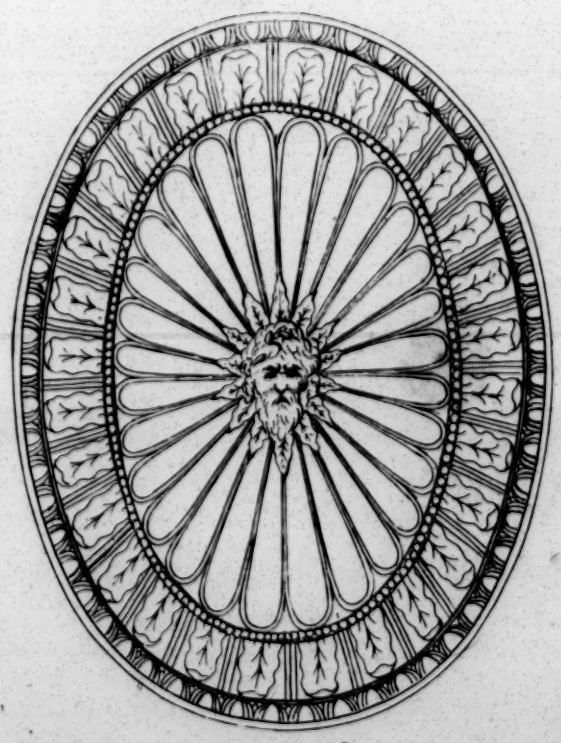

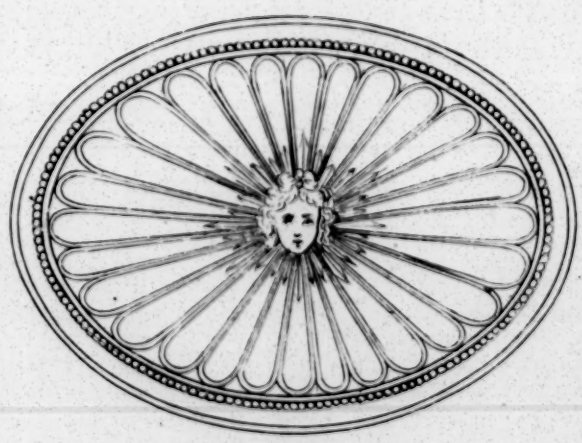

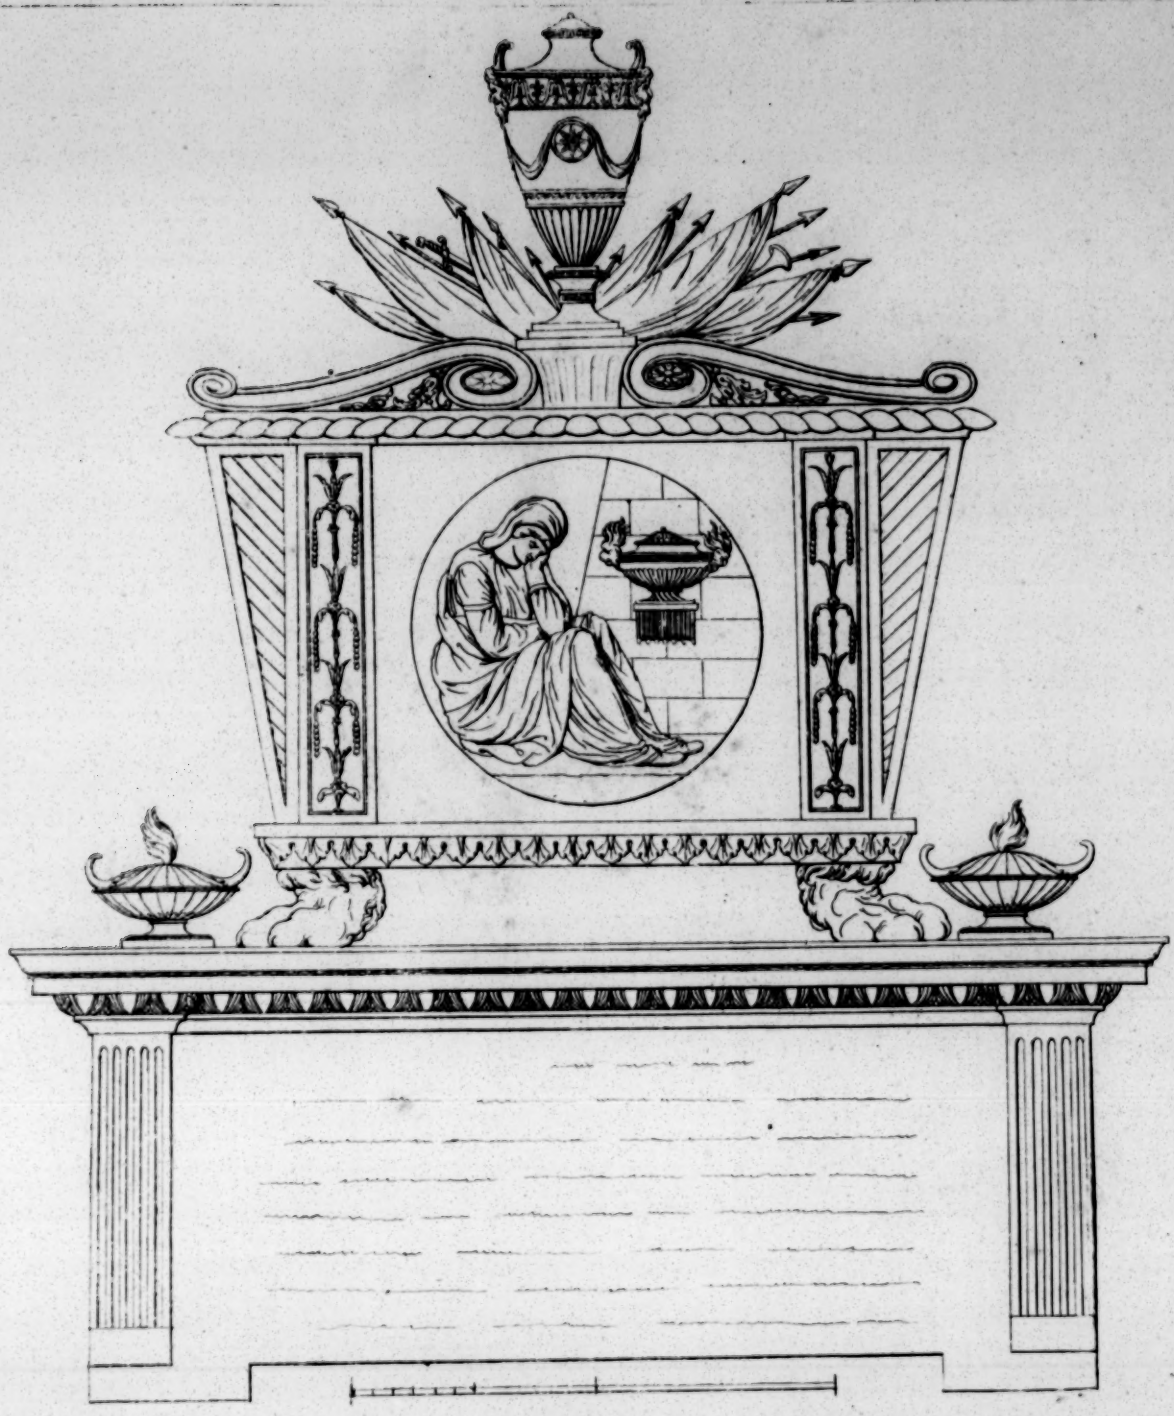

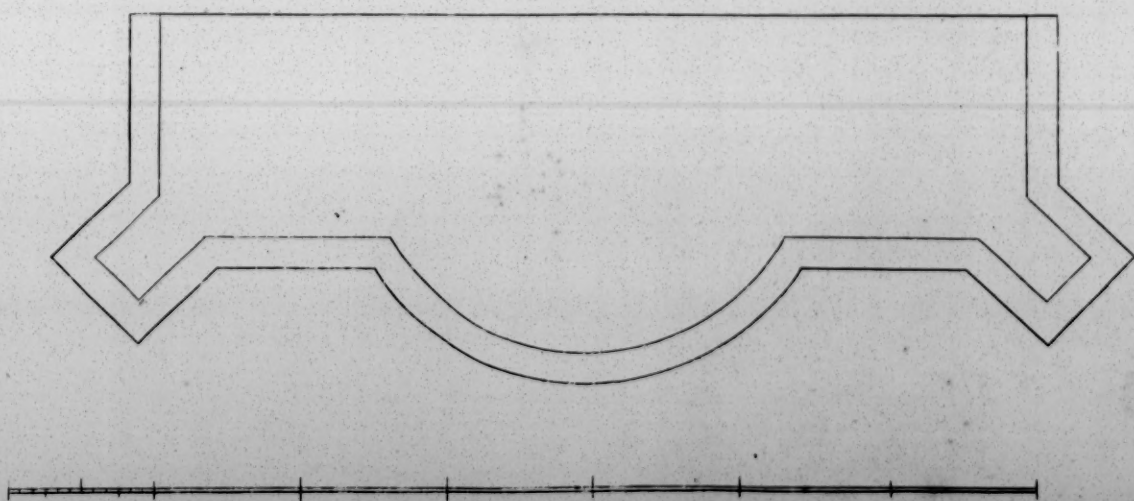

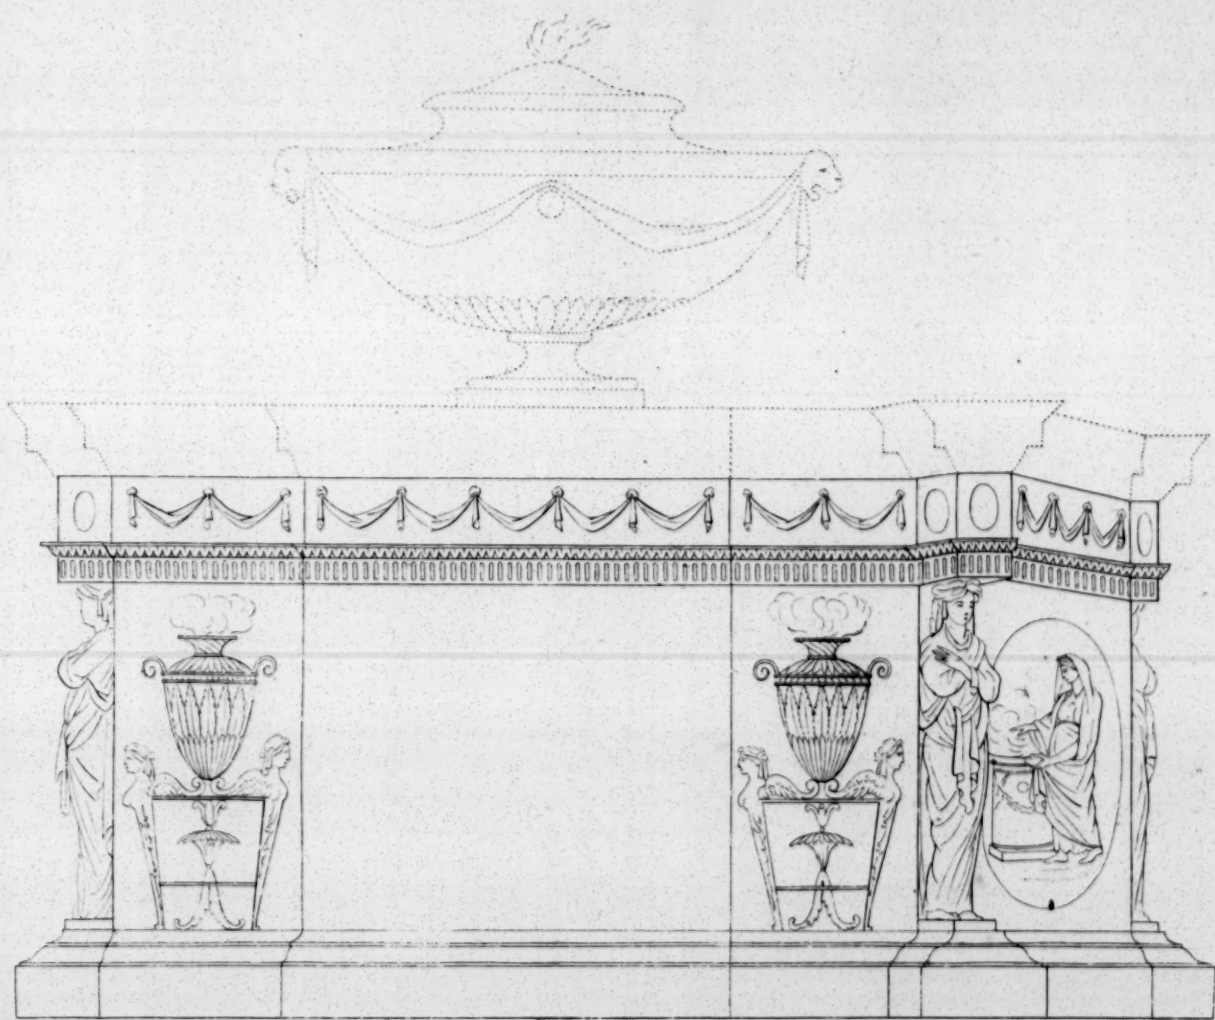

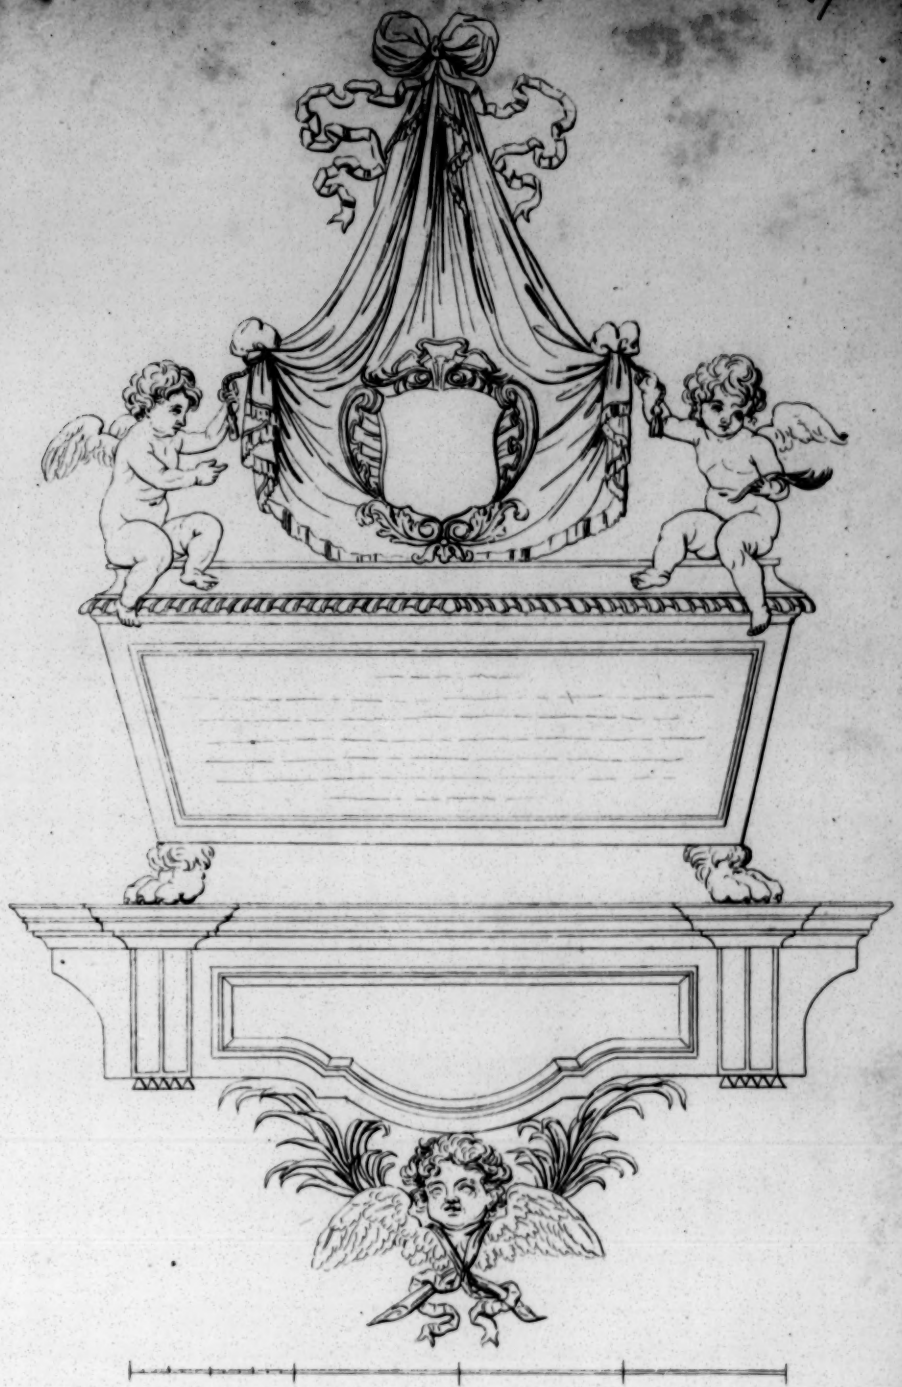

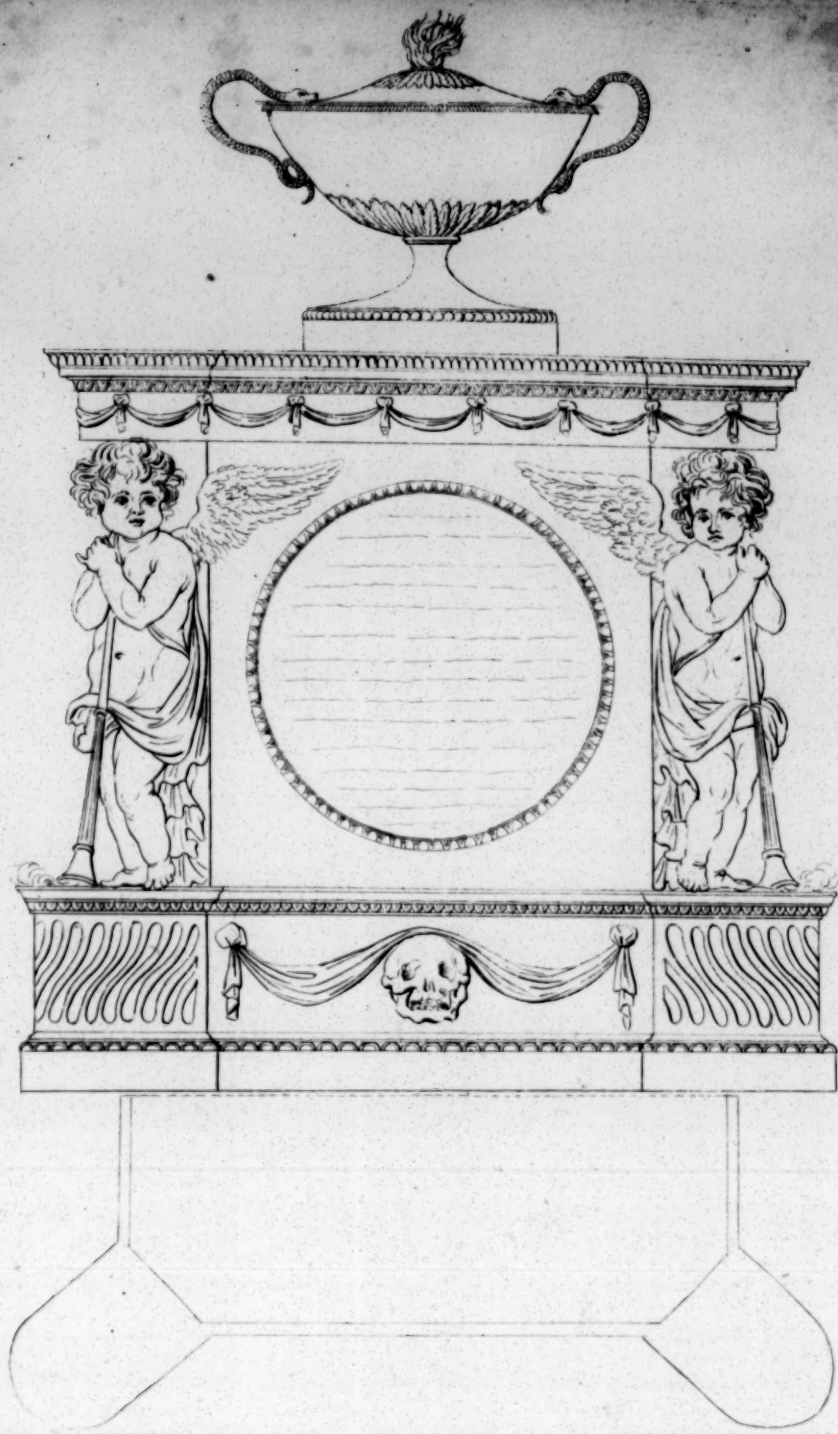

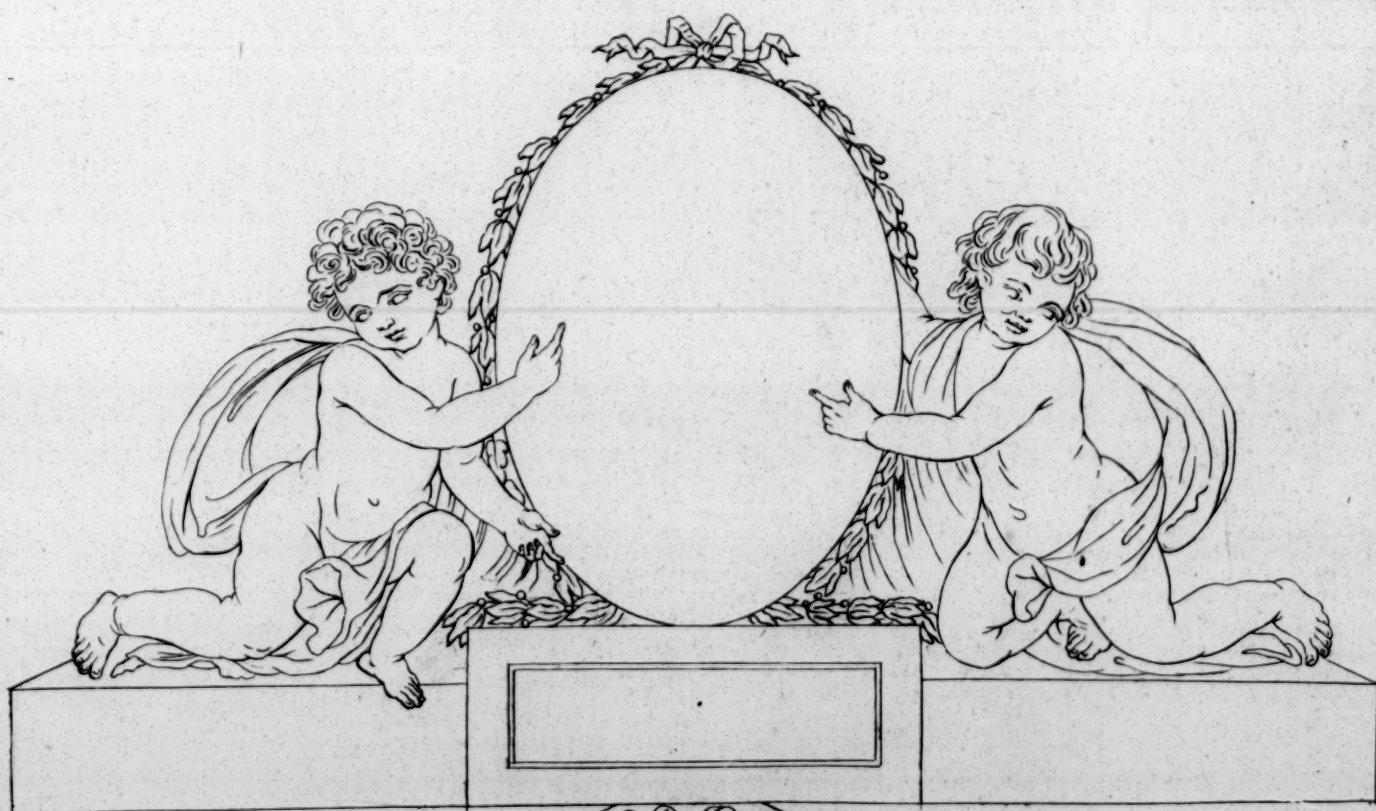

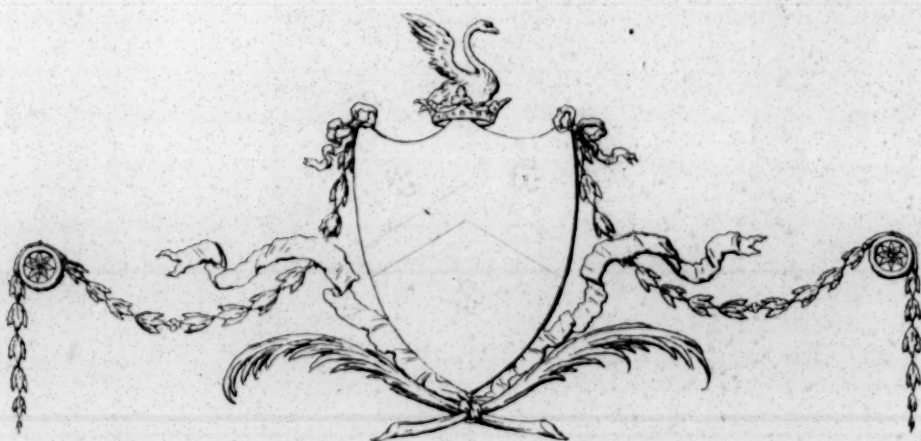

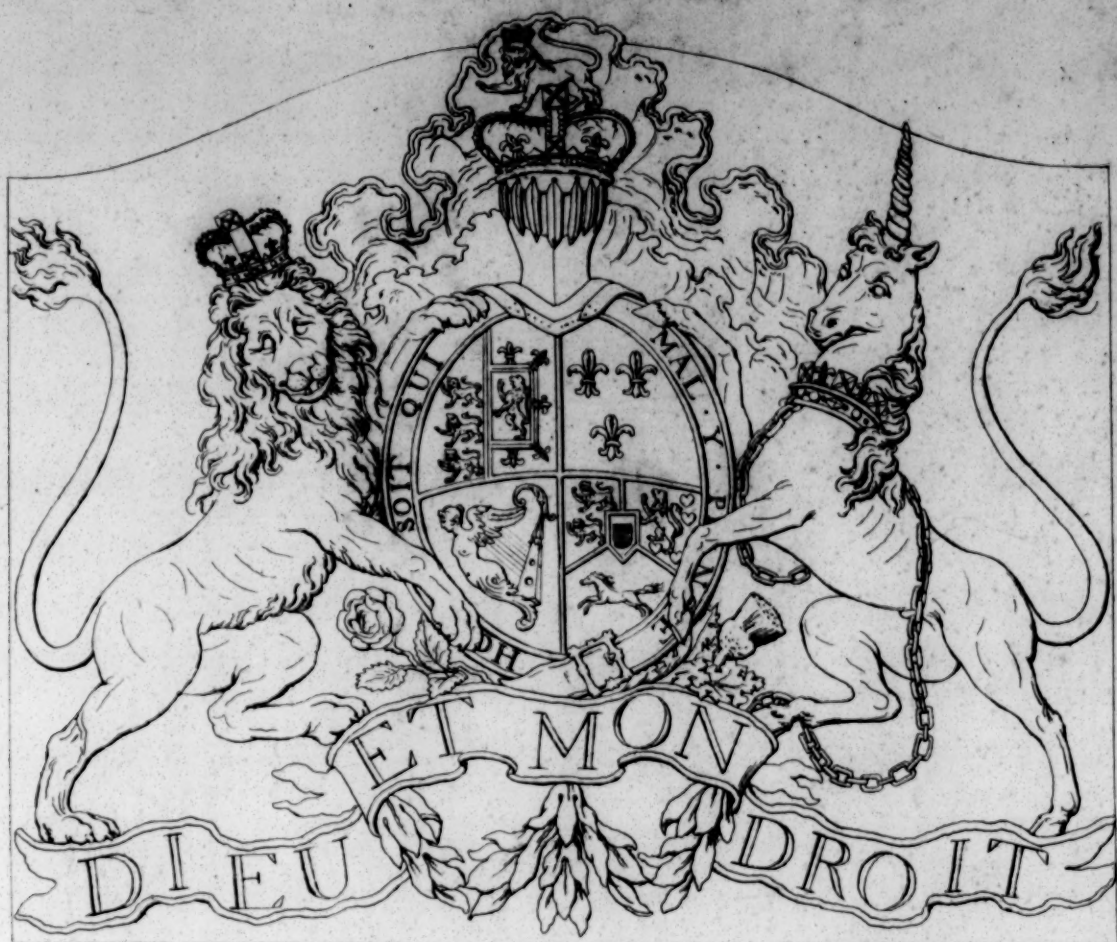

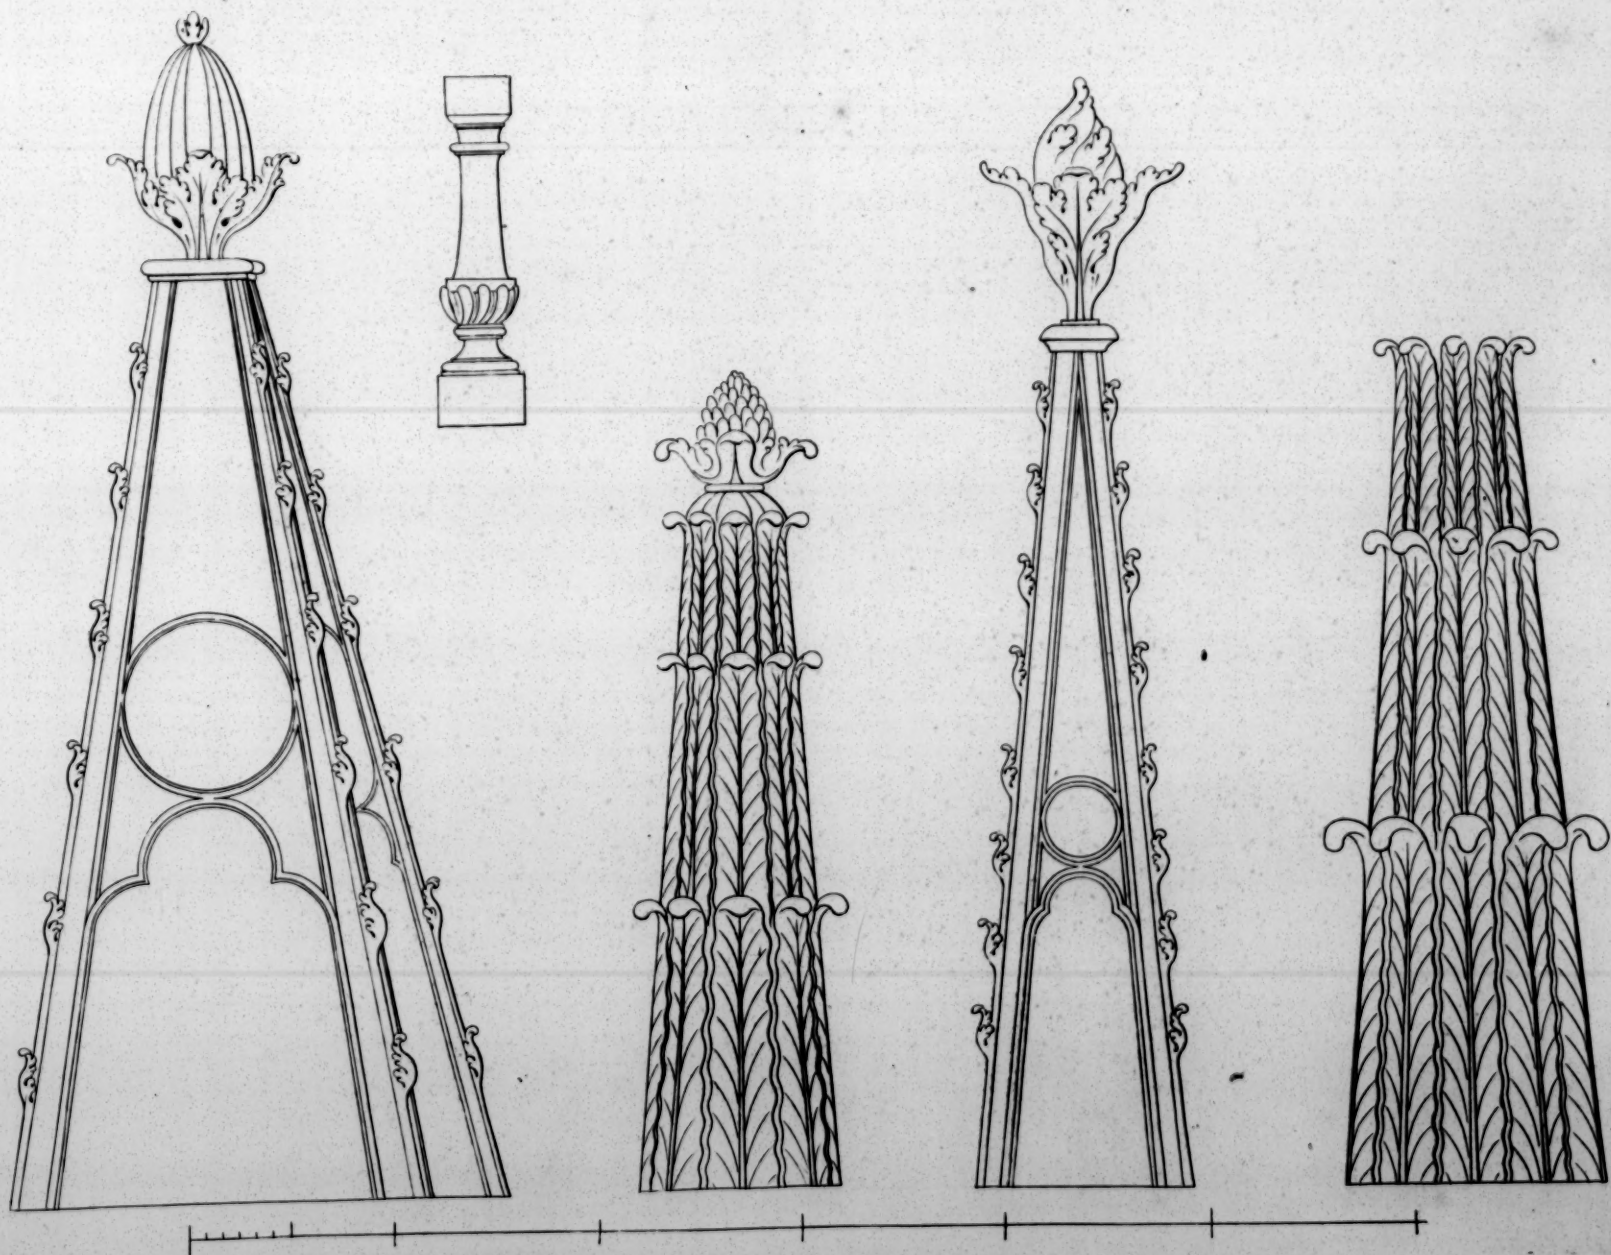

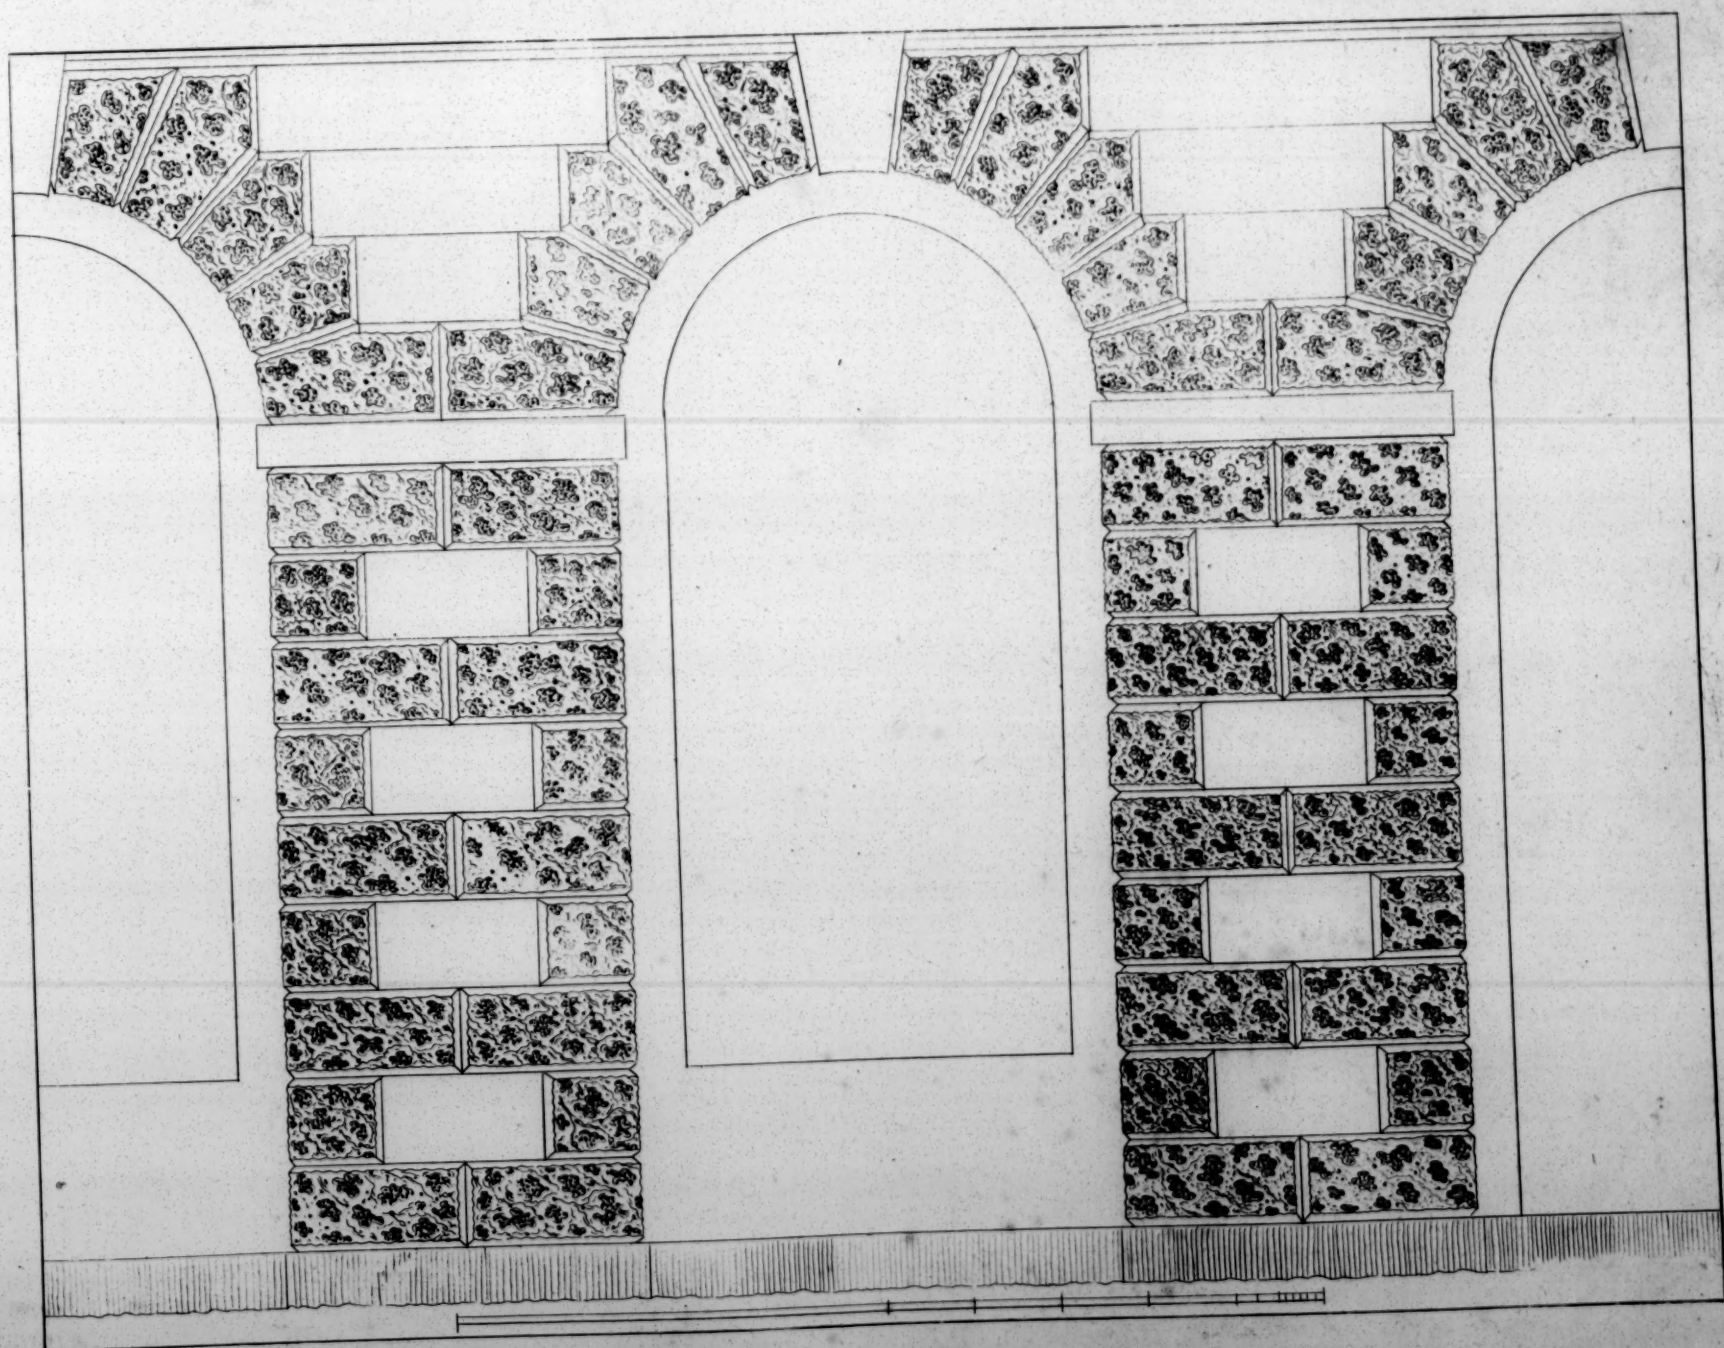

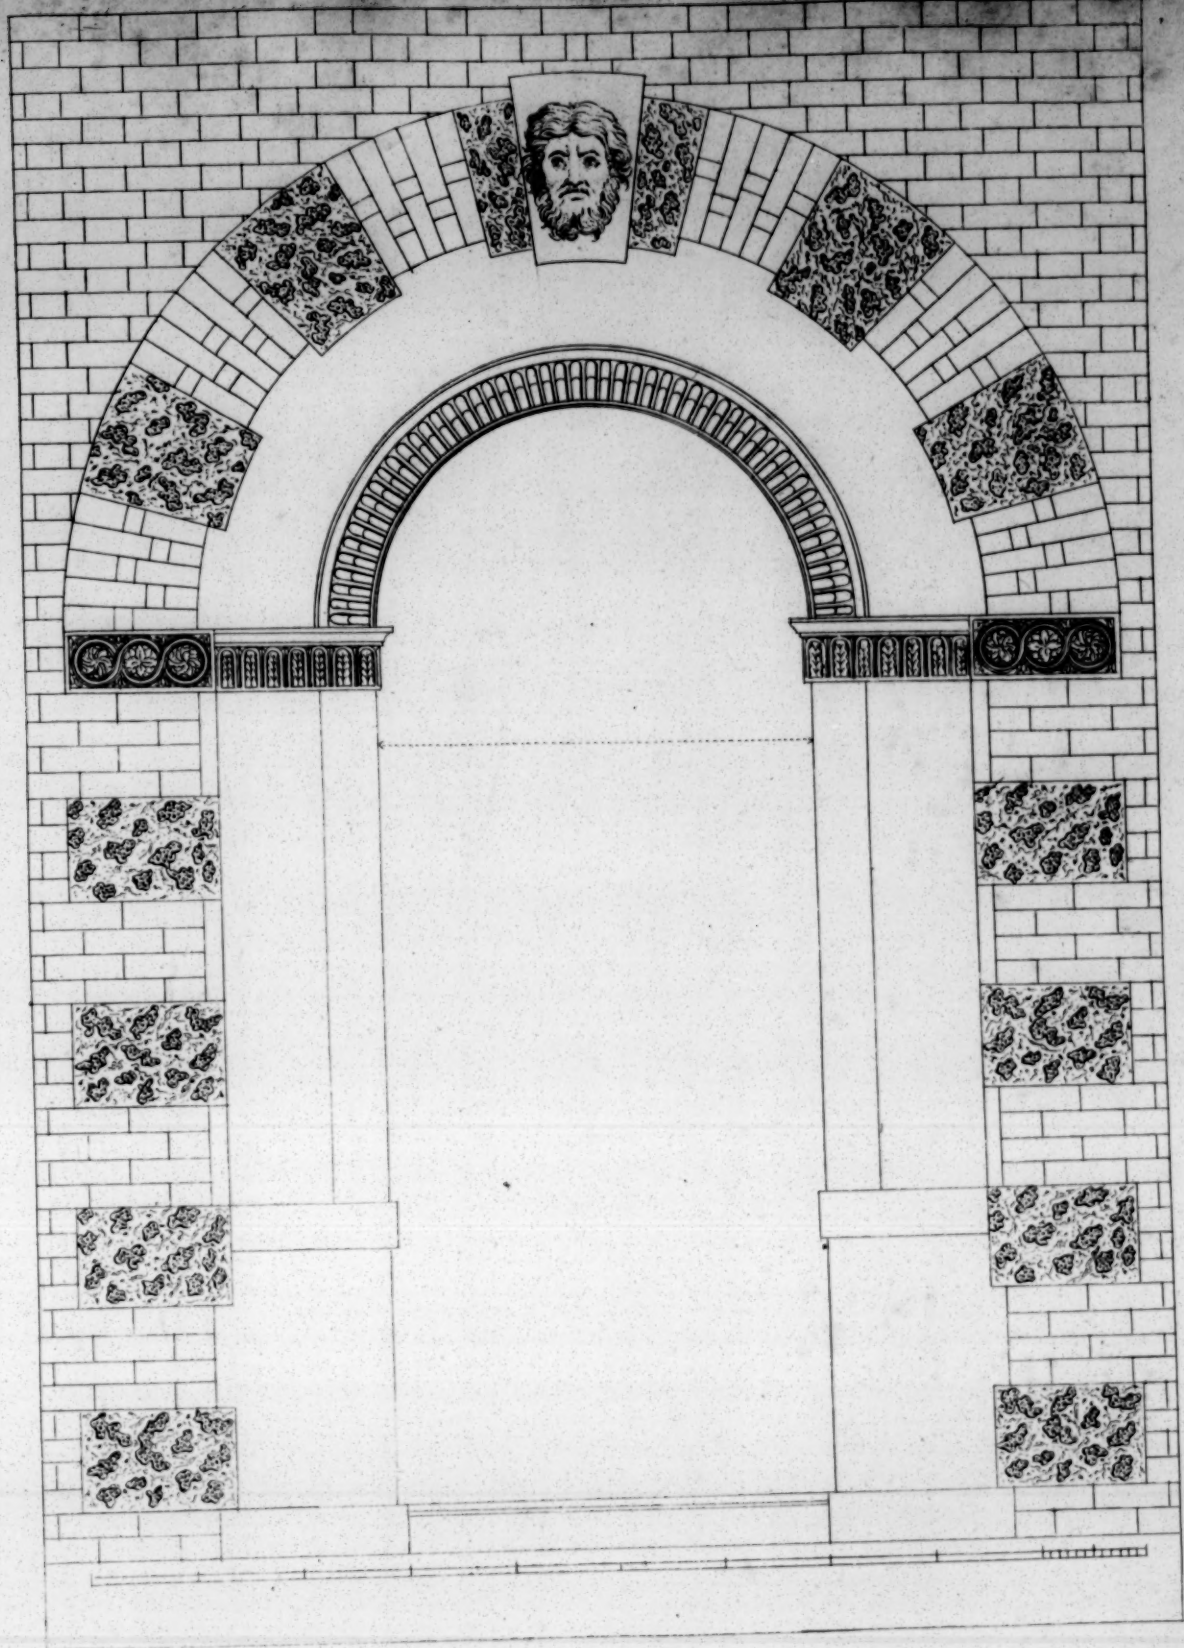

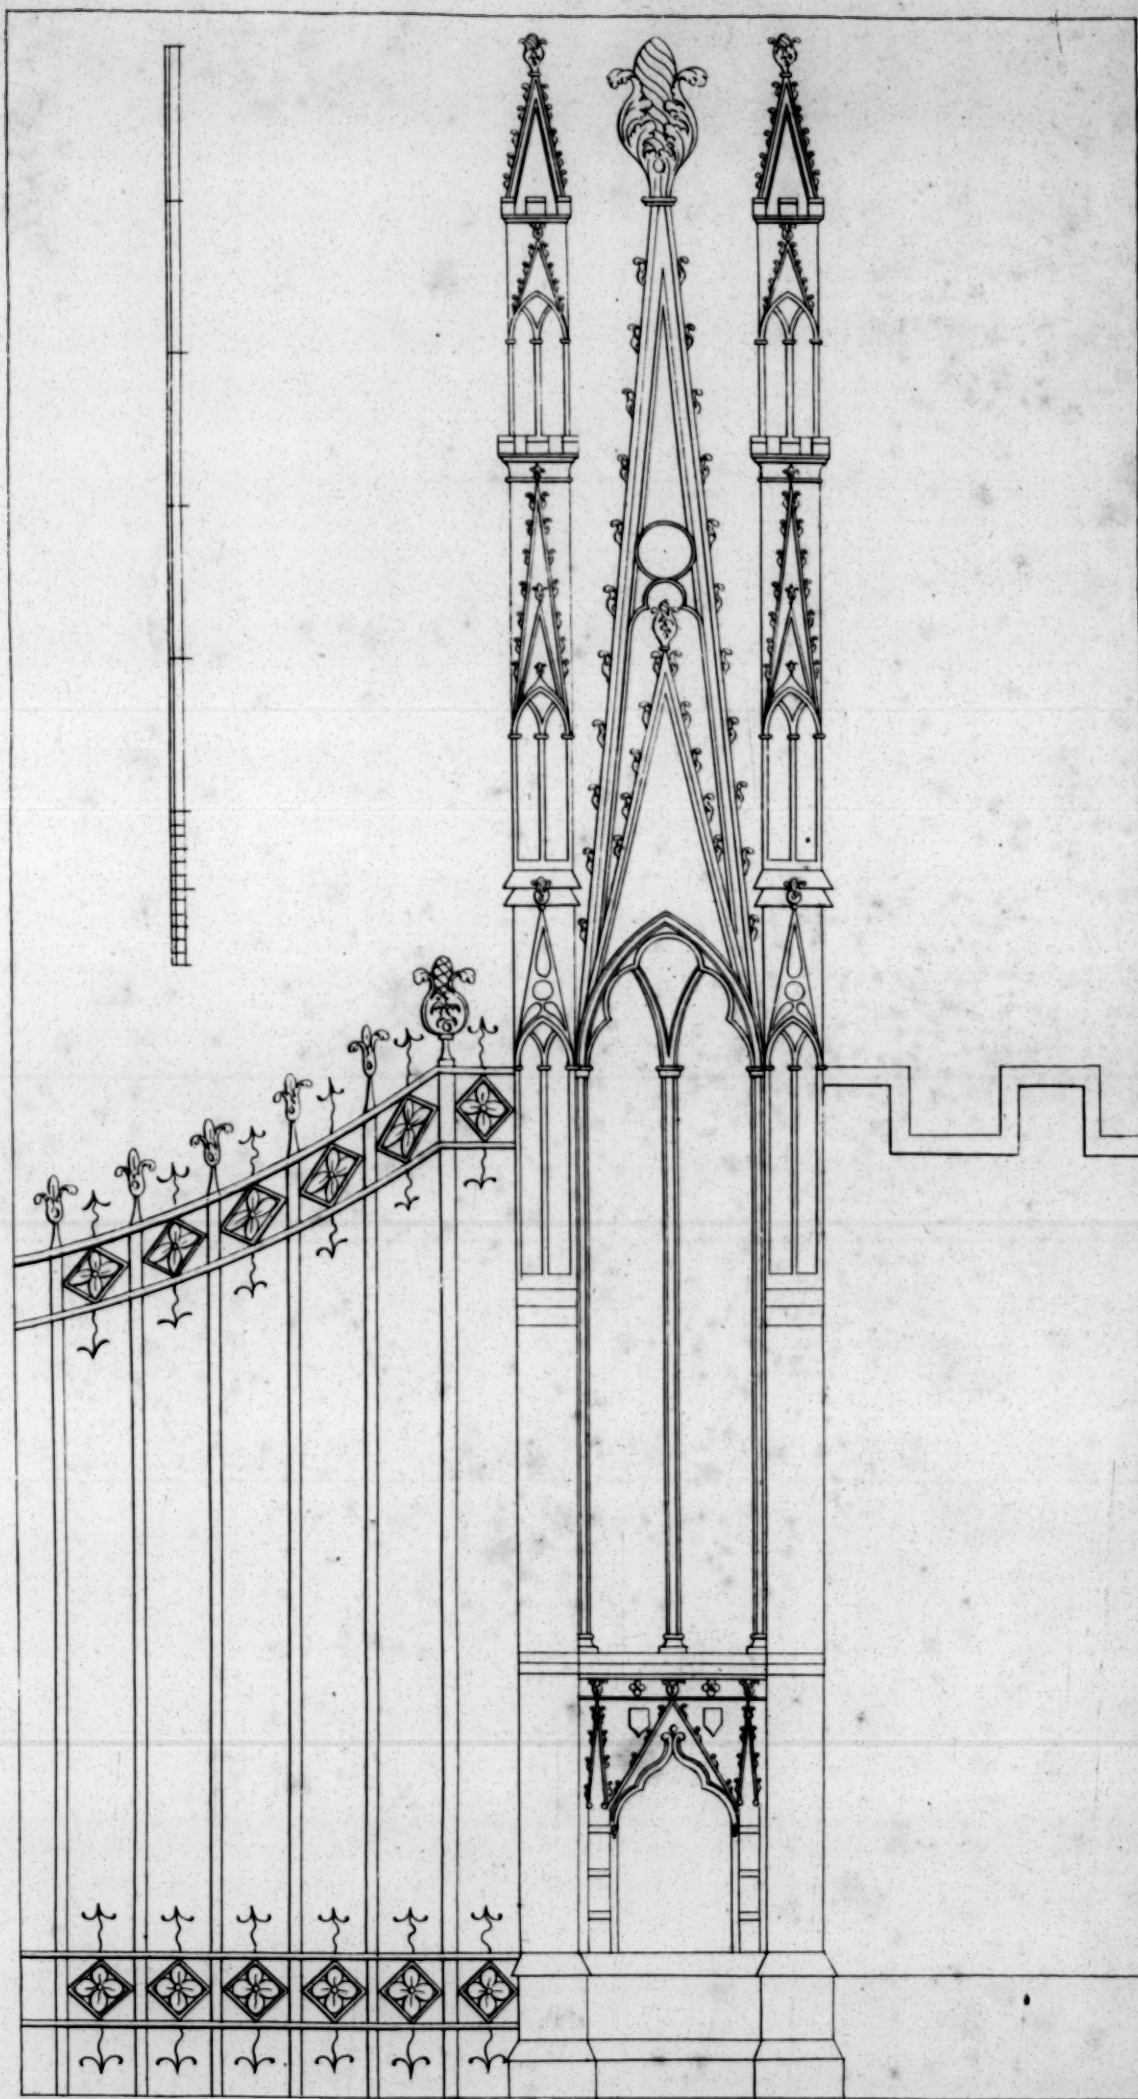

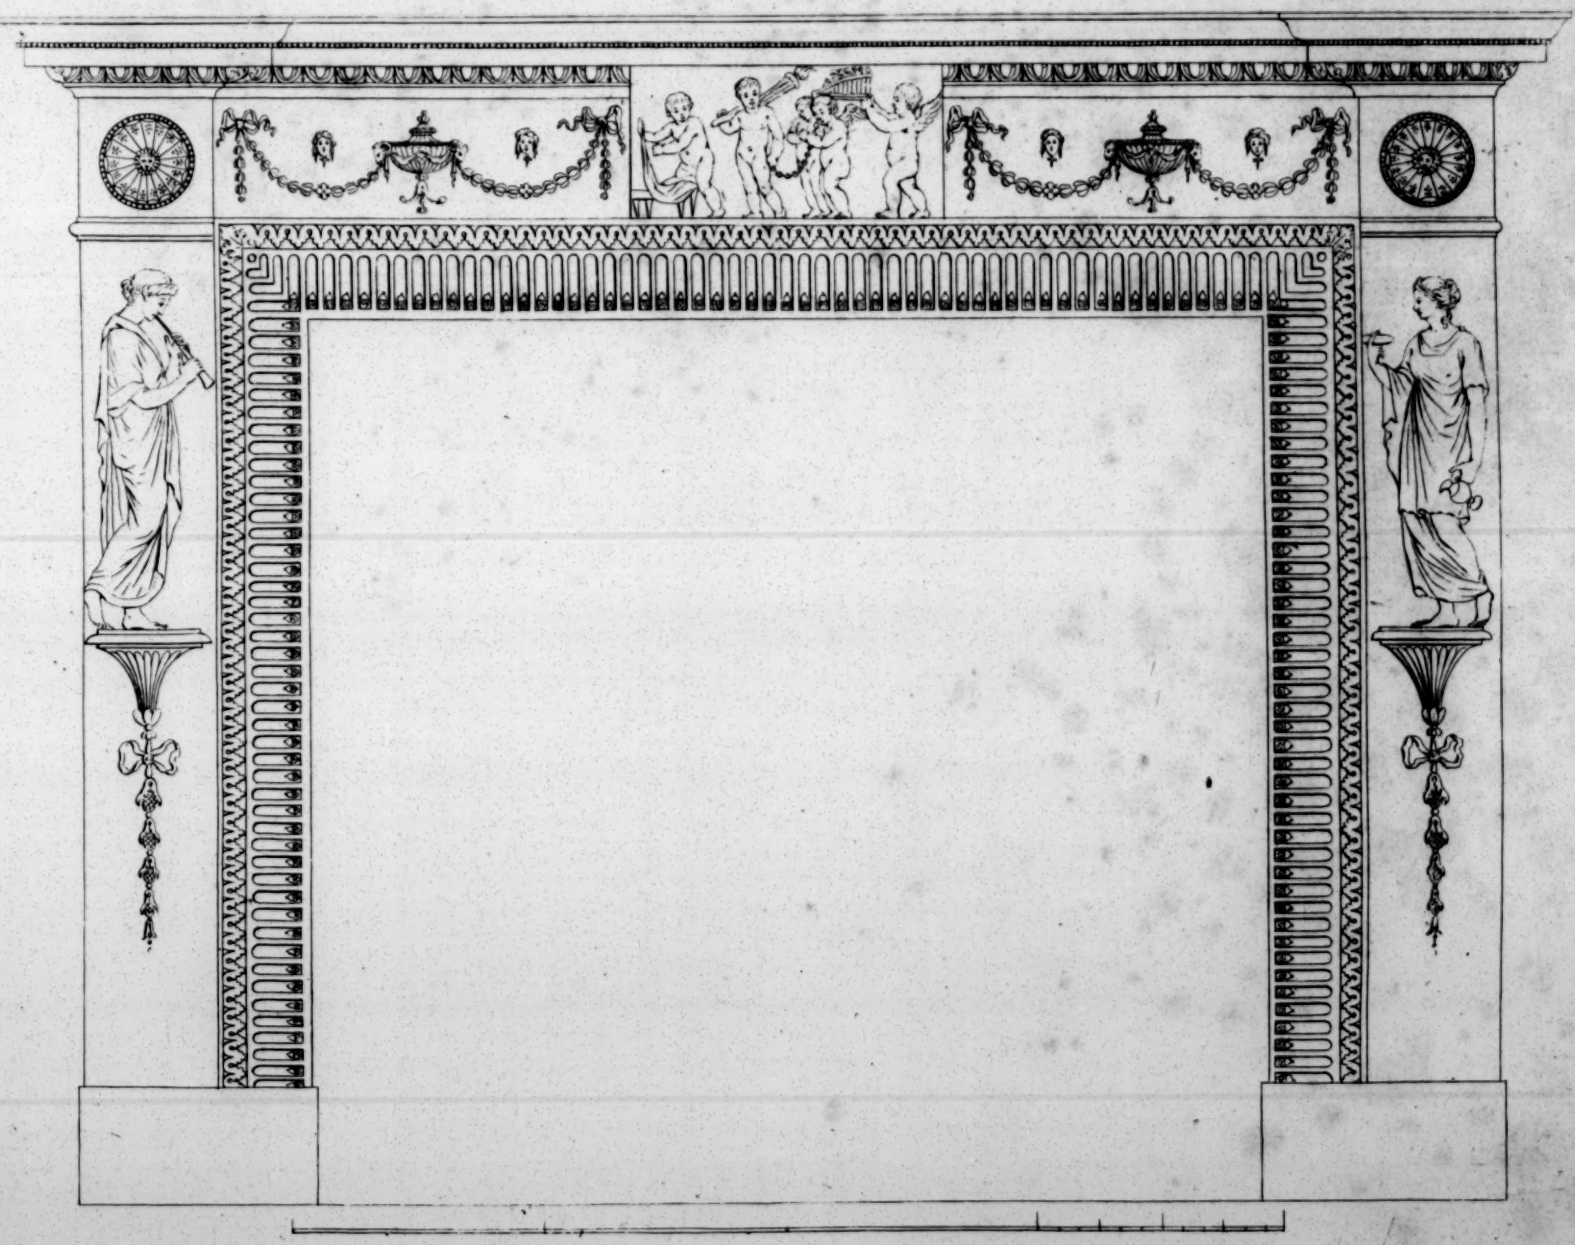

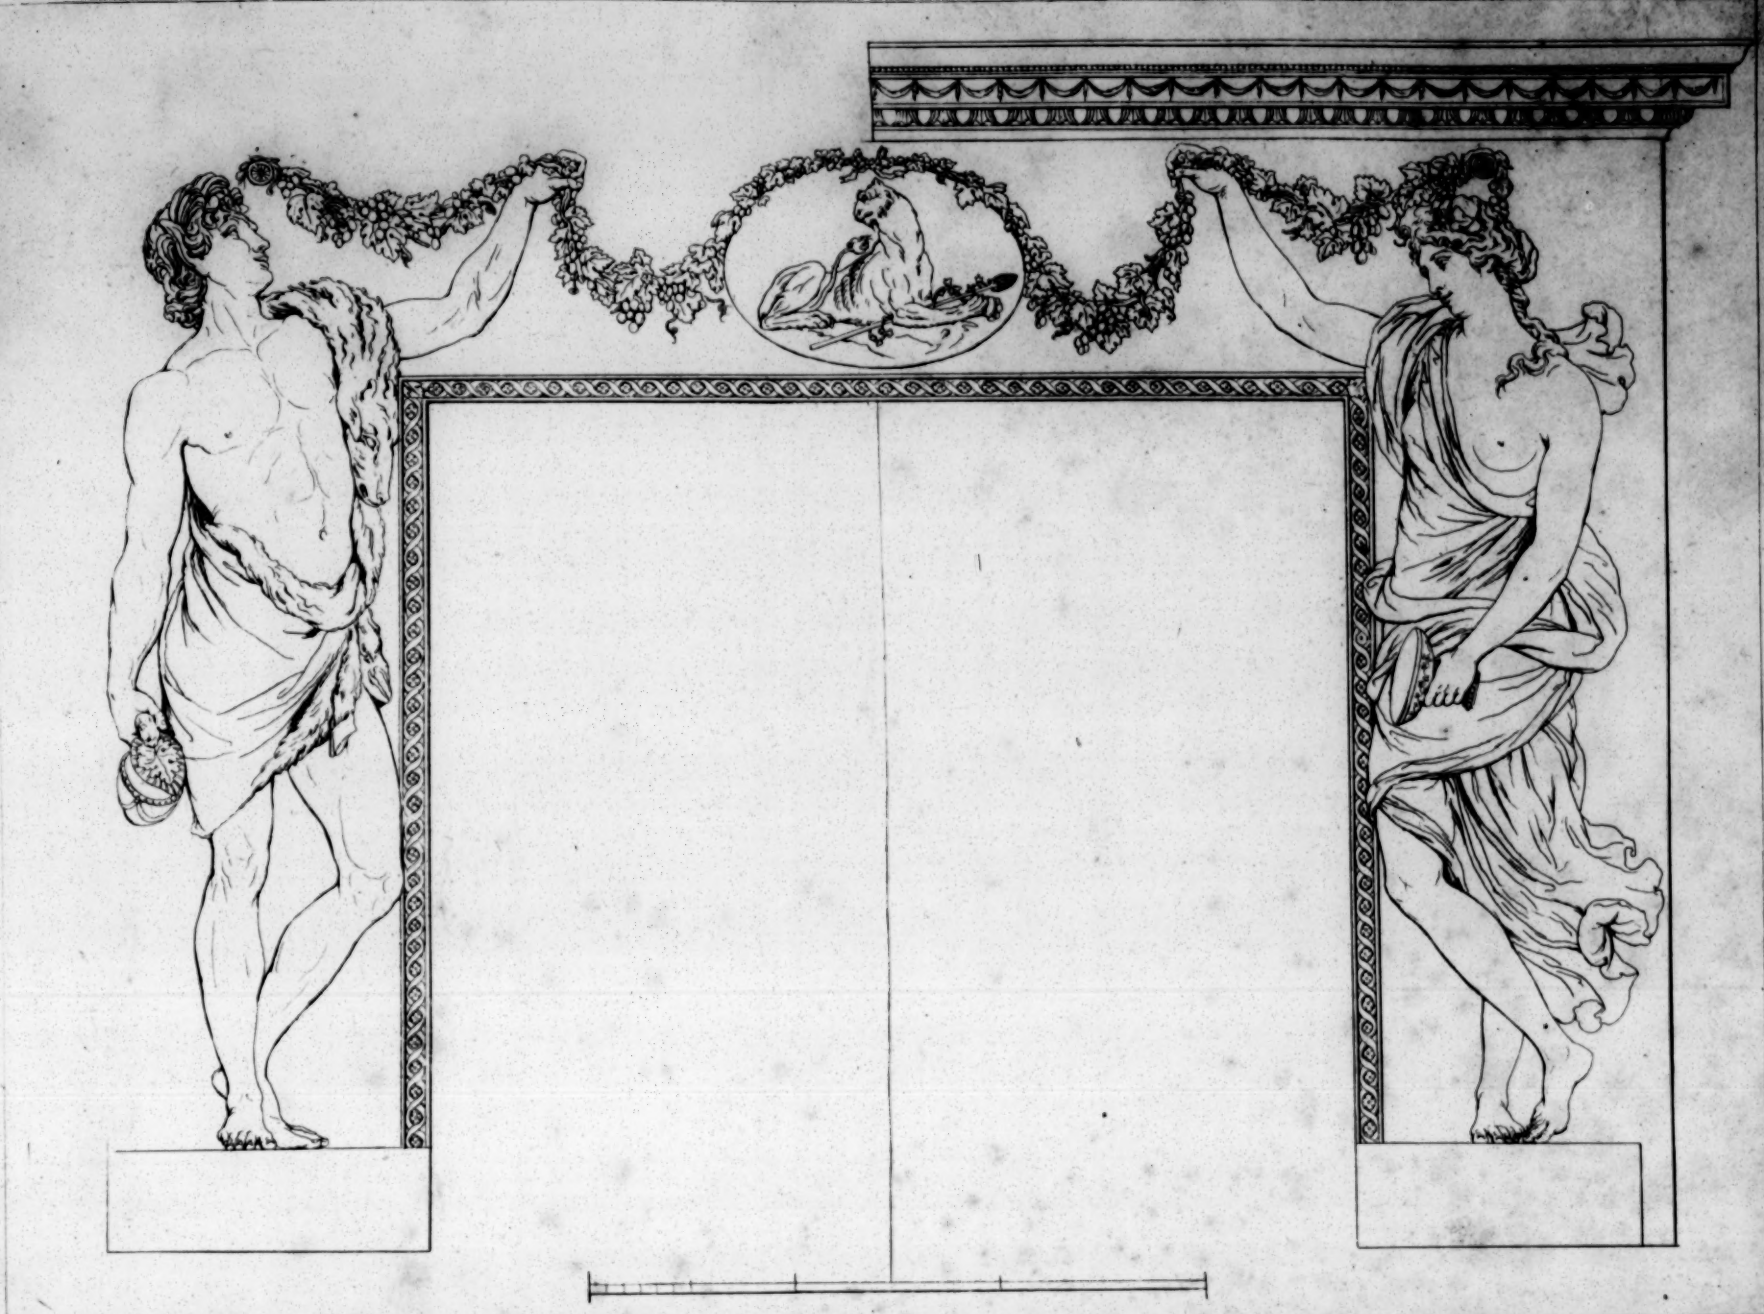

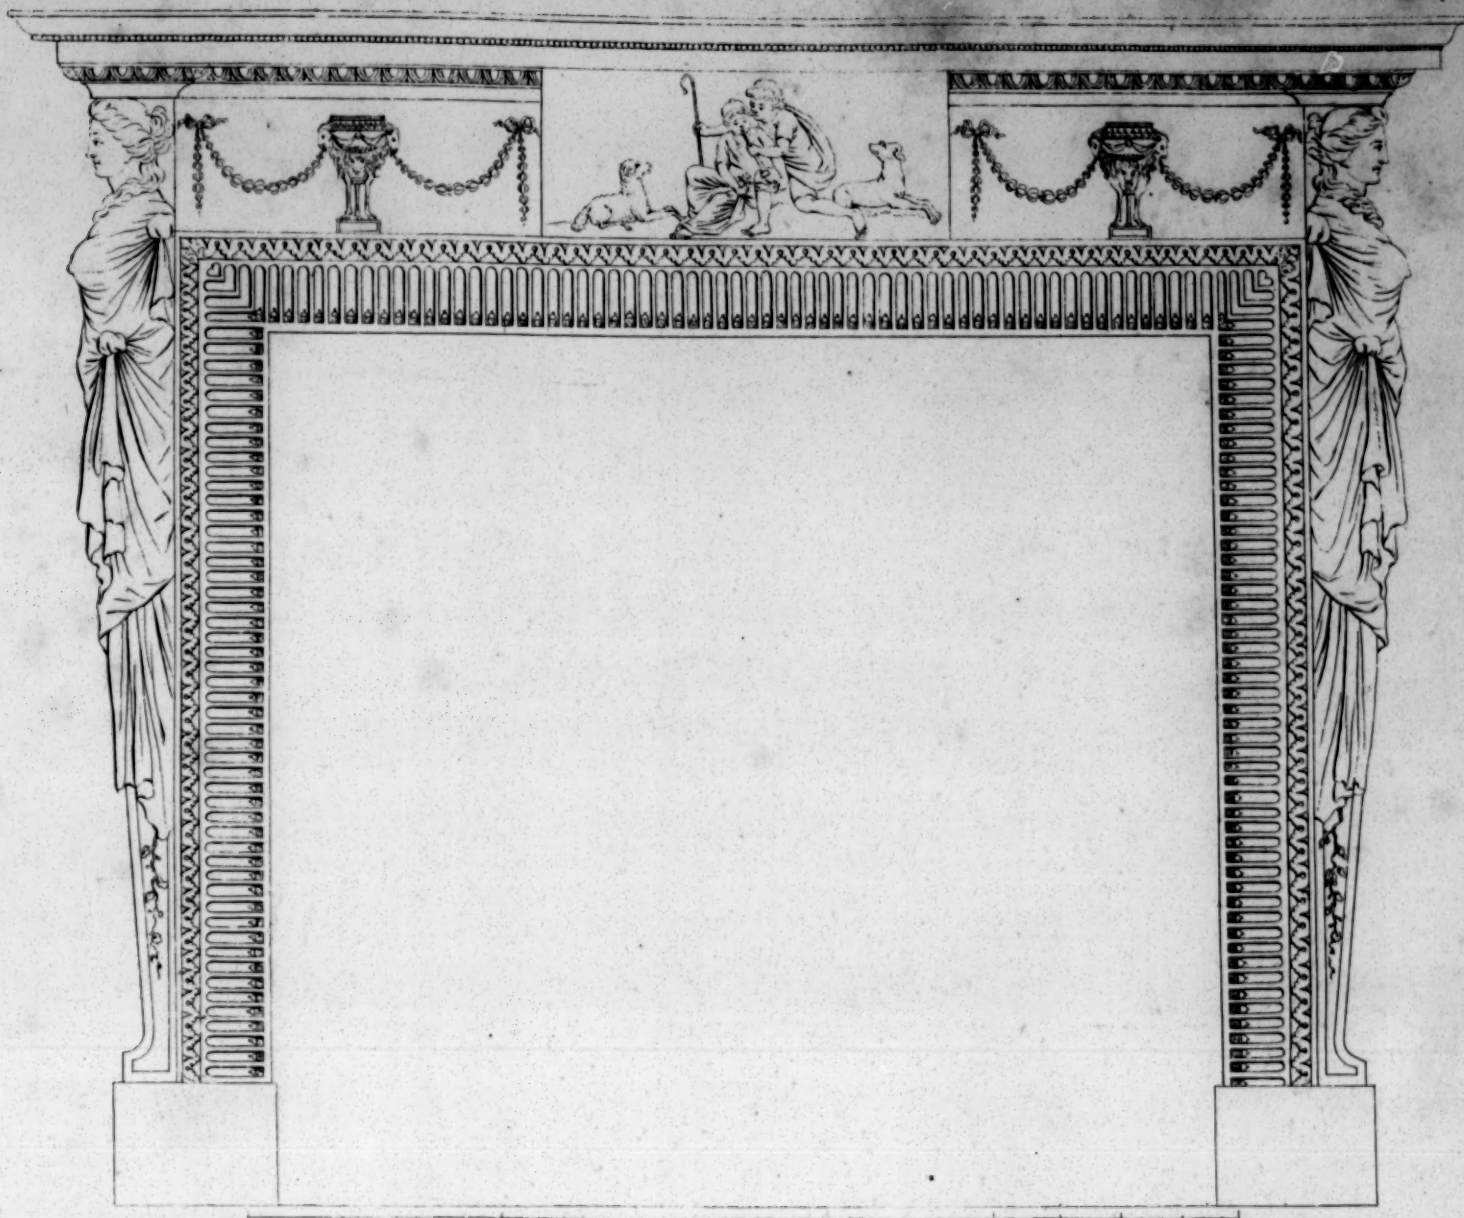

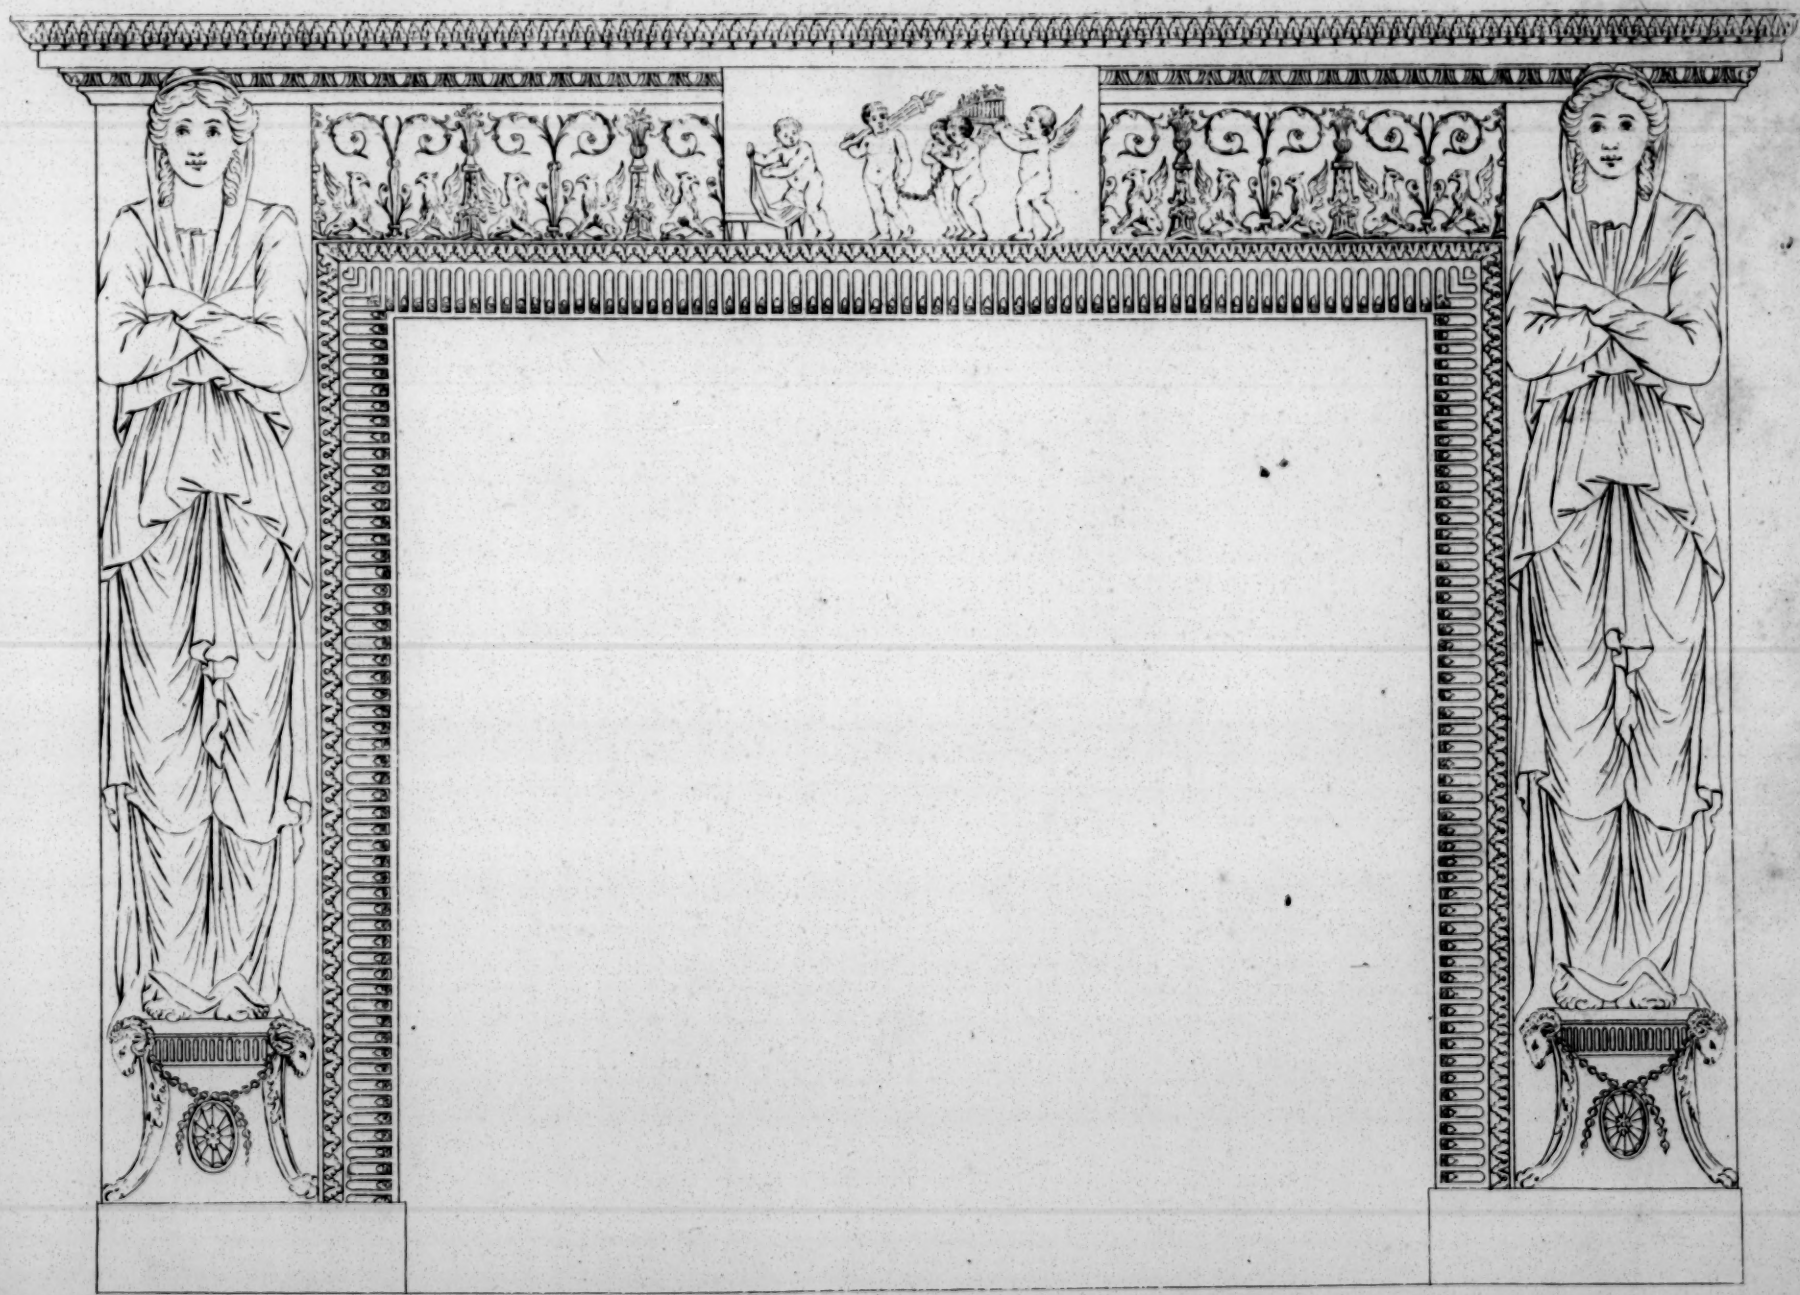

Published as the architect March 9 1774

Published as the architect March 27 1774

2

2

